

HOME MATTERS.

A LARGE TROUT.—A boy, named Miles, last Friday caught a trout in the Allegheny river at this place, which weighed 14 lbs., and measured 16 inches in length, and 7 inches in breadth when cut open, Mr. Glassmire, of the Coudersport Hotel, secured the prize for the sum of 18 1/2 cts. This is the largest trout we ever saw, and we are recently from a great trout country.

The Fremont Club, which met last Thursday evening, was largely attended, not only by gentlemen, but by a goodly number of ladies. Several members addressed the Club in an enthusiastic manner, and were listened to with marked attention by all present. Fremont and Dayton are most decidedly the favorites of the Coudersport ladies. The Club meets regularly every Thursday evening.

The Republican Rally which came off last Saturday at Shippen Grove, McKean County, was largely attended, we are informed by those who were present, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout the entire mass of eight hundred persons who were present. It was addressed by I. F. Maynard and A. G. Olmsted of this place. This meeting was announced in our paper of last week, for Saturday Aug. 23rd, which was an error—the error was not ours.

Among our exchanges we find none so welcome as the "Spirit of the Age," a paper the same size of the Journal, published at Meadville, Crawford Co. It is neatly printed and ably conducted, and a personal acquaintance with Mr. Harren Mitchell, the Editor, warrants us in the assertion that it will do much for the cause it advocates—the principles of the Republican party. It is deserving of the generous support of all freemen in that County, and it affords us much gratification to recommend it to our friends there.

The last number of the Erie Constitution announces that R. Lyle White, Esq., has purchased the entire concern, and will in future edit and publish the paper. It is an able advocate of Fremont and Dayton and our personal knowledge of Mr. White is a guaranty that it will continue to do much good for the cause.

We would call the attention of our readers to the letter of our Meadville Correspondent in another column. We hope that he will favor us with more letters. He formerly resided in this place, and is now attending Allegheny College.

We this week publish the Sheriff's Sales, which, though not so numerous as usual, offer considerable inducement for capitalists to invest their money.

HARRISON, Aug. 12, 1856.
EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL.—The Friends of Freedom and Fremont met at the Harrison Valley House, on Saturday, August 9th inst., and formed a Fremont Club by appointing the following officers: President, AMOS NORTHROP; Vice President, Hubbard Harrison; Treasurer, Isaac Thompson; Secretary, George Gilbert. We adopted the Constitutions and By-Laws as published in your paper. Our regular meeting to be every alternate Tuesday evening at the Harrison Valley House, and at some of the School Houses in the town every other Tuesday evening, giving one meeting every week. On Tuesday evening August 26, the Club will hold a meeting at the Cummings School House for the purpose of making arrangements for the mass meeting in September. The friends throughout the County, are invited to be present and participate in our celebration.

Yours in a good Cause,
S. S. RASCHE.

RABID.—"Fremont is a Catholic," shrieks some terrified Know-Nothing, "Fremont is a bloody Know-Nothing," growls a Buchanier by his side. "Fremont is a slaveholder," yells some man who is going for Donelson with his 100 slaves. "Fremont is a rabid Free-Soiler and an enemy to the South," shouts the Charleston Mercury and all the slaveholders "down South." So goes the rabid opposition. "And he played on harp of a thousand strings," &c.—Detroit Advertiser.

COMMUNICATIONS.

HEBRON FREMONT CLUB.

HEBRON, Aug. 5th, 1856.

ED. JOURNAL: A few weeks ago I wished you to give notice, by way of the Journal, of a meeting to be held at Baker's School House, in Hebron, which you did in the paper of July 24th. The day has passed, and the meeting also, and I wish to notice some of the doings of that meeting, that your readers may know that we are doing something in Hebron for the cause of freedom; and will say if there are no prairies on fire, the pine woods of Hebron are all a-flame, and we are almost to a man for Fremont and Dayton.

It will be remembered the first day of August was a good hay-day, but for all that every man in the neighborhood, at the hour of the meeting, dropped his hay-tools and came to the meeting. The house was soon filled. I will now give you the minutes of the meeting, as kept by the Secretary.

Pursuant to adjournment, Hebron Fremont Club met at the Baker school house, August 1st, at 2 o'clock P. M. The President, Wm. P. Cool, in the Chair, called the meeting to order. S. Baker was appointed Secretary. Then a song was sung by the choir. The minutes were then read of the last meeting. The constitution was then read and names of new members recorded. Then a song was sung by the choir. The meeting was then addressed by Isaac Benson Esq., of Coudersport. Then a song by the choir. The meeting was then addressed by various others of the assembly. Then a song by the choir. The meeting was then addressed by Mr. Cleveland, of Orleans county, N. York. Then a song by the choir. Mr. J. M. Greenman moved that there be a vote of thanks to Mr. Benson by three cheers for Fremont and Dayton, which were heartily rendered both out of respect to Mr. Benson for his noble speech, and also to Fremont and Dayton as our candidates.

The meeting was then adjourned to meet at Hebron Center, Friday, Aug. 15th, at two o'clock. The above meeting passed off to the satisfaction of all present and all went home saying they had been well paid for that afternoon.

Friends of Freedom let us have a good turn-out at our next meeting—we shall have a speaker there, and more songs will be sung by the choir.

A MEMBER OF THE CLUB.

Sweden, Aug. 18th, 1856.

EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL:—On Saturday, the 16th inst., we had a Republican meeting in Sweden; and after reading a part of Rev. Dr. Tyng's Sermon, and Buchanan's letter of acceptance, in which he pledges himself to carry out the measures of the "glorious old party," the Rev. L. F. Porter, made a very spirited address. Mr. P. briefly glanced at the rapid strides which slavery has made since the days of the Fathers, by the addition of new territory, and the strength it would receive by the acquisition of Kansas as Slave Territory, but thought that truth and justice would eventually triumph; and that the result of the election in Iowa, was a strong indication.

We appointed another meeting on Friday, the fifth of September, at the school house near E. Lyman's, at early candle light. An address may be expected from Rev. Mr. Porter, and others. A general attendance is requested.

LIFE PRESERVERS AND PIN CUSHIONS.
The papers are quoting with surprise, says the Buffalo Express, the statement that a large number of the life preservers on board the Northern Indiana were rendered useless from having been perforated by pins. This is a fact, and the same has been true in the case of every steamer lost on the lakes since the burning of the Erie; Captain Titus informed us that those of the Griffith were nearly all so ruined by the ignorance and carelessness of the lady passengers on board, and we have frequently heard from steamboat people, that nothing is more common than that the inflated life preservers in the state rooms have been used as pin cushions. One trip of the steamer carrying them is generally sufficient time to complete the destruction of the greater portion of all on board, as one pin-hole to each will render it unserviceable.
