MR. Romme-Not wishing to intrude my scribbling into public gaze, but considering the present era of such yast importance that a bold front should he made—that all men should speak to those having use for them at the boldly for Freedom, exposing Black Democracy in all its fieudish colors and shapes, denouncing the South's Northern allies par excellence with their leaders and advisors Stringfollow & Co.

"But there is a good time coming." shousands are throwing party whims to the wind, are becoming disgusted at their folly, and are resolving to "walk in wisdom's way's"-"The old Jeffersonian Platform must be reestablished they say," and they plinly see to accomplishe that John Charles Fremont, must be placed in the Executive Chair.

The Buchananites of this place and what few can be collected in Roulet, have joined issue and are making great efforts to perpetuate Black Democracy in this section but the spirit of 1776; is not entirely crushed out. Hankerism is doomed but it dies hard.

At a late Meeting in Roulet, given by the "Leaders of the Beck outrage." preparation were made for a grand "Blow" to be struck for the Cincinnati Platform; so rigging up a fourhorse team the old Fogies collected what hove they could get and started Roulet. But, "oh disappointment, thou hast no charms!"-the grand blow to be struck, turned out to be rain, and a more rainy afternoon we have not had for two months. The sight was ludicrous in the extreme. Drenched to the skin, they returned, but said not one word about their meeting.

Our neighbors in McKean are waking up-a re-doubled effort is manifested by her citizens. In a little setthemont 7 miles from this place, of about 35 voters, but 1 Buchanan man can be found, and he is doubtful. So the work L. F. Maynard, Esq., will attend and goes bravely on, and there is a fair address the meeting at the Olosted prospect of James Buchanan taking a School House, and I. Benson, Esq., the vide up Salt River on the Cincinnati Platform, labeled "Diny Jones", " and having D. W. C. James's black flag nailed at the mast head. J. L. W.

ALLEGANY, Aug. 25, 1856. ED. Japaver.-There was a large Republican Meeting held at the Judd School House, in this township, on Saturday afternoon last, which was organized by electing G. W. G. Junn Chairman, and O. P. Chamberlain Secretary. A large company was present from Hebron, Messrs, Mann and Benson ad iresed the meeting, showing clearly the object and duty of Government; ly the object and duty of Government; and the failure of the present Adminstration in its duty—its corruptness and sectional tendencies, and also the necessity of changing the Governmental policy by electing Fremont and Towns of the Pence, or the Borough of Condersport, on MONDAY, the 15th day of Sopt, next, and to continue one week.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Congress Justices of the Peace, and Constants. Dayton. Some good songs were sung, A'though there were no treasonable or fanatical demonstrations made there: was an evident determination of all present (with only one exception) to restore the Government to the policy of its founders. The town of Allegany will give a good Republican majority this fall. QNE OF 'EM.
