REPUBLICANS.

Ox Thursday evening last, we had the nleasure of our first ride into the rural districts of this county, and also of attending for the first time a Fremont Meeting in this section. The meeting was held at the Red School House, in Roulett, and was numerously attended by the citizens of the surrounding country, and also by some of the citizens of this place, Allegany and Hebion. There were about four hundred persons, including some 80 ladies. Messra. Olmstead and Benson, of this place, made telling speches' and Capt. N. J. Mills, of Eulalfa, finished up for the evening in a few witty and pointed emarks. Good feeling, and enthusism for Fremont and Freeds as preniled in the meeting without any acception. The cavalcade from Hebron, Allegany and this place, number ed three four-horse and seven twoorse teams. A number of briners were displayed, a nong which we noficed one having the following inscripion "The Lidies of Condersport for te nont. Free Kansas and Free Sail! We were much pleased with the exarsion, not only on account of the

We publish the communication of Do Goed," in justice to friends in Bingham, who were grossly slandered by the Patriot. But we desire to caution our friends against personality. And we beg them to be brief and to the point. We had to abridge this article of "Do Goed," and still it is rather long for our small paper.

THE Condersport Fremont and Dayton Club meet this (Thursday) evening Let all who are opposed to Southern aggression and in favor of Freedom be present, as this is the last meeting A meeting of the friends of Fremont of the Club, previous to the Mass

> Our correspondents in the country will please to be brief and to the point in their communications, as we are under the necessity of delaying many that we would publish with pleasure could we possibly find room for them.

We this week give a large share of our available space to the Sheriff's Proclamation for the general election. There are some changes in the places Liling elections to which we would invite the attention of our readers.

C. B. Curtis and S. P. Johnson, will address the meeting at the Court House on Monday evening of Court.

Good speakers will also address a meeting on Wednesday evening, which will be a continuation of the afternoon mass meeting.
