Taz meeting of the Fremont Club of Caudersport, on Manday avoning last, was truly a grand affair. N. P. Williston, Beq., of Wellsbiro, was the first speaker, and entertained the large andience assembled in the Court Room for a half hour or so very pleasantly and offective'y, when, after a so-12 by the excellent Glee Club of this village, S. P. Johnson, Esq., of Warren, was called for by the au lience, and add weed them for an hour in an enthusiastic and truly impressive mannertouching briefly all sides, and the general issue of the present campaig a with calm arguments and incontrovertible facts. Mr. J. is an excellent stumpspeaker, and his speech was listened to by some Hunker office-seekers in this section, in a manner that s'rowed the force of his words'up on their political tenets and party policy-they tro nbled for their cause in Potter. "Buchinan and Brockentides and Free Kinsas!" they flud, does not "take" here. " Polk & Dillis and the Tariff of'42" cannot be gulped down a second time by the citizens of Potter. Sixteen young ladies, from 10 to 17 years of age organized into a choir and sung au excellent song just before Mr. Williston commenced speaking. We understand they are to join in the procomion on Wednesday, with a handsome banner. A large number of ladies were present at the meeting. Tur Republicans in Crawford, Eric. Venango and Warren counties, are playing serious jokes upon the Democrais at their Mass meetings, as we learn by a private letter. At Erie, a Republican suggested a division of the crowd, and offered to bet $100 that there was a majority of Fremonters. The bet had no respondent. At Enterprise, two different bets were offered of $100 with the like result. At this meeting several of the faithful became disgusted and came out buildly with the declaration that they were satisfied and would vote for Fremont. At Dempseytown, Venango Co., the crowd was divided, and the Fremont-Breckenridge and Free Kansas" in Western Pennsylvania.

We are requested to give notice at the Turner school house in Bingham, on Saturday, Sept. 27, at one o'clock. lasac Benson and T. E. Gridley will be present and address the meeting, The reputation of Mr. Benson as a resentative of the Erie and Crawford Congressional District, has been unanimously renominated by the conferees who met at Edinboro on the 5th iust. We congratulate the Republicans of Crawford and Eric on having again secured the services of one so truly a representative of the people. He is well deserving of the compliment of a third term. The "Hou." attached to his name, has two significant definitions among those who know him best, viz : Honorab'e and Honest. The first title he fully justifies by his public bearing; and the second applies not only to his political course, but also to his private life. Long life to Honest John Dick! His nomination is synanymous with his election.

Tais is Court week, and of course our town is full of people, including many distinguished lawyers &c., from abroad. Among these are S. P. Johnson and C. B. Curtis, of Warren, N. P, Williston, and Judge White, of Wellsboro, Allison White Esq., and H. L, Diffenbach of Lock Haven, Gen. Wm. H. Irwin, and Hon. John J. Pearcs of Williamsport. Among those expected are Dr. Elder, of Philadelphia, and Hon. Martin Grover, of Angelies, N. Y., who are to address the meeting on Wednesday, in conjunction with Gen. Irwin and Mr. Pearco.

Lieut. Geo. M'G. Dick, of the U. S. Army, eldest son of Hon, John Dick of Meadville, died at Camp Cooper, Texas, on the 31st of last July. He was a young man of fine intellectual endowments, and an excellent officer -a warm personal friend of ours, and in his death the public has sustained a great loss, his parents and friends an irreconcilable bereavement, and the army has met with & loss not easily replaced.

COMMUNICATIONS.

NEW IBELAND, Aug. 23, 1856. EDS. JOURNAL: New Ireland is in the north part of Genessee township, Potter county, Pa. It is chiefly settled by the Irish, they numbering at this time more than forty families. I have resided among them about two years, and find them to, be an honest, industrious people, and some of them very intelligent. Here is the stronghold for James Buchanau in Potter, and I very much doubt whether the recan be found as many decent, industrious, well behaved Buchanan men n all the rest of the county, as are to be found in this settlement. We have about thirteen voters besides the Irish, who are nearly all in favor of Col. J.

The crops look exceedingly well in the crops took exce, dingly well in accordingly, and your petitioners, as in duty this place considering we have had so bound, will ever pray, &c. much dry weather. Yours, &c., HENRY.

Вилком, Sept. 11, 1856. MESSAS EDITORS: I have become somewhat interested in your Journal since I began to take any interest in the great political question which so agitates and disturbs the peace of this glorious Republic. I shall pray for success as long, as it unholds the its success as long as it upholds the principles of every true citizen of the United States; and knowing of no other way by which to manifest my thanks to the Journal for the truths received from it, I contribute a few lines (if acceptable) to its columns.

The time is fast approaching when we, at the people of a great Republic, are to decide whether it shall remain such, or whether it shall be forever bound down by the curse of slavery. It becomes every man to consider well the important step he is about to take, and not be as the old democratic Buchananites of Sharon, who having eyes see not, and having ears hear not the truths that resound on every side. The few old Democrats left in Sharon, are trying to keep their honor bright by collecting a few old instruments of music, such as a banjo, cymbal, triore were just double the number of angle, etc.; but their movements are Buchaneers. So much for "Buchanan | barely perceptible to the closest observer, for the reason that there are so very few engaged in the degrading cause, and even those are ashamed to that a Republican meeting will be held for Buchanan and slavery. Why, my come out boldly and say that they are friends, if you wish to ascertain a man's political belief, all you have to do, is to give him the test word, "Buchanan," and he will either manifest his position three weeks, setting forth that application has

THE HON, JOHN DICK, present Rep- say, "You mintake your man, sir; 1 am for Fremont and Freedom."

> This, my friends, is a fair representation of the feelings of the people of Sharou. A FRIEND OF HUMANITY.

The Editors would modestly suggest to our friend that a still more efficient way of siding the Journal, would be to procure new subscribers with the pay in advance.]

EDWARD HAMILTON, who was during the Presidential campaign of 1852 Secretary of the Democratic State Committee of Massachusetts and President of the Granice Club of Roxbury, is out with a circular announcing his determination to support Fremont and Dayton. He repudiates the "Democracy" of the present Alministration because, as he says, "it has violated and trodden under foot the Constitution of the United States," and because "it has been false to its most solemn pledges;" he refuses to "inderse and perpetuate the crimes of this Administration" because its plots for the extension of Slavery are so atrocious "that history will write 'in famous' as its epitaph, and brand it as the associate of murderers and would be assassins."-N. Y. Tribune.

We would again remind our friends who are attending Court, that this is excellent opportunity to pay us any account they may chance to owe us.
