Inwin of Mifflin, who soon won the entire attention of the large audience. and retained it for nearly an hour and a hulf. by a speech that would have done credit even to Charles Summer. His diction is chaste and easy, free from all language calculated to offend the feelings of the most fastidious person, and at the same time, of the most emphatic argumentative character. His delivery was eloquent and strictly rhetorical. The loud and reveated cheers of the audience, showed that they were listening with favorable ears to his sentiments. We predict, first that the people of this district will elect him to Con. with dust, rendering it almost impos- gress this fall; and secondly, that they will be Hon. Jour J. PEARCE of Lycoming, our

It is stated in one of our exchanges that Mr. Buchanan, in the year 1812, supported the Federal candidates De Witt Clinton and Jared Ingersoll for President and Vice President both being from the Free States. Mr. Fillmore also supported in 1828 John Q. o wit : Adams and Richard Rush for the same offices, both being from the Free States, and in 1836 he also supported William H. Harrison and Francis Granger, again both Free State men. A change has come over the spirit of their dreams since then. Mr. Buchanan's change occurred in or before 1821, when he supported Jackson and Calhoun, both Sonthern meu, for President and Vice President, as he did the same persons in 1828. Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Fillmore both stand on the same platform now in denouncing as violent and revolutionary what they at one time regarded as right and proper. Mr. Fillmore says :

"But this is not all, Sir. We see a political party presenting candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presi dency, selected for the first time from the Free States alone, with the avowed purpose of electing these candidates by suffrages of one part of the Union only, to rule over the whole United States."-North American.

Allison White, Esq., the Bachanan caudidate for Congress in this district, made an open confession of the true position of his party. He said, in the course of his speech at the any such scruples-but because slave labor is not adapted to the soil and climate of that territory."

We submit that a man who has no scruples against depriving a fellow man of his liberty, is not fit to be the representative of freemen. We shall see on the 14th of next month how many voters in this county have no scruples against holding s'aves, because, after this frank avowal of Mr. White, no man who does possess such scruples, will think of voting for him.

Our friends will remember that there is to be a Mass Meeting of Republicans in Harrison on Wednesday, ! Oct. 1st. Let there be a general turn
