

HOME MATTERS.

The Office of the Journal is now removed to the old Store-house of Mr. Lewis Mann, in the rear room, second floor, where we will in future be pleased to receive the visits of our friends who have business with the office.

The Stage to Jersey Shore now runs twice a week from and to Kettle Creek, leaving this place Tuesdays and Fridays. Persons going through to Jersey Shore now leave Coudersport on Tuesday mornings.

The communication of our Pleasant Valley correspondent will be found worthy of perusal. It is to the point, and gives a pretty good idea of the feeling which pervades the whole North in regard to the great issue. We will be pleased to publish the communications of J. L. W. whenever we can find room for them.

Several large and very enthusiastic meetings were held in various sections of the county during the past week; but owing to the crowded state of our columns, we are unable to give the details.

WEST PIKE, Oct. 8, 1856.

Eds. JOURNAL: I herewith send you a specimen of field potatoes from Pike—27 weighing 26 lbs., and measuring half a bushel. Weight of 2 largest, 2 lbs. 14 oz. I think that in size and quality they will compare favorably with anything in the county. Accept them from a subscriber, S. H. MARTIN.

Most obliged, friend Martin, not only for the fine mass of potatoes, but for the pleasure of placing your success in that line on record.

The REPUBLICAN SPEARHEAD, containing the Pastors, and a choice selection of Exercises for the real Questions in issue, the Opinions of the Candidates, the Nature and Designs of the Slave Allegory, as shown by the various Writers, and the Opinions of Clay, Webster, W. W. Wood, and of her Father, on Slavery and its extension. Price, by the quantity of one number, 12 cents each. Boston: John P. Jewett & Co., Publishers.

We have received from the publishers an 80 page pamphlet bearing the above title, and giving much other information in a convenient form for reference. It is a valuable hand-book to speakers and all others who become involved in political discussions. It may be procured by cash orders on the Publishers.

By a letter received from his agent, we learn that "Professor Turner, with his wife and white horse," will visit this place in the course of the next two weeks. (due notice of the time being given) and give one of his scientific and experimental lectures upon the various subjects of Electricity, Magnetism, and Galvanism, together with a sketch of the history of all peculiarities of the Albinos, of which he is a representative. Below we give a few particulars in regard to the Professor, forwarded to us by his agent:

Prof. Turner's Lecture at the M. E. Church, proved interesting and instructive. His experiments are interesting, and those who would see an evening pleasantly and profitably, will do so by patronizing him.—Wellsburg's Register.

I do cheerfully recommend Prof. Turner and his lectures to the confidence of the public.—Rev. L. Stone, of Charleston.

Prof. T. is happily adapted to the work in which he is engaged, and by the studious application he has made, he is enabled to excel in the department of science. I therefore recommend him to my friends.—J. M. Allen, P. E. of the Troy Circuit of the M. E. Church.

We do not know how a person can better possess or more of these long evenings, than by attending Prof. Turner's lectures; for he is popular to most of those who travel, only acquainted with the subject in which he is engaged, sufficiently to raise the mind by imposing upon the public; but he understands what he says, and has a faculty of imparting so that his audience will understand. Attend, you who have an opportunity.—Valatie Weekly Times.

Prof. T. has given two of his scientific lectures in this place. He had full houses and lots of fun.—Mirror, Bloomville, N. Y.

Prof. T. lectured here last eve, and so far all we can learn, to the entire satisfaction of us present.—D. C. Chase, Bloomville, N. Y.

The Engineers "strike" on the N. Y. & E. Railroad, is still existing, much to the inconvenience of the traveling public, and the injury of the company. We are of the opinion that the Engineers had no very strong grounds for maintaining so disastrous a strike, and we hope the public will sustain the Directors and Superintendents through the crisis.

COMMUNICATION.

For the Journal.

Errors of Journal: As I have had somewhat of a chance to feel the popular pulse in the present canvass, I am at liberty to say it is up to fever heat on the present issue—Freedom and Free Kansas. Yet the patients are doing well; their nerves are strong and their energy has not been surpassed since the days of the Stamp Act and the Duty on Tea. The work goes bravely on. The Buck and Breck men stand and tremble, saying "what shall I do to be saved?" Gov. Reeder's letter rings in their ears like the voice of one crying in the wilderness. I heard an Old Haucker say that any who read his strong and forcible arguments, his frank and honest convictions, and yet vote for James Buchanan, would help raise a British flag on Washington's grave. That assertion I think has more truth encompassed than fiction. Yet there are a few in opposition, who are like the lost sheep of Israel—who vote as their fathers did before them; but they are generally confined to the most ignorant class. An illustration: one man says he will not vote for Fremont because he took Kate Carson with him on his exploring expedition, and left his beautiful wife at home, which he says is against all laws of propriety. The most prominent cry "Cal. Benton is a slaveholder!" forgetting that John C. Breckinridge boasts in his public speeches that he is the owner of a hundred slaves, and that a vote given for Buchanan is one given for him. That fact they look over; but "facts are stubborn things," says an ancient writer.

But hark! gentle reader, the first Buchanan meeting of note in this place, was committed on the 6th inst.; but unlike their Missouri friends, they left without doing any mischief save raising the ghosts of murdered Dow, Barber, and Brown, and throwing out a few slanderous reports in justification of their ignominious cause. The would-be Sheriff, J. M. Kilbourn, was their chief speaker. He spoke at some length picking flaws in the Constitution, justifying the Border Ruffians, and begging for votes, saying he was a business man, had been elected twice to the House, and understood the creed of the Democratic party. But the generality of the People are determined not to bow any longer at the shrine of slavery. They see its blighting influence, and that its extension would cause, in time, a code of laws to be passed in Pennsylvania, equal to the present code in Kansas. But thank God! Hunkerism is gradually fusing out. They are doomed, like the red men of our forests, to give way to civilization. Peace and prosperity will grow up where once was strife and confusion. Where once the yell of the Border Ruffian and the shrieks of their Northern allies sounded, will be reared churches, colleges, and manufactories. Where once the sound of the drum was heard, there will be heard the forge-hammer and the woodman's axe. Therefore let every one pray for God to speed the time, Yours truly, J. E. W.

PLEASANT VALLEY, Oct. 7, 1856.

We find the following handsome and deserved compliment to our townsman in the Muncy Luminary of last week. Mr. Benson made hosts of friends in Clinton and Lycoming counties during his trip out there. He returned home on Thursday last much pleased with his visit, and in good cheer; and without a doubt of his and Mr. Knox's election; "I have Benson, Esq., the other Union candidate for the Assembly, visited this county last week, but owing to prior engagements, he has, as yet, been unable to visit the 'lower end,' but our friends may rest assured that in Mr. Benson they have an able and worthy candidate—a man whom they may support with feelings of just pride. Mr. Benson addressed the Mass Meeting, as stated elsewhere, at Williamsport, on Friday last, much to the gratification and satisfaction of all who heard him. All our friends unite that Mr. Benson has the ability to make one of the best and most respectable members ever sent from the District. Like Col. Knox he evinces a disposition to go to Harrisburg to work, and to work for his constituents and the interests of his State, rather than for self and his party. Everything in the present aspect of the campaign, points unmistakably to the triumphant election of Knox and Benson, and as Dow, Jr., would say, 'so mote it be.'

The Republicans of old Westmoreland, the ancient Banner Democratic county of Western Pennsylvania, held a grand and enthusiastic demonstration, on Wednesday, Oct. 8th, in Greensburg. The people were addressed by Hon. N. P. Banks, Mr. G. W. Smith, one of the Kansas Government prisoners, Hon. Thos. Williams, and Hon. Wm. F. Johnston, of Pittsburgh. A moderate estimate in the Pittsburgh Gazette, puts the number of persons in the procession at 4,500. Old Westmoreland is good for 800 or 1000 majority for Fremont and Dayton. As an evidence of the feeling of the old Democrats there, we will state that hickory poles bearing Fremont flags, were to be seen on nearly every corner in the town. Poor Slavery Democracy! Thou art indeed fallen in the Keystone State.

An important accession to the Republican cause, is announced in a telegraphic dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune, dated Philadelphia, Oct. 9. Geo. S. Coffey, editor of the Evening Argus, a Democratic paper, and the person who was speaker of the Keystone Club which formally announced to Mr. Buchanan his nomination by the Cincinnati Convention; joined the Democratic Fremont Club of Philadelphia, the evening of the 8th inst. He had just returned from stamping the State for Buchanan. He had clung to the rotten ship as long as good sense would allow him to, and we guess a little longer.

ASCENTS OF MONT BLANC.—The first ascent of Mont Blanc was accomplished in 1741, by Richard Pocock, an Englishman. Of 88 persons who have since that time reached the summit, 57 were English, Irish or Scotch; 15 French; 6 citizens of the Sardinian State; 5 Americans; 3 Swiss; 5 Poles; 1 Neapolitan; 1 Russian; 1 Swede. Three of these adventurers were ladies.

MISSOURI.

A. Kayser, Esq., a prominent leader of the liberal party in Missouri, and said to be a confidential friend of Col. Benton, publishes a letter in the St. Louis Republican, urging the nomination of a Fremont electoral ticket in that State. "Why is it," he asks, "that the numerous friends of Mr. Fremont in this State, have no electoral ticket in the field, whilst the other middle States—Kentucky, Virginia, and Maryland, whose children principally peopled Missouri—present full tickets for Mr. Fremont." He contends that the Benton men are not bound to vote the Buchanan ticket, because they were not represented in the Convention which nominated it. "Let us," he continues, "get up a great Union Democratic party, to protest against the malfeasance, many and great, of the pseudo Democracy now at the helm of our national affairs, with whom, unfortunately for himself and for us, Mr. Breckinridge has identified himself."

The fact that such an appeal appears, though under protest, in a journal widely circulated in Missouri, is significant, and shows that there is a strong undercurrent of opinion, opposed to slavery extension, which must eventually find expression in some effective form.

One half of the business portion of the village of Perry, a thriving town in Wyoming county, N. Y., was destroyed by fire on Thursday last. Among the buildings destroyed were Post Office, Masonic Hall, Methodist church, Wyoming Times office, and eight stores. It was the work of an incendiary.
