From the N. American and U. S. Gazette. PREELOM'S TRUMPET CALL TO PENNSYL-VANIA.

----To the resone! Pennsylvania! To the rescue, one and all! Grandsire, father, son, and brother, Wake to Freedom's dying call. Now or never!

Shall she stand, or shall she fall? See our Flag half-mast and drooping. Lowered by Douglas' dastard hand; Once to ALL it gave protection, Now to only half the land.

Southern masters, North and South the reins demand! See the smoke of plundered dwellings, Rising through you virgin sky; See the crimson torrents flowing, Where our brothers slaughtered lie! Border Ruffians, Laws of God and man defy!

Keystone of the glorious Union, Which our fathers built of yore; Keep the Union where they placed it, Or that stone you are no more. Keep the prairies

Free, and free forever more! Presidom then was of the Nation, Slavery bounded by the States; Now that some would change their places, Waken! ere it be too-late. Yours the ballot

That will turn our country's fate,

Many eyes are now upon thee, Of the nation and the world; Now, of all times in thy history, Should thy banner be unfurled. "KANSAS TYRANTS!

? 4 From your bloody sents be hurled!" Have thine eyes upon the traitors Who would strike a subtile blow, They would bribe thee, they would buy thee, Throughthy pride, to lay thee low.

For our country, Not alone the State we go. On the Bell of Independence, Rung by Freedom's sainted band: Thus it reads the sacred motto: "Liberty through all the land."

. Ring it loudly, Ring, with mighty heart and hand! Pennsylvania! head the column, In the battle of the free;

Yours will be a double glory, In the shout of victory. God will bless you, When you strike for liberty.

A ROYALIST REVOLUTION - Revolutions in favor of Republics are frequent in Europe, but the last news from across the Atlantic brings us an account of an attempt to revolutionize almost the only Republic in Europethe Swiss Union-and in favor of royalty. The canton Neufchatel, on the morning of the 4th of September, rose in opposition to the Federal Govern-ment, said to have been instigated to the act by the King of Prussia who prishes to incorporate the territory consists of all the usual varieties of . with the Prussian monarchy.

A Prussian nobleman, by name and surname Count Fredrick Pourtales, followed by two or three royalists, seized on the castle at Neufchatel, arjusted several members of the Council of State, hoisted the Prussian flag and issued a proclamation appealing to the "royal" sympathies of the most deter mined Republicans in Europe. A second column marched on a place less known to fame-La Chaux-de-Fonds. The Federal Government was roused to action, and sent two or three of its regiments to meet the insurgerts, and they seemed to have effects ally done their work, for the Republican colors of Neufchatel were victorious, the royslists having twelve killed, and fifty wounded, and a hundred prisoners, and at La Chaux-de-Fouds had fifteen men killed and thirty wounded. From two to three hundred of them were made prisoners. The Swiss government is a continual source of irritation to the surrounding monarchs of Europe, as it is a sanctuary to the political refugee. If the recent attempt to dissolve the government had been serious, it is believed that Prussia, Austria, and France, would have stepped in and wiped out the Republic forever .-Ledger.

Proposing Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendments are proposed to the constitution of the commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

FIRST AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article cloren. as follows:-

> ARTICLE MI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS.

Src. 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues. or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general as-seu bly, or at different periods of time, shall nevsee bly, or at different periods of time, shan neverexceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the injury arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Sec. 2. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repelinvasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Sec. 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the state.

Sig. 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contract d as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the according interest on such debt, and adaptably to reduce the principal thereof by a sum and less than two principal thereof by a sum not less than two huntred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking find shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same or any part descent and of sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, toge her with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law.— The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt and the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five midious of dollars.

Sec. 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged or ionned to, any individual, company, corpo-ration, or association; nor shall the common-weal. In hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

Sec. 6. The commonwealth shall not as sume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township; or any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel in rasion, suppress domestic insurrec-tion, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebiedness.

Sec. 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or in-corporated district, by virtue of a vo.e of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation or to obtain money for loan its credit to; any corporation, association institution, or party

SECOND AMENDMENT, There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as feliows:

ARTIGLE III. OF NEW COUNTIES.

No county shall be divided by a line cutting oil over one-tenth of its population, (either to form a new county or otherwise.) with out the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.
