HOME MATTERS.

A fine, large, brown horse was sto len from Mr. Geo. C. Custard, of Chitny Valley, Clinton Co., on the 25th ult. Mr. C. says he has refused more than $200 for him more than once See advertisement in another column for description.

"Life Illustrated," of the 8th inst contains a fine portrait of Mr. D. C. M'Callum, the Superintendent of the N. Y. and E Railroad, who has won himselfa high position in railroad history by the indomitable energy and spirit he has ovinced particularly in his late successful bout with the engine eers. The 'aco indicates his character, and his beard looks very F.emontish.

WE invite attention to the article from the Evening Post; in another column, headed "Political Retributions," and also one from the Philadelphia Times, headed "Pennsylvania." We hope Democrate and Republicans will both read them.

FOUR BLACK BEARS were killed in Pleasant Valley township, week hefore last, by Mosses. S. Palmer and Lewis Lyman, of Roulette tewnship. They were an old she bear and three cubs. They had killed two sheep for Mr. Lyman, and were devouring the same when killed,

Apropos of hunting, we will state that a young man named Rees, last week killed a buck near this place which weighed 239 lbs, undressed, and hore a head-dress of eleven prengs. This is the largest deer we have ever seen, and through the never-failing may agement of "mine hoat" of the Coudersport Hotel, we had the pleasure of eating until our digestive organs gave us warning that more would be too much. Dan, always has m table spread with abundance and variety.

Hone Anson Burlingame has been reflected to Congress, in the Boston District by Seventy majority. On the evening of the election the friends of his competitor, Mr. Appleton, waited upon him with the intelligence from a hunker newspaper office that he was elected by 149 majority, whereupon he made them a brief but thankful speech accepting the high homor, & . The next day, however, he was ineration that Mr. Burlingame was elected by seventy majority. No doubt Mr. B. feels 24 proud of his 70 as Lewis B. Campbell did of his 19, considering all the circumstances.

Is another column we this week peacht the Prospectus of the Coudersport Academy for 1857-the first or Wirter term of which commences, on Monday, December 8th. It will be seen that the year has been divided istothrecterms of thist-on wooks each, instead of four terms of eleven weeks, which change has also necossitated an increase in the price of Tuition. Mr. Hendrick continues as Principal, and Miss. C. A. Stockwell as Preceptress, and the Trustees have accomplished a great benefit to the institution and its students, in having perfected a rerugagement of those excellent teachers. The large increase of students at the Term now closing, argurs well for the prosperity of an institution that is eminently worthy the support and preference of those who desire to give their offspring a good education-and it is particularly and justly descrying of the most liberal patronage of the citizens of Potter County. Citizens of neighboring counties in this and New York State, will derive much benefit to their children by sendwho desire to become fitted for Teaching, will do well to attend this institution, which we do not hesitate to assert, is now amply prepared to furnish them with a thorough course of instructions for that vocation.

We clip the above item from the Manefield (Tiega Co., Pa.,) Express, It needs no comment from us-it speaks for itself, and oh! the afflicted parents, what must be their sorrow, who, more than all others feel the wound.
