HOME MATTERS.

Ora Village Subscribers must not be surprised to receive a call from, our "devil" during the week as he says be is determined to have the hands paid for their work, if there is enough invitation to "pay up."

Ar a special meeting of the First Universalist society of Sharon, held at the usual place of meeting, on the 16th day of November, 1856, the following preamble and resolutions were manimously adopted :

WHEREAS our beloved brother, and Pastor, the Rev. L. F. Potter, has strictly upon the ready pay system. All who deemed it necessary to dissolve his wish to buy cheaper than ever before in Couconnection with this Society and remove to some otier field of labor, or study. Therefore.

Resolved, That we deeply regret the negesity of parting with one, to swhom we have by nearly three years. of pleasant and profitable intercourse become strongly attached.

Resolved, That in all the relations of life, as a man and citizen, as a friend and brother and as Pastor of this Society, he has not only secured the ap probation, but endeared himself to the earts of its members:

Resolved, That is an earnest and faithful preacher of the gospel, as a zealous laborer in the cause of Univer alism, and of Progress and reforms generally, and as an independent man we cordially recommend bim to the go nadence and support of the ord .

Resolved, That the foregoing p.eamble and resolutions, he published in the Christian Embassador and the Potter County papers, and that a copy be presented to brother Porter. John Tingley, Secretary.

THE COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIA-Mon, or New York .- In another co'umn will be found the Advegtisement of the Cosmopolitan Art Association, Taking Effect Menday, Nov. 3, 1856. for its third annual distribution of works of Ait. We have seen the beautiful engraving of "Saturday Night," and can cheerfully subscribe to its value as a work of Ait. The "Ar Journal is in itself worth the mones paid for the whole drawing. But, sac edvertisement and judge for you solf, reader.

We learn that Mr. Schuyler M Smith, of East Sparon in this County was instantly killed recently by the falling of the limb of a tree upon his head. Our information is received through a private letter, but the writer failed to give any particulars. We would be pleased at all times to receive items of interest from all sections of the County, and our friends in the Country wil do us a great favor by transmitting the same-giving all the particulars, so that we can condense tien to our own convenience,
