

THE JOURNAL,

COUDERSPORT, DEC. 18, 1856.

MISCELLANY.

A PRETTY WOMAN.—The subjoined wife we have discovered in an exchange:

A pretty woman is one of the "institutions" of the country—an angel in dry goods and glory. She makes sunshine, blue sky, Fourth of July, and happiness wherever she goes. Her path is one of delicious roses, perfumes and beauty. She is a sweet gem, written out in rare curls and chaste foliage, and good principles. Men stand up before her as so many admiration points, to melt into cream and then butter. Her words float round the ear like music, birds of Paradise, or the chiming of Sabbath bells. Without her, society would lose its truest attraction, the church its firmest reliance, and young men the very best of comforts and company. Her influence and generosity restrain the vicious, strengthen the weak, raise the lowly, banish the heathen, and strengthen the faint-hearted. Wherever you find the virtuous woman, you also find pleasant firesides, bouquets, clean clothes, order, good living, gentle hearts, music, light and would "institutions" generally. She is the flower of humanity, a very Venus in dimity, and her inspiration is the breath of Heaven.

Daniel Webster's Courtship.

While on the subject of Mr. Webster's history, I cannot forbear mentioning an incident relating to his courtship, which I do not remember to have seen recorded. He was then a young lawyer in Portsmouth, N. H. At one of his visits to Miss Grace Fletcher, he had, probably with a view of combining utility and enjoyment, been holding skeins of silk thread for her, when suddenly he stopped, saying, "Grace, we have thus been engaged in untying knots; let us see if we can tie a knot, one which will not untie for a lifetime." He then took a piece of tape, and after beginning a knot of a peculiar kind, gave it to her to complete. This was the ceremony and ratification of their engagement. And now, in a little book marked by him with the words "Precious Documents," containing the letters of his early courtship, this unique memorial is to be found. The knot has never been untied.

Mr. BUCHANAN'S CABINET.—We have hitherto refrained taking an inventory of the "cabinet ware" made up for Mr. Buchanan by the press, believing that he was quite capable of managing his own household; but the New York Tribune says, on what it believes to be reliable authority, that the post of Secretary of State has been offered to Gen. Cass, and was accepted by the distinguished Michigan Senator, on Tuesday Dec. 2d.

NEBRASKA.—An election for members of the Territorial legislature has just been held in Nebraska, and we learn from the Wyoming (N. T.) Telescope that the party lines were not drawn; the members chosen, so far as heard from, are nearly all strong free State men. The editor of the Nebraska City News, a pro-slavery paper, was defeated.

"WE HAVEN'T GOT ANY GOD AT MY PAPA'S HOUSE."—A little boy whose other neglected the duty of family prayer, spent some time with pious relations, where morning and evening devotion was carefully observed, and religious instruction imparted—remarked, "We haven't got any God at my Papa's house."

ADVENTURES OF A BOTTLE.—A bottle thrown overboard from the ship Adirondack, on the banks of Newfoundland, in September, 1855, containing a letter from a lady on board to a friend in Ireland, was picked up in the river Shannon, in August, 1856, and the letter forwarded to its address.

RUNNING FOR OFFICE.—A fellow who was seen hurrying along the street in Milton, lately, was asked what office he was running for. "Squire Thorp's, by Jupiter! I'm sued," was the reply.

Returning Home.

The steamer Wm. Campbell, which arrived here from the Missouri river yesterday, brought down a company of one hundred and thirty quasi Kansas emigrants, who were chiefly from the southern states, and, having become sickened with the peace prospects in the territory, are returning to their old homes.—Missouri Democrat.

When you catch a man ridiculing the wrongs of Kansas, or the wrongs of the poor, crushed slave, look at him carefully. You will see a cold, glittering eye, passion-marked features and a self-worshipper. Watch him in every department of active life. "He hath a devil!" He has no heart, or none that will make the world any better though it should beat a thousand years.—Brie True American.

Strong language, but trap to the letter.

THE GLOBE.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS.

INTEND to continue the publication of the Debates of Congress in full, including the laws passed, during the next session, to commence on the first Monday in December.

The coming of a new Administration will cause the debates of the next session to be both interesting and instructive, in its policy will be fore-shadowed by the speeches of its friends. Those, therefore, who desire to know what will be the course of the next President, before he takes the executive chair, so as to shape their business accordingly, should subscribe for the debates of the coming session.

The Daily Globe will contain the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be from time to time suggested by pressing events of interest, and the debates as they come from the hands of the reporters, which will be laid on the desk of every member, to undergo his revision for the Congressional Globe and Appendix. Those who may desire to see the debates immediately should take the Daily Globe, as they are usually published in it two days before they are printed in the CONGRESS-JOURNAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX.

The CONGRESS-JOURNAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX will be printed on a double royal sheet, in royal quarto form, each number containing sixteen pages. All the laws passed during the session will be appended to the debates; and copious indexes to the debates and the laws will be made up, printed, and sent to subscribers soon after the close of the session.

The Weekly Globe will be printed on a double royal sheet, in the usual newspaper form, and will contain a synopsis of the proceedings of Congress and the news of the preceding week; also editorial and selected matter, when there shall be room for such. An extra sheet will be printed whenever a debate on any important subject shall take place, giving it in full.

TERMS. For a copy of the Daily Globe, 1 year $10.00 For a copy during the publication of the proceedings of the session, 3.00 For two copies during the session, when ordered at the same time, 5.00 For a copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix, during the session, 3.00 For two copies, when ordered at the same time, 5.00 For a copy of the Weekly Globe 1 year 2.00 For a copy from the 1st of December to the 1st of May, 1.00 Bank notes, current in the section of country where a subscriber lives, will be received in payment, at par. Small sums may be sent in postage stamps. A paper will not be sent, unless the money accompany the order for it.

JOHN C. RIVES. WASHINGTON, November 25, 1856.

Daily, Weekly and Tri-Weekly MISSOURI DEMOCRAT, PRINTED AND PUBLISHED AT No. 43 and 45 Locust street, St. Louis.

TERMS. Daily, per annum, in advance, $4.00 Tri-Weekly, " " " " 3.00 Weekly, " " " " 2.00 To clubs—10 copies for $15; 20 do. for $22. Address—WM. MCKEE, St. Louis, Mo.

The Missouri Democrat is a Western journal, devoted to the interests of the West, and published at St. Louis, the center of the valley of the Mississippi—the focus of news, politics, literature, commerce and manufactures. Its facilities for giving the latest intelligence in each and all of these respects, are unrivalled, and its patrons may be assured that no expense or labor will be spared to make the Paper of the People Every department is filled with talented and reliable contributors. Its corps of correspondents in Washington, New York, New Orleans, Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico and Utah, number some of the ablest writers of the country. Contributions relating to the antiquities, the soil, the mineral wealth, the agricultural resources, the business and population of surrounding villages and towns, and the local news of the neighboring States, will always be found in its columns. The markets of the chief cities of the West, the statistics of production and shipment, the marine interests of our great rivers, and the trade of our railroads, will each be carefully noted. The latest information by telegraph from every quarter, will be furnished in full; reviews of new publications of interest, will be sedulously supplied; and, in brief, everything that can afford entertainment to the reader, or knowledge to the thinker, will be presented to its subscribers.

LATEST KANSAS NEWS. Kansas has become a point of much importance a attraction to the whole country. In view of this fact we have made arrangements to have the latest and most reliable accounts of all that transpires in that Territory. In the matters touching the slavery question there, this journal will take sides with neither party, deciding it, as we do, the province of the people of Kansas, as influenced by outside pressure, to determine that matter for themselves. All persons will be given, however, a fair and impartial hearing through our columns, and we shall labor to present the facts as they transpire, without regard to whom they may affect. Those who wish to be fully posted in regard to Kansas affairs, the politics, settlements, immigration, and all that concerns the progress of opinions in that quarter, can find no better means of obtaining the same than through the columns of this paper.

POLITICAL POSITION. The Missouri Democrat is, as its name imports, Democratic in principle, conservative in sentiment, opposed to the violence and outrages that have disgraced the Territories, and zealously in favor of the right of the people of each locality to control their domestic affairs without interference from those residing in other States.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Close of the 13th Volume.

SUBSCRIBERS TO HARPER'S MAGAZINE, whose Subscriptions expire with the present Number, are respectfully requested to renew them without delay.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at THREE DOLLARS a year, or TWENTY-FIVE CENTS a number. The Semi-annual Volumes, as completed, neatly bound in Cloth, are sold at Two Dollars each, and Muslin Covers are furnished to those who wish to have their books more uniformly bound at Twenty-five Cents each. Thirteen Volumes are now ready, bound in Cloth, and also in Half-Calf.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply Clubs of two persons at Five Dollars a year, five persons at Ten Dollars, or eleven persons at Twenty Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. Numbers from the commencement can now be supplied. Also the bound Volumes.

The commencement of a volume affords a favorable occasion for the opening of new Subscriptions. These may commence with any number, but when no time is specified, they will be for that New Subscribers wish to begin with the Volume. The Magazine was over seven and not over eight months. The postage upon each Number, which must be paid quarterly in advance at the Office where the Magazine is received, is THREE CENTS.

Each Number of the Magazine will contain 44 or 48 pages, in double columns, each year containing nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every Number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious Chronicle of Events, and impartial Notices of the important Books of the Month. The Volumes commence with the Numbers for JUNE and DECEMBER; but, subscriptions may commence with any Number.

Exchange Newspapers and Periodicals are requested to direct to "Harper's Magazine, New York."

The Publishers would give Notice that they have no Agents for whose contracts they are responsible. Those ordering the Magazine from Agents or Dealers must look to them for the supply of the work.

HARPER & BROS., Publishers. FRANKLIN SQUARE, N. Y., Nov. 1, 1856. MRS. STEPHENS' Illustrated New Monthly. Conducted by MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, FOR 1857.

WITH the January number will commence the Second Volume of Mrs. STEPHENS' NEW MONTHLY. The Proprietors are gratified in being able to give the public the most positive assurance of the entire and satisfactory success of the Magazine. It is now established upon the firmest basis, and its circulation already is more than a paying one. It was recognized at the start with really extraordinary favor, and leaped at one bound, to a fixed and honorable place in periodical literature.

With the new year it will open with new features, increased attractiveness and interest in its articles and literary departments, and greater efforts to make it acceptable to the public. In the January number a new novel will be commenced, entitled:

"WEST POINT,"

By an officer of the United States Army, with graphic illustrations by Dallas. This work is in a field hitherto unoccupied by the novelist, while it is eminently an American one. It is a remarkable work, graphic, dramatic, full of character and will make a sensation. The hero is a true "Patriot of the Republic," and at that institution, and undergoes a series of adventures, in an upward struggle from poverty to eminence.

"THE PRESIDENT OF THE REVOLUTION," by Mrs. E. F. Ellis, will be continued. The matter contained in this series is all new, never having been published before, and is collected from Ellis, from private sources.

A new feature—LITERARY EXAMINERS, in response to numerous requests from our subscribers, will appear hereafter in every number.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS will exceed, in the future numbers, anything we have hitherto done. The exquisite pencil of Mr. Dallas, who has given us already so many beautiful compositions, and whose "Patriot of the Republic" has been admired everywhere, and received the most flattering encomiums, will largely contribute to our future issues.

LOST JEWELS,

BY MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, will still continue, illustrated as heretofore; while to the various literary branches—Drama, Criticism, Papers on Art, Editorial Gossip, Tales, Sketches, Humorous Papers, &c., will be added authors will contribute, and render this Magazine, in its general literature, unequalled by any other in the country.

The price will remain unaltered; and the above additional attractions, as a guarantee that it already has been pronounced "The most beautiful in the world," and "The cheapest in the world," will certainly secure for it a support commensurate with its claims.

Published at 12 1/2 Cts. per Monthly Number. $1.50 PER ANNUM.

CLUB TERMS.

Three copies for one year, $4.00 Four " " " " 5.00 Ten " " " " 12.00

And One to get up of club of ten. The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or the Publisher. The volumes commence January and July, but subscriptions can begin with any number Postmasters constituted agents. Numbers can be supplied from the beginning (July last). Specimen copies supplied gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters.

For THREE DOLLARS AND A HALF we will send this Magazine for one year, and any Three Dollars Magazine for the year the subscriber may select (Harper's, Godley's, Graham's, Putnam's, Knickerbocker, Blackwood, &c.)

THE POSTAGE on this Magazine is sent in quarterly to subscribers, payable quarterly in advance at the office of delivery. Address all Communications to "Mrs. STEPHENS' NEW MONTHLY," 126 Nassau Street, N. Y.
