Toradvertisement of Putnam & Co.'s Illustrated edition of Irving's Life of Washington, has a poculiar interest for those of our readers who wish to possess so valuable a work in a form which will make it cheap to them, because it comes gradually from their purses, in light installments.

San the Prospectus of the Plough, Loom and Anvil, in another column. It is a first class Agricultural periodical, while at the same time many of its lages are devoted to interesting and useful mechanical and scientific information. We are glad to see such influential journals speaking out so em-Untitically for the ready-pay system as regards the publishing business. It is the only system by which newspapers can become profitable, and at the same time worthy of patronage.

PRENSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature of our State met on Tuesday, Jan. 6, and the Senate was organized permanently by the election of Hon. David Taggart, of Dauphin. as Speaker; Gen. W. Hamersly, Clerk; COUD ERSPORT MARKET. Judson Holcomb, Assistant Clerk : L. Rogers, (of Warren;) D. W. Leeds. and J. H. Wells, Transcribing Clerks; Joseph R. Smith, Sergeant at Arms; Wm. P. Braly, (by a unanimous vote.) Assistant Sergeant at Arms; James Freebern, Door Keeper; E. B. Lytle and Daniel Neyhard, Assistant Door Keepers; S. B. Hamilton and John C. Blaige, Mussengers; all Rapublicans. In the Assembly, J. L. Gatz. of Berks, was elected Speaker; Jacob Zeigler, Clerk, who appointed Wm: S. Picking Assistant Clerk, George Shada, James M'Kenna, John A. Magee, and C. R. Brady. Transcribing Clerks for the Session; Jacob Glassmyer, Sergeant at Arms; Jacob Coleman, Door Keeper; John Leisenring Messenger-all Democrats. We regret to announce that neighbor JAMES, of the Patriot, was "cut to the quick" by his good old friend, Jake Zeigler-This he should not have done; for the experiment of publishing a Border Ruffian paper in Potter county, is proving a complete failure, and we are of the opinion that Mr. James should have received a better reward for doing the dirty work of the "Buchanan and Free Kansas" leaders in this section. Join with us in the cause of justice and right, neighbor, and we will use you better. They "cut" you at Lock Haven in the summer, and now, when the pinching frosts of winter are upon you, they have again "daggered" you. "Republice is ungrateful," aint they Mr. Patriot ? But if you are still determined to stick to them, we say try it again the 4th of March next. You may possibly yet succeed in raising the wind sufficient

But we commenced writing about the deings of the Legislature. Our readers will pardon the digression, we are sure, considering the magnitude of the temptation. After the officers were all duly elected and installed, A Secret Worth Knowing the Governor's Message was read in both Houses. We publish it entire this week, and recommend our readers to give it a careful perusal. It speaks for itself, and every word of it is full of meaning, and to the point. Three thousand copies of the Message were fairly commenced business, and last Tuesday prebably either Simon Cameron or John W. Forney was elected to the United States Senate. friends of Mr. Cameron are sanguine of his election-more so than, if any ther man than Forney had been his oppenent.

The Republican State Committee are. we learn, taking measures to ascertain the real condition of parties in the State—their real condition of parties in the State—their real strength, etc.,—with a view, we suppose, to future action. A very good movement. Our only request is, that they will never again attempt to fuse with an inherently hostile element. We have no objection to a fusion with friends—but we regard temporary defeat preferable to fusion with samples—File Gazette. ferable to fusion with enemies .- Erie Gazette.

Those are our sentiments.

TENDER CONSCIENCE - A subscriber in Wellsboro Tioga Co., this State, em; loyed the Postmasier to write to the publisher of the Christian Chronicle, and to state that he wished the paper discontinued because it contained too much politics, and that he should no longer take it from the office. He owes four years for the paper and stops without paying a farthing. What a tender conscience!! If the church at Wellsboro wants his name as a case of discipline, by dropping us a line they can have it.—Christian Chronicle. hronicle. We take that man to be a fair specimen of

From its commencement, eight years since this journal has been conservative in principle, seliable in statements, national in ch racter, nd single in its great object of advancing the useful arts, placing Agr culture first, and striving to develop its science and to shed light on all its practical details, but deeming that Agri-culture can flourish only in conjunction with the Mech nic Arts, and that these, hand in hand with Agriculture, form the only permament basis of a cation's material pros crity.
With these p-inciples always prominent, it has maintained a high moral position, making it a fit visitant of the family c rest, and has obt ined a more se ect and a wider patronage than often happens to journals of the kind.

By taking in an additional editor, to be entirely devoted to the Agricultural Department, we have "doubled our team" and are "going ahead" omitting no efforts whatever to make this journal spectally acceptable and val-nable to the Agricul urist, a help to the practie I farmer in his daily busi ess, and an assis tant in the training his sons o higher degrees of excellence in the profession. Moved by at excellence in the profession. Moved by the progressive spirit of the ge, and distrous of disseminating the foregoing principles still more widely, most errnestly believing that their adoption will be promotive of good, and of good only, to the whole country, we have introduced the club system, by which those who desire can obtain the work for actually less than the paper, printing, and binding would cost, were it not that we publish a very arge edition.
