COUDERSPORT, JANUARY. 29, 1857.

HOME MATTERS.

WELL: the publishers of "Harper's Weekly" comply with their self-inposed engagement with us ! We do not like to be "cut" in the way they have done it, so send along the paper from the beginning.

Monday morning last was the coldest of the season thus far. The mercury fell to 20 deg. below zero. At one o'clock P. M. it had risen to 17 deg. above; and on Tuesday morning it was at 31 deg. shove, and rising.

Dr. O. T. Ellison, of our place who attended Mr. Benson throughout his recent illness, and accompanied him to Harrisburg, neturned on Monday evening last, and reports that he left that gentleman in fine condition, and rapidly regaining his former strength.

Pierre A. Stebbins, late Sheriff of this county, has been appointed an aid to his Excellency the Governor, with the rank of Colonel. We have no doubt Colonel Stebbins will discharge all the duties of his position with credit to himself, and honor to the Gov-

On our fourth page will be found a table showing the popular 'vite of the nation in the recent Presidentian Election, and from which our readers will learn the true political position of the northern and southern Sates as regards elective franchise. Our readers will be able to "figure" for themselves better than we can; at least we will allow them to figure out m equality of frauchise for the beneat of the corth-if they can.

A person calling himself Potter, and claiming to reside in Tioga County, stopped at Glassmire's Hotel in this place, on Saturday, Dec. 29 h and left a horse to board a wark or so-He has not yet reclaimed him, and Mr. Glassmire advert ses the horse is our columns. He was probably sto len, and as he was not a very saleable horse, Mr. Scapegrace concludes to go on without him.

Suppen Death .- A manuamed Tax lor, formerly of Woodhull, Steuben Co. N. Y., in the employ of Messrs, Barclay & Brainard, in Wharton Tow ,ship, died under the following ci cumstances on Saturday evening last: He had been chopping wood, a little after dark, and having taken an armfull into the bonse, was returning for more when just as he stepped out of the dirir his wife heard him fall, and attempting to raise him up found herself unable to di so. She ran to Mr. Barclay's, a few rods distant, and that gencarried Mr. Taylor into the house, where he gasped a few times, and disd. He fell with his neck across a small Pile lying in front of the door, to waich some attribute the cause of his death, while others seem to think that he died He was buried on M inday last.

Teachers Institutes.

The great want of our educational system is, the right kind of Teachers rightly qualified. Teachers of this description cannot be had, unless there is some place where they can be edupresent circumstances the Teachers lustitute, seems to be the best method for preparing the guardians of our schools; and as these cannot be supwe urge all friends of Education in this make an appropriation for their sup- cus oners be, er barg and their can

The following form, adopted by the Teachers' Association of Washington Co., will answer as well as any forthis county:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Pennsylvania: -We, the undersigned, teachers and filends of education, represent that it is necessary, in our opinion, to the furtherance of the common school system, that the State assist the teachers in securing a better knowledge of their duties and responsibilities, by encouraging a system of Teachers' Institues; and we therefore pray that a law be passed which will secure one Teachers' Institute, under State patronage, for every county in the State, to meet a) least once a year.

THEL Receipts and Expenditures ed Audit as Report of this county will be published in the next number of the Journal.

THE BOSTON TELEGRAPH FOR 1857.

WE take great pleasure in announc-ing to our friends, that we have ow completed such arrangements as will greatly add to the interest of our daily and weekly paper, and make our journal not only the ore-most, but also the most wide y circuited Re-rubican journal in New Eng and

The Telegrath News of er Com any have purchased the Boston Duly and Weekly
Chanicle. The two weeklies have a ready been united; and the two dails will be unted and published as one paper after this date -(January 1, 1851) - every morning is the Daily Chronicle, and twice every evening as the Eveni g le egraph. C. C. in zewell, Esq., who has been the principal write. for the Chroicie, will be connected with the united pape s, and others who have been emhere ofore employed of the Telegra, h, will give the paper an editorial force and ether superior to that of any other journal in New England, and equation only by two or three i New York.

The pa er will continue to be what it his been, he unswerving advocate of Republic in principles, the consum opponent of every scheme to extend or major arize the institution of Shaver and the of Slavery, and the e ruse supporter of every nessure or influence calculated to probable causes by which me and in more are demor-alized. What the paper his been in these re-spects it will continue to be.

At the same time we shill give less importance to per les and cliques, then to principles, and be much less careful to serve ponticans, then to sup ore those ideas and influences, which, in our judgement the times demand, and withnin which, neither part is nor politi-cials deserve support. We in end to pre-serve our independence and be entirely free our work, doing what seems to us and sup, orting such men and me sures as are best c demated to c rry out our princip es. It is unnecessary for our readers, to add that we now belong to the Republican party, and that we shall authere to it while it adheres to the principles which it proclaimed when it was organized at Philadel, his.
