HE JURNAL.

COUDERSPORT, PEBUARY, 19, 1857. SEWATOR WILSON AND THE DISUNIONISTS.

RENATE CHAMBER, Jan. 10 1857 P .. P. W. Higginson-Dear Sir : have received your note, enclosing the call of several citizens of Worces-. . At who believe " the existing Union and inviting me in behalf of the Coment, or to communicate my sentiments tally lost. up the subject in question." Your Committee of Aarrangements could I will frankly do so.

> I have read, with sincere and pro-From bler the practicability, proba- a ight. It may ! e seized spon by adroit political leaders to allerm the timid; to deceive and mislead those who have already been debuden and misled by artful men into ence, combines all the essential elements of Gesupport of the interests of slavery. lapsudent words or rash deeds, on the part of the opponents of slavery, nely add to the power of those in the Is the Uncom, romising Advocate of Notice and in the South, who have used the people to secure the ascendancy n' the slave propagandists.

The American people are a patriot le people. They love their countrytheir whole country. The preservation of that Union which makes us one people, is with them a duty imposed alike by interest and patriotism. If the movement at Worcester shall have any effect at all, it will only serve to array against those who are battling to arrest the further extension of slavery, a if the longer domination of the slave and vehement spirit of nationality which glows in the bosoms of the American people.

I avail myself, therefore, of your invitation to "communicate my sentiments to the convention, to frankly announce to you and the signers of the call, that I have no sympathy for, nor person sending us twenty or more subcan I have any connection with, any so ibers will be entitled to an extramovement which contemplates the dis- copy for his services. colution of the Union. The logic of the head and the logic of the heart teach me to regard all such moven ents, either in the North or the South, as crimes against liberty. I denounced, during the late canvass, the unpatriotic &c., & WILLIAM C. BRYANT & CO., and treasonable language of Southern p diticians and presses. I have denounced them here on the floor of the Senate. I shall hold the incoming administration responsible before the sountry, if it bestows its patronage upon the Richmond Enquirers, Charles- desirable stock of fon Mercurus, and New Orleans Deltes, and I shall resist the confirmation of the Wises, the Floyds and the Rhetts of the South, if they shall be placed of the country. Our stock of Dry Goodsconbefore us for political positions.

I cannot but indulge in the hope that when the signers of this call asremble in the heart of our good old commonwealth, they will conclude to leave all the impotent and p-urile | ment of th. eats against the Union to the Southth eats against the Union to the South-era slave propagandists, and proclaim all of which will be sold uncommonly cheap their readiness to follow, in the conflicts of the future, the banner of "Liberty and Union," around which rallied, in the late canvass, nearly fourteen nundred thousand intelligent and patriotic American freemen. A firm and inflexible adherence to this constitutional and patriotic position will, I am confident, secure the prohibition of 1 (Wellsville) at the following hours: slavery in all places under the exclusievery in all places under the exclusive authority of Congress, overthrow the place power in the national power life type of the place power in the national power life type of the place power in the national power life type of the place power in the national power life type of the place power in the national power life type of the place in the national power life type of the place in the pla the slave power in the national government, and prepare the way for the penceful omancipation of the bondman by the consent of the people of the staveholding states.

· Yours Truly. HENRY WILSON.
