An adjourned Court is called for Thursday March 12th, to qualify the various officers elected at the town meetings.

See the advertisement headed "Whiskerando" in another column. It has a peculiar interest for those who, unlike ourselves, are not provided with a profusion of beard.

The Charter Election came off on Friday last; and, on local issues, was very warmly contested. Politics seemed to be entirely abandoned.

Mud! Mud!! seems to be the prevailing cry of distress, and the only epidemic which now disturbs the equanimity of our citizens. Well, mud in February, among weather-seers, augurs much winter in March and April.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE FOR 1857.

The Election issue, and the result, prove that the work done by the Republican party in 1856, in the Eastern and Northern portions of the country, was not without success.

These facts indicate the path of present duty. With no unimpaired vigor, and with no irreparable loss of honor, we have the triumph of Liberty in our new, and not in our old, Union.

THE TRIBUNE is not a party paper, but a paper of the people, and its policy is to be guided by the interests of the people.
