WHITE TEETH, PERFUMED BREATH AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION—can be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." What lady or gentleman would rem in under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by using the "BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS" as a dentifrice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as at first? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is one delicate their friends will never mention it. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure each bottle is signed

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an experient, they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the functions of digestion, and enemies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even when no serious derangement exists; but an unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, &c., and for CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by

A New Edition Just Issued!

The Most Wonderful Work of the Age!

ESOTERIC ANTHROPOLOGY:

OR Interior Secrets of Man; a Confidential but Comprehensive Treatise on the Structure, Functions, and the mysterious Relations of Men and Women. By R. L. NICHOLS, M. D.

The book is all that its title indicates. It treats of the generation, formation, birth, infancy, youth, manhood, old age, and death of man; of health and disease, marriage and celibacy, virtue and vice, happiness and misery; of development and the laws of life. It is intended to answer all questions, and give the fullest information on every subject of a private, physiological and medical nature—to be a faithful friend in health and disease, especially to the young of both sexes, and those who are about to enter upon the sacred Marriage Relation.

The portion of the work on the generative system is written with entire frankness and fully illustrated. The whole subject of the relation of the sexes, or Marriage,

LOVE AND PATERNITY

Is laid open, as it never has been by any other author. A miscellaneous chapter, forming an appendix to the work, is of a very remarkable character. It has been truly said—"There can scarcely be any important question, which any man or woman can ever need to ask a physician, to which this book does not contain an answer." The diseases of the generative system are treated of with great fullness. Hundreds of thousands of women now in the depths of wretchedness, need but this book to guide them safely and surely to health and happiness.

Hundreds of voluntary testimonials to the extraordinary character and merits of this book have already been received from persons eminently qualified to judge, among whom are clergymen, lawyers, college professors, &c., even physicians, although it is declared that the knowledge imparted comes in direct conflict with their pecuniary interests.

"I look upon it," says Dr. Stephens of N. Y., "as the most wonderful book ever written." "This book," says Dr. Dodge of Owego, N. Y., "contains more health, strength and sound, more thrilling useful and effective, more hot as practical and evasive truth, than any one work that has ever graced the shelves of Libraries of civilization." "It contains," says Dr. Baker, of Racine, Wisconsin, "just such knowledge as a suffering world needs." "I do not hesitate," says Professor Allen of Antioch College, (Horace Mann's) "to pronounce it a noble work. It will be a great blessing to humanity." "I have carefully read Esoteric Anthropology," says Miss Coggswell, whose testimony will be received with much confidence by women, "and I deem it to be a most beautiful and complete synopsis of all the physical interests of man. Its chapters on impotency and obstetrics are truly wonderful. But its great excellence is its perfect adaptation to the wants of poor, suffering, diseased woman. I would that every woman in the land could and would read the work."

Mark this—Nearly every other work on this subject directs the reader to apply to its author for a prescription in case of sickness, accompanied by a fee; while this, although its author is a practicing physician, contains not a line of the kind.

The book is bound neatly in muslin, and contains 432 pages and 61 engravings. Some objection has been made to the engravings, but we consider them of value to the work. Prudishness must go out of fashion.

Price only ONE DOLLAR, on receipt of which it will be sent, carefully enveloped, by return mail, postage paid. Write your Name, P. O., County and State distinctly. Address

H. N. F. LEWIS, Pub. Agent,

Waterford, Erie Co., Pa.

 Newspapers giving the foregoing, with this notice one insertion, displayed as above, and sending marked copy, will receive the work.

Now we have come to the conclusion that there is only one way to sell goods, and that is to let the people know we have them, and sell them at prices which will be an inducement to those in want to buy of us; and for that purpose we have chartered a conveyance called the Journal where we intend to keep the people posted as to what may be found at our establishment. Every body knows, (or ought to know) where the old Regulator is, and for the benefit of those who don't know, and who want to know, we give this information, that it has located right on the only a few rods from the Depot, and is always open for customers and all who wish to save 25 per cent. in purchasing the necessaries of life; for it is the only place in town where you can expect to have a little change left after purchasing your necessary supplies, no withstanding the common assertion of every one that they sell cheaper than their neighbors. We don't boast of selling goods at or below cost, but we have adopted as our standard to "Live and Let Live," and to sell as cheap as the cheapest; for when people advertise to sell below cost, you may easily conclude that they are only "throwing out bait." In order that the people may know what we keep to sell, we will enumerate a few of the most important articles.

GROCERIES.

Any one examining our stock of Groceries, we are confident will at once come to the conclusion that a better and more complete assortment cannot be found in this section, consisting of

PROVISIONS.

Just take a look at our large stock of Provisions, and see if we have not got the wherewith to relieve the numerous wants of the needy, and enough to keep you and from starving through the long and dreary winter. ## THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE FOR 1857.

The Election is past, and its result proves that the work devoted on the Republican party is not yet complete. In all the Eastern and Northern portions of the country—in New England, New York, Ohio and the North-West—the Republican banner floats in triumph; while in Southern Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois—in short, wherever few newspapers are taken and where common schools are too new and too feeble to have educated the present generation of voters—the black flag of Slavery obstructs the sunshine. A stranger to America might distinguish those portions of our country most blessed with education, intelligence, Thrift and Virtue, by scanning the returns of the Presidential contest of 1856. We have failed of present success, not because the People are against us, but because that large portion who did not hear or read the arguments, and do not know what were the real questions at issue, remain sodly against us, reversing the verdict which the great majority of the educated and intelligent endeavored to pronounce.

These facts indicate the path of pressing duty. Without any repinings over what is irrevocable—with no abatement of hearty hope because the triumph of Liberty in her new order is not won—the Long Island and White Plains of her struggle—with no shadow of regret—has the responsibility of governing is not confided to her champions before the people were fully ready to sustain them—we begin afresh the work of diffusing that vital truth which, in regard to the concerns of this world, is well as the next, makes Free indeed. Now, in the Slave Power's heyday of victory, when its minions and servitors are gathering and pressing on to the most of their triumph and "crush out" the spirit which they vainly believe to be crucified and entombed—now, when the faint-hearted or cold-hearted, who lately basked in the sunshine of our premature hopes, are hanging off to repair damages and talking of abandoning the rugged arena of Politics for more quiet and flowery fields—now, in this hour of weariness and shadow, THE TRIBUNE renews its vow of eternal hostility to every form of tyranny over the bodies or souls of men—to the shameful assumption that the benighted and feeble, whether in soul or body, are to be regarded and treated as the convenience or the prey of their wiser or stronger brethren—to the domination of despots or oligarchs, whether embrazed or plantationed—to the exclusive softeries and kingdom-making genius, or the breeders of children for the auction-block and the cotton-fields in Virginia or Alabama.

The doctrine that no human being was ever created for the benefit or advantage of another—that all service between man and man should be free and reciprocal—that the laborer should not toil and sweat to pamper others' pride or minister to others' luxury, but for his sustenance and comfort—is destined to certain triumph. It must prevail, for God reigns, and earth was not created to be a shambles of injustice, oppression and misery forever. It must triumph; for all true prophecy affirms and the vindication of the Divine being truly imperatively requires it. It must triumph; for Democratic America cannot always remain the scoff of aristocracies and the shame of reformers and liberals throughout the Old World. It must triumph; for Man's history is not a chaos of a riddle, but everywhere instinct with meaning; and no heroic effort ever failed of its effect—no drop of martyr-blood was ever shed in vain.

But, even as we Republicans were disposed to fold our arms in slumber, our adversaries would not permit it. They are busy to-day in lengthening their cords and strengthening their stakes with a vigilance and activity which reveals a consciousness on their part that their dominion must be made sure forthwith, or their scepter will have forever departed. To-day, myrmidons of the Slave Power threaten and harass northern Mexico, are encamped in the heart of Central America, and waging a war of extermination on the disarmed inhabitants of its petty Republics, while its filibusters and scowls at Cuba, while its mosquitoless bands are precipitated on devoted Kansas, under the protection and smiles of the Federal Administration. Even as we write, the telegraph informs us that twenty Free-State men, guilty of assembling to defend their homes against the rapine and violence of Buford's and Titus's blood-thirsty bandits, have been convicted by Lecompte's Court of manslaughter! and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at hard labor as felons. This is but a fair specimen of what has long passed for "justice" in Kansas—a justice which takes the criminals into pay and aids them in burning down, plundering and driving out the innocent, whom it consigns to the State Prison if they are ever goaded into the madness of resisting their oppressors. Such crimes and wrongs as unhappy Kansas has for twelve months endured, even Hungary or Poland has never known; and the power at whose instigation these villainies were and are perpetrated sits enthroned at the White House, and has just achieved another four years' ascendency in the Federal Government. Who, in view of those facts, can say that Republicans may now pile their arms, even for an hour!

THE TRIBUNE will be, as it has been, a political journal—avowedly, though not exclusively so. It recognizes the truth that Freedom and Slavery are here grappled in deadly conflict, and that in the result one of them must lose all control over the Federal Government. But, while it gives prominence and emphasis to the discussions and elucidation of the great issues of the day, it omits none of the current events of a Business and Family Newspaper. The proceedings of Congress, like those in Kansas, will be watched and reported by an able and fearless corps of Correspondents, while from London, Paris, Constantinople, Havana, San Francisco, Albany, and other centers of interest, our special advices will be, as they have been, fresh and reliable. A member of our editorial corps—Bayard Taylor—is now in northern Europe and will spend the winter in Sweden, Lapland, Russia, thence making his way next season across Siberia and Tartary to the mouth of the Amour, and thence homeward by the Pacific and California, unless some change of route shall promise greater interest and profit to our readers, for whom alone he will write regularly throughout his adventurous journey, which is likely to require two years for its completion. Our reports of the most interesting Lectures, Public Meetings &c., will be full and reliable, and our Foreign and Domestic News made up with a careful regard to the condensation in our ample columns of the greatest amount of intelligence that is consistent with the use of type of generous size. In short, if we fail to make THE TRIBUNE, as it has ever been, the best newspaper in the world, it shall not be for want of effort or cost.

It is deemed desirable by Republicans that THE TRIBUNE should be circulated in their several localities, we urge them to see that Clubs be made up and forwarded in due season. The Postmasters are semi-officially admonished not to aid our circulation, but to urge instead that of journals deemed "sound" and "National" by the compatriots of Atchison and Stringfellow. We ask five Republicans everywhere to quench the light of Freedom in the murky mass of Slavery.

WHISKERANDO!

LA SALLE'S ORIGINAL

ONE DOLLAR A BOX.

TRY IT! TRY IT!

PROF. GEO. H. DE BAR has recently returned from Europe, and while there, obtained from the celebrated chemist, La Salle, at an enormous outlay, the receipt and exclusive right of the United States and Canadas, to manufacture and sell this celebrated preparation called "whiskerando," which has never been known to fail to cause Whiskers and Moustaches to grow luxuriantly and heavy, even on beardless faces, in two months after first application. To those persons whose beards are light and wiry it recommends itself. A few applications will render it soft thick and pliable. Frenchmen are noted for their beautiful Whiskers and Moustaches, which many of them attribute to the excellence of La Salle's Whiskerando. Price $1 per box; sent to any part of the United States or Canadas per mail, upon the receipt of $1. Address,
