HORRIBLE DEATH .- We learn, that on Wednesday of last week, the charin Allegany township. in this county, were found by his friends in a large cauldron, in which he had been boiling sap for maple sugar. The sugarramp was some distance from the house, and having been absent longer than usual, his friends proceeded to took for him and found his remains, partially in the kettle and the remainder hapging outisde in the fire, so nearly consumed that they could hardhe recognized. The accident is attributed to a fit.

F We call the attention of our citigans and dealers to the advertisement of Christianson & Co., of New York. We are assured by letters from responsible persons, accompanying the advertisement, that their establishment is all that the advietisement claims of for it, and that persons dealing with the house will find the orogrietors. honorable, accommodating, pleasa a and agreeable business men. We would also ask the attention of
