SEC. GREAT EXCITEMENT!!

TREMENDOUS PUSH!!

Another Cargo of Goods at

The Old Regulator!

YOU might as well undertake to dam up the waters of the Niagara with bulrushes, as to try to convince the multitude that there is any other place in town where they can get such great bargains in the line of

GROCERIES & PROVISIONS,

as at the Old Regulator which has so long been the Great Temple of Trade in this flourishing Metropolis. Now we have come to the conclusion that there is only one way to sell Goods, and that is as the people know we have been doing, and sell them at prices which, we deem inducement enough for those in want to buy of us; and for this purpose we have changed our column in the Journal where we intend to keep the people posted as to what may be found at our establishment. Every body knows, (or at least ought to know) where the Old Regulator stand for the benefit of those who don't know, and who wish to know, we will just inform them that it is located right on the only a few rods from the Depot, and is always open for customers and all who wish to save 25 per cent. in purchasing the necessaries of life; for it is the only place in town where you can get to have little change left after purchasing your necessary supplies, notwithstanding the common assertion of every one that they sell cheaper than their neighbors. We don't brag of selling goods at or below cost, but we have adopted as our standard to "Live and Let Live," and to sell as cheap as the cheapest; for when people advertise to sell below cost, you may easily conclude that they are only "throwing out bait." In order that the people may know what we keep to sell, we will enumerate a few of the most important articles.

RAILROAD,

GROCERIES.

Any one examining our stock of Groceries, we are confident will announce come to the conclusion that a better and more complete assortment cannot be found in this section, consisting of

SUGAR,
TEA,
COFFEE,
MOLASSES,
SYRUPS,
PEPPER,
SPICE, GINGER, CLOVES,

Mustard, Saleratus, Cinnamon, Pepper Sauce, Cassup, Yeast and Soap Powders, Vinegar, Oil, Camphene, Fluid, Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, Snuff, Segars, Candy, Nuts, Raisins, Crackers, Herring, Soap, Candles, and a endless Variety of other articles which it is unnecessary to mention, may be found in this department, and which will be sold at a trifling advance from cost to ready pay.

PROVISIONS.

Just take a look at our large stock of Provisions, and see if we have not got the wherewith to relieve the numerous wants of the needy, and enough to keep you all from starving through the long and dreary winter. It is impossible for us to enumerate one half the articles we keep, in a single advertisement, but we will mention a few of the most important, which may be found in abundance and in great variety, consisting of

PORK, HAMS,
FISH,
BUTTER,
CHEESE,
LARD,
SALT,
CORNED BEEF,
DRIED BEEF, SHOULDERS,
FLOUR,
CORN MEAL,
BUCKWHEAT FLOUR,
DRIED APPLES,
DRIED PLUMS,
POTATOES,
OATS,
BEANS,
SALT,

and almost of other articles in the line of Provisions. Also, we constantly on hand a good assortment of such as Brooms, Washtubs and Boards, Mops, Dusters, Brushes, &c., together with a general assortment of Stone Ware, which we will sell very cheap for cash. A general invitation is extended to all, and to the people of Potter County in particular, to call at the Old Regulator before purchasing elsewhere.

WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE,

WHISKERANDO!

LA SALLE'S ORIGINAL

ONE DOLLAR A BOX.

TRY IT! TRY IT!

PROF. GEO. H. DE BAR has recently returned from Europe, and while there, obtained from the celebrated chemist, La Salle, at an enormous outlay, the receipt and exclusive right of the United States and Canadas, to manufacture and sell this celebrated preparation called "whiskerando," which has never been known to fail to cause Whiskers and Moustaches to grow luxuriantly and heavy, even on beardless faces, in two months after first application. To those persons whose beards are light and wiry it recommends itself. A few applications will render it soft, thick and pliable. Frenchmen are noted for their beautiful Whiskers and Moustaches, which many of them attribute to the excellence of La Salle's Whiskerando. Price $1 per box; sent to any part of the United States or Canadas per mail, upon the receipt of $1. Address,

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE FOR 1857.

The Election is past, and its result proves that the work devolved on the Republican party is not yet complete. In all the Eastern and Northern portions of the country—in New England, New York, Ohio and the North-West—the Republican banner floats in triumph; while in Southern Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois—in short, wherever few newspapers are taken, and where common schools are too new and too feeble to have educated the present generation of voters—the black flag of Slavery obstructs the sunshine. A stranger to America might distinguish those portions of our country most blessed with Education, Intelligence, Thrift and Virtue, by scanning the returns of the Presidential contest of 1856. We have failed of present success, not because the People are against us; but because a large portion, who did not hear or read the arguments, and do not know what were the real questions at issue, went almost solid against us, reversing the verdict which the great majority of the educated and intelligent endeavored to pronounce.

These facts indicate the path of pressing duty. While we mourn in sympathy over what is irrevocable—with no abatement of heart or hope because the triumph of Liberty in her new ordeal is not won at the Long Island and White Plains of her struggle—with no shadow of regret that the responsibility of governing is not confided to her champions before the people were fully ready to sustain them—we begin afresh the work of diffusing that vital truth which, in regard to the concerns of this world, as well as the next, makes Free indeed. Now, in the Slave Power's heyday of victory, when its ministers and servitors are gathering and plotting to make the most of their triumph and "crush out" the spirit which they vainly believe to be crucified and entombed—now, when the faint-hearted or cold-hearted, who lately basked in the sunshine of our premature hopes, are hauling off to repair damages and talking of abandoning the rugged arena of Politics for more quiet and flowery fields—now, in this hour of weariness and shadow, THE TRIBUNE renews its vows of eternal hostility to every form of tyranny over the bodies or souls of men—to the shameful assumption that the benighted and feeble, whether in soul or body, are to be regarded and treated as the convenience or the prey of their wiser or stronger brethren—to the domination of despots or oligarchs, whether empires or plantations—to the enslavement of cities and kingdoms in Europe, or the breeders of children for the auction-block and the cotton-fields in Virginia or Alabama.

The doctrine that no human being was ever created for the benefit or advantage of another—that all service between man and man should be free and reciprocal—that the laborer should not toil and sweat to pamper others' pride or minister to others' luxury, but for the sustenance and comfort of those near and dear to him—is dear and to certain triumph. It must prevail, for God reigns, and Earth was not created to be a theater of injustice, oppression and misery forever. It must triumph; for all true prophecy affirms and the vindication of the Divine benignity imperatively requires it. It must triumph; for Democratic America cannot always remain the scoff of aristocrats and the shame of reformers and liberals throughout the Old World. It must triumph; for man's history is not a chaos or a riddle, but everywhere instinct with meaning; and no heroic endeavor ever failed of its effect,—no drop of martyr-blood was ever shed in vain.

But, even now, Republicans were disposed to fold our arms in slumber, our adversaries would not permit it. As they are busy to-day in lengthening their cords and strengthening their stakes with a vigilance and activity which reveals a consciousness on their part that their dominion must be made sure forthwith, or their scepter will have forever departed. To-day, myrmidons of the Slave Power threaten and harass Northern Mexico, are encamped in the heart of Central America, and waging a war of extermination on the disarmed inhabitants of the Cuban Republics, while in Kansas, freebooters and scouts at Cuba, while its most ruthless bands are precipitated on devoted Kansas, under the protection and smiles of the Federal Administration. Even as we write, the telegraph informs us that seventy Free-State men, guilty of attempting to defend their homes against the rapine and violence of Buford's and Titus's blood-thirsty bandits, have been convicted by Lecompton's Court of Misnoughter, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at hard labor as felons. This is but a fair specimen of what has long passed for "justice" in Kansas—a justice which leaves the criminals into pay and aids them in hunting down, plundering and murdering out the innocent, whom it consigns to the State prison if they are ever goaded into the madness of resisting their oppressors. Such crimes and wrongs as unhappy Kansas has for two years endured, even Hungary or Poland has never known; and the power at whose instigation these villainies were and are perpetrated sits enthroned at the White House, and has just achieved another four years' ascendency in the Federal Government. Who, in view of those facts, can say that Republicans may now pile their arms, even for an hour?

THE TRIBUNE will be, as it has been, a political journal—avowedly, though not exclusively so. It recognizes the truth that Freedom and Slavery are here grappled in deadly conflict, and that in the result one of them must lose all control over the Federal Government. But, while it gives prominence and emphasis to the discussions and elucidation of the great issues of the day, it omits none of the characteristics of a Business and Family Newspaper. The proceedings of Congress, like those in Kansas, will be watched and reported by an able and fearless corps of Correspondents, while from London, Paris, Constantinople, Havana, San Francisco, Albany, and other centers of interest, our special advices will be, as they have been, fresh and reliable. A member of our editorial corps—Bayard Taylor—is now in Northern Europe, and will spend the Winter in Sweden, Lapland, Russia, thence making his way next season across Siberia and Tartary to the mouth of the Amour, and thence homeward by the Pacific and California, unless some change of route shall promise greater interest and profit to our readers, for whom alone he will write regularly throughout his adventurous journey, which is likely to require two years for its completion. Our reports of the most interesting Lectures, Public Meetings &c., will be full and reliable, and our Foreign and Domestic News made up with a careful regard to the condensation into our smallest columns of the greatest amount of intelligence that is consistent with the use of type of generous size. In short, if we fail to make THE TRIBUNE worth its cost, it shall not be for want of expenditure or effort.

If it be deemed desirable by Republicans that THE TRIBUNE should be circulated in their several localities, we urge them to see that Clubs be made up and forwarded in due season. The Postmasters are semi-officially admonished not to aid our circulation, but to urge instead that of journals deemed "safe and National" by the compatriots of Atchison and Stringfellow. We ask five Republicans everywhere to take care that these errors be not successful to quench the light of Freedom in the murky mists of Slavery.

Desire to Locate in Coudersport.

A STAGE LINE, with Mail Contract, for sale on reasonable terms. The Mail Contract continues for THREE YEARS, from July, 1857, to July, 1860. This Line runs from Coudersport, Potter Co., Pa., (a flourishing town on the bank of the Allegheny River, and the point to which all Lumbermen must come to go to Kettle Creek, Germania, and the Sinnemahoning Fineries, as well as Pine Creek and the Allegheny waters,) to Genesee Station on the N. Y. & E. R. R., and connecting by other lines with the Sunbury & Erie R. R. at Lock Haven, on the Great Waters of the Sinnemahoning. The subscriber offers it for sale for the reason that after having lived in Coudersport and run the line for five years, he has removed to his farm at a point altogether inconvenient for him to give it his personal superintendence, and the people of Potter know that fact.

The Stock consists of two Black Horses and a Coach running out of Coudersport—one four horse Team and Coach, and one coach for the mud, and one Sleigh for winter—all in good running order, well wintered, almost through the mud, and ready for inspection. All for sale on reasonable terms and long credit.

Apply to the Proprietor, at Colesburg, Potter Co., Pa. SAMUEL S. MILLS.
