Thursday evening of February court session of the County. The County Commissioners met at the court house to transact any business that may be introduced.

Thursday of last week a fatal accident occurred on the lumber job of Daniel Dodge on Butter Creek, in Sharon township.

Abel Porter, a son of Dr. Porter of Millport, was working for Mr. Dodge, drawing logs. On the morning of the day mentioned he went into the woods and put on a load of eight peeled logs. He left the skidway all right, but after a short distance the road descended a hill and he passed out of sight.

At Port Deposit where the heaviest gorge is located they talk of blowing it up with nitro-glycerine.

At the meeting of the Coudersport Literary Society on Monday evening last, the following resolution was selected for debate at the next meeting: Resolved, That laws of any civil government intended to introduce or foster the system of free trade, as the term is understood by political economists, are special legislation for the interests of a few against the interests of the mass of the community subject to such laws.

Remember that next week Thursday is Court.

A transaction took place Tuesday, commencing at Emporium and terminating at Port Allegany, which shows on the part of one of the parties concerned a reckless disregard for the safety of society.

A man belonging in Olean, whose name our informant did not learn, had been at work for a person in Emporium, said to be a physician. Tuesday, feeling indisposed and showing some signs of an eruptive disease, his employer placed him on the 2:05 train on the B. N. Y. & P. R. W., telling him to go home, that nothing was the matter with him but a bad cold. Arriving at Prestonville the conductor of the train became alarmed at the man's appearance and telegraphed to Port Allegany to have a physician at the station when the train came in. Dr. Hogarth was notified, and on the arrival of the train he examined the man, who by that time was beautifully spotted, and pronounced it an undoubted case of smallpox.

To say there was some rapid 'getting out' of that car and away from that station, and that Port Allegany was slightly scared, would be putting it very mild.

The man was left at the station, and the train moved on. When our informant left the Port Allegany men were talking of sending him through to Olean by private conveyance.

If the person at Emporium who placed him on the train knew the character of the disease, his conduct is deserving of the severest censure, to say the least.

LATER.—They raised fifteen dollars and sent the man on to Olean.

People begin to talk of new sugar and maple syrup.

Smethport has got an Express office. What is to hinder Coudersport from having the same convenience? We certainly can see no reason why we should not have one.

M. Metzgar; Constable, J. M. Coxey; High Constable, M. S. Thompson; Overseers of the Poor, John S. Ross, W. K. Jones; Auditor, Joe James; Assessor, S. S. Greenman; Assistant Assessors, W. B. Gordinier, P. A. Stebbins.

Our Subscribers have noted some figures written with the address on their paper. They show the expiration of the time the paper is paid for. For instance, —a year or volume containing fifty numbers, —when the figures 24-21 are written, they denote that the subscriber has paid to Vol. XXIV, No. 21, and any one can tell, by comparing the figures on his paper with the number of the paper it is on, whether he is in arrears and how much.

It is our intention to work into the advance pay system, believing it to be best, not only for the subscribers, but for the interest of the paper, as no other method will enable us to make the improvement necessary to keep abreast with the times.

We now call on all who were in arrears at the commencement of our combined series to pay up at once, and should any such miss their usual weekly paper, they may understand that prompt payment will renew its visits.

Let it be understood by all that the most perfect assurance of eventual payment will not furnish ink or paper nor meet the expenses daily required to keep our press in motion. We must pay in cash, and to enable us to do it our subscribers MUST do the same. Those who are having the paper sent to friends should see how the account stands that their friends may not be deprived of it.

A Beautiful Handwriting.

There are but few of our readers who would not like to acquire a rapid and beautiful handwriting. For this is no one accomplishment so highly prized as this. The business colleges of the country have awarded the best instruction in this branch and have succeeded in producing the most accomplished penmen. The best penman in America to-day is Prof. Gaskell, Pres. of the Board of Scientific Congress, N. H. There are few lovers of the beautiful art of penmanship who have not heard of this wonderful penman and many have seen specimens of his skill. He has a large stock of goods at Coudersport, N. Y. City and throughout the country where they have some place of business. He is now engaged to give instruction in his method of teaching, which he writes immediately for the student, so that any one can learn to write at the home or office. They contain all printed instructions, and are put up in large neat envelopes and sent by mail prepaid for $2.00 per package. They are all numbered and so easy to follow that they can be learned rapidly by those who desire to acquire a beautiful and rapid handwriting. They also contain a full copy of the United States and Canada. Our readers would do well to write for a package, as nothing so complete, beautiful and useful as this instruction will ever again be offered.
