of the ADVERTISER are: its full, latest Telegraph ic intelligence from all quarters; its faithful re ports of the daily Markets at all the Commercia entres of the country; its comments on political ad passing events and its full, fresh and readable cal intelligence.

The WEEKLY ADVERTISER

The Singer is a lock-stitch machine large, eight-page, fifty-six column newspaper, issued every Thussday, and contains the cream of the baily edition.

It is especially addressed and intended for that large and intelligent class of communication and the facilities for reaching whom make it impossible to supply themselves with a daily paper.

For these, besides the late general and local news, are provided reports of local agricultural interests and full reports of late markers for country produce.

It is eminently a readable paper and furnishes in eace issue a vast amount and variety of reading matter.

Notice to Collectors of County Taxes.

By reference to the Act of March 28, 1873, entitled "An Act to change the mode of levying and collecting the dog taxes in the County of Potter," it will be seen that the duties heretofore exercised by the County Commissioners are hereafter to be performed by the Directors of the several School Districts respectively.

The Collectors of county taxes for the year 1873, will therefore take notice that they are not to collect the dog taxes carried out on their dupicates, as the County Commissioners have no authority to levy said taxes. By order of the Board.
