If our Raymond correspondent fails to see his communication in print, he will probably be reminded that we publish nothing without the author's name. Whether or not the name is published is a matter for them to decide, but we must have it in all cases or refuse to notice the communication.

No Paper Next Week.
The Fourth of July will interfere with our regular business to such an extent that no paper will be issued from this office. With the rest of the world we propose taking a holiday.

Change in Day of Publication.—The present arrangement of the mails that run through the eastern part of the county compel the changing of our day of publication, so that on and after Wednesday, July 9, the paper will be printed on the afternoon of that day and will reach the Thursday morning mails.

Ed. Walton Dwight.

The case of Cyrus Strong against Col. John Dwight, at Binghamton, Bro't before for an investment of $30,000 in $100 worth of stock of the Wilkeson & Canby Lumber Company, and Sunday night in the disguise of the deputy, nine were for defendant and three for plaintiff. The suit is on the cost and value of a ham sent on the St. Maurice river, Canby-John's Express.

FLYNN'S HOTEL, June 24, 1873.

Ed. Walton Dwight.—I believe you sometimes mention the catching of large trout in your paper. In a copy I would be pleased to see you make a note of one I caught being about a hundred rods from my father's house on Pine creek. It weighed twenty-six ounces, longest trout I ever caught. I got from the same hole some three weeks that weighed twenty ounces. Yours, for trout,
MARCUS P. FLYNN.

The Legislature of New York has set on foot what is called the "Civil Bill." We have not seen it, but hope that it provides for the recovery of damages from the seller of intoxicating liquors when the person to whom they are sold gets drunk and suffers injury. We notice in one of your papers that five suits have already been commenced under this law in Coudersport.

suspected foul play, had the woman arrested, and in company with Dr. Hartman performed a post mortem. The stomach and contents were taken to Philadelphia by Dr. Hartley, where it was analyzed and found to contain strychnia. The woman has since confessed and is in custody awaiting her trial. There are other parties implicated in the affair, for whose arrest warrants have been issued. —Ed. D. Wright.

Dr. Hartley was formerly a resident of Coudersport, where he has numerous friends.

Coming.
The Fourth of July, the glorious Fourth, is coming, and Brown & Kelley have prepared to give the young people of this place and vicinity an opportunity to enjoy themselves by "tripping it on the light, fantastic toe," or any other kind of a toe? Ye who love the terpsichorean can't master that phrase—but what we mean is, let all who love to dance come to the Baker House next Friday evening.

We are informed
That R. K. Young, Esq., allows amateurs to fish in his trout pond for a dollar a "throw" with the fly.

More about the Railroad.
In another place we publish a communication on the Pine Creek Railroad. Since its contents were in type we learn that an English company have advanced a million and a half of dollars to prosecute the work, and the remainder, some four millions, will be coming in good season. The corps of engineers are now on Round Island. —Wellsboro' Democrat.

We publish the above without knowing how much of truth there may be in the story regarding the English company. The communication referred to contains simply one idea,—that the author believes the road will be built. This idea is evolved with a long talk about Billings, Ross, Tamerlane and an anti-all mixed together. We endorse the opinion that the road will be built, but concerning that we had rather not commit ourselves.

By-the-way, can any one inform us how many times the story of Tamerlane, or some other barbarian, and the ant has been told to the world? We don't object to its being told a great many times more, for there is something peculiarly refreshing in the way each narrator rehashes it as though he were telling a new tale.

Champion.
Uncle Bill Akeley claims to be the champion fisherman of this region at present. He says that Tuesday he fished from the bridge over the Allegheny on the Emporium road to the Westernman dam, taking all day, and did not catch a trout. He thinks such an exploit is hard to beat.

Wellsville.
Is to have a grand Fourth of July celebration.

Wellsville.
"Why, you never mean to say, you haven't spoken to her yet?"

"Not yet," answered Tom, cheerfully. "Time enough for that, you know, after I had spoken to you."

Mother, as a minister's widow, was not much given to the idle mirth that is as the crackling of thorns under a pot, but now she leaped up and lashed all the faces around her.

THE "National Line of Steamships" has been wonderfully improved in the last two years, by the building of FIVE NEW STEAMERS, several of which have made some of the fastest runs on record. The Line between New York, Queenstown and Liverpool is composed of the most celebrated steamers in the world and their average time is not far from about nine days. The accommodation for stowage passengers is of the best character, comprising many comforts and conveniences not to be found on other ships. Passengers to and from Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow and Londonderry sail by this Line. The London Line is composed of the older vessels and offers very good accommodation to and from the south of England and Continent of Europe, but the steamers are not so fast as the Queenstown & Liverpool Line. This Company has always been in favor of cheap passages and still guarantees to sell tickets at lower rates than any other Line crossing the Atlantic, a fact that should be remembered by those visiting the Old Country or sending for their friends.
