Oceans of suds—the product of tons of soap—fairly food every part of the house. The women, from the misiress down, labor as they soap—fairly flood every part of the house. The women, from the mistress down, labor as the never worked before, and what with the discomfort, the smell of suds and the dampness, and nonfrequently stckness, the product of colds an overwork, matters are generally disagreeable. The simple use of Sapolio instead of soap doe away with all this discomfort. It lightens the labor a hundred per cent, because it remove dirt, grease, stains and spots, with hardly an labor, with but little water, and in one tenth thusual time.
