Potter County Fair.
The time fixed for the Fair this fall is Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October eighth, ninth and tenth.

Tomatoes.
Wm. S. Raymond laid upon our table Monday evening a few specimens of large ripe tomatoes of his own raising. They are the first of the season that we have seen.

The Baptist.
Society will hold an ice cream festival at the Court House on Thursday evening of this week. All are cordially invited.

Festival.
The Methodist Society held an ice cream festival in the basement of the M. E. Church last Wednesday evening. The results were a very pleasant time and $200.00 cash.

The stand of little Georgie Loyer, at the Sewing Machine Dept of Loyer Bros., for your candy, peanuts and notions.

Look Out!
Buckberries if you go huckleberrying. Several persons have been bitten by them while picking berries in the woods below here, and we notice one who has had a bad case.

Miss Clara A. Stockwell has been engaged to take charge of the graded school in this village for the coming year. The other teachers remain the same as they were during the last year: Mrs. Nettie Gridley in the Grammar Department and Miss Ellis in the Primary Department.

Miss Stockwell is too well known in this community to require any further case at our hands. Her reputation as a teacher ensures the success of the school under her management.

Work is again progressing on the Baptist Church in this place, and we understand it is now to be completed.

Tornado.
We learn that on the evening of the 23rd of the month of Robert Briggs, in Coudersport, was visited by a tornado. The destruction was brief, but the damage done by the tornado, passing from north to south, did but little damage to the premises of Mr. Briggs when it did him injury. A barn-house about 12 by 16 feet was blown in the air and torn to pieces.

Wedded.
Piantz-Taggart.—On the 6th inst., by Rev. O. M. LEGGITT, Mr. DAVID R. FRUTZ, of Rossport, Pa., and Miss ELIZA A. TAGGART, daughter of Seth Taggart, Esq., Coudersport, Pa.

DRAPES on Europe furnished at reasonable rates by S. F. HAMILTON, Agent.

to avoid mistakes; it would not have a typographical error once in three months; it would have the paper out "on time" each week to the quarter minute; it would have the literary matter more excellent than the best things of Holmes, Collins or Dickens; the fac-ticia would surprise Twain, Billings or the man of Danbury; the editorials equal to anything Greeley, Marble, or even Train ever dreamed of; while its local—we'll, its locals should be the feature of the paper; in them it could excite—astonish people—and all so easy. Nothing, from the latest arrival and the last new dress that fluttered on the street to the crops and the babies in the far end of the County, should fail to be noticed, and everybody should be pleased, the thing should be kept level and no chance for grumbling.
