Damon, 24. G. R. Barrett.

Pierce and King Club No. 1 Will meet at the court house on Saturday evening next, at early candlelight.

ELECTION RETURNS.—Will our friends in each township take a little pains to forward the election returns of their several districts immediately on the counting of the votes?

We have re-inserted the table of the election returns of our county after correcting several errors that escaped our detection last week, besides others that were according to copy.

TIME CHANGED.—The time for the commencement of Miss Cuttle's School, has been changed from Monday the 1st to Monday the 5th of November.

THE PEOPLE AWAKE. The Democracy of our county seem to be properly awake to the importance of the present political contest. Meetings of the masses—the farmers and workingmen—the bone and sinew of the nation—are taking place every day, and if our county does not do her share on next Tuesday towards holding the old Keystone level at twenty thousand majority, why we miss our guess, that's all.

Old "BARKS" AROUSED!—Two spirited meetings were held in Brady township, on last Saturday—one in the afternoon, at Luthersburg, and the other in the German settlement, in the evening, and both were addressed by Messrs. Ferguson and France—the latter by Mr. France in the German language. Old "Barks" has a notion to bring out her Big Gun on next Tuesday.

GOSHEN AWAKE.—An excellent Democratic meeting was held at School house No. 1, in Goshen township, last Tuesday. A. S. Lehard acted as President, Joseph Owens Vice President, and E. K. Shiry and J. B. Shaw Secretaries.

BOGGS MOVING!—A large meeting of the Democrats of Boggs township was held at Alex. Stone's, on Monday evening last, where the people were eloquently addressed by Col. Barrett and Mr. Ferguson. Boggs was the Banner township in October, and she's bound to keep her credit up.

OLD BRADFORD IN MOTION!—A crowded assemblage of the Democracy of this truly Democratic township was held at Matthew Forney's, on Tuesday evening last, where Mr. Ferguson and Mr. France both addressed the people, and gave great satisfaction. Old Bradford has an eye on that Banner, offered by the Pierce and King Club!

GALLANT MORRIS ALL READY!—A large meeting of the Democrats of this great township was held at Lohman's on Wednesday last, in the afternoon, where they were edited by Mr. Ferguson, with one of his best efforts. Morris can do wonders in the way of rolling up big majorities, and if we are not mistaken she is in a good humor to make a demonstration on Tuesday next.

A MEETING WAS ALSO HELD at Philipsburg in the evening, but we have not heard the particulars. Mr. Ferguson and Col. Barrett were also expected to address the people of Decatur township, on last evening, and the people of Woodward and Beccaria townships to-day.

TO THE POLLS!

Next Tuesday the people of the United States will elect a National Executive for the next four years. The hour for action has therefore arrived, and it is to be presumed that every voter has fixed in his own mind who he shall vote for—whether he shall cast his suffrage for Gen. Winfield Scott, the candidate of the Federal whig party, a man who is notoriously deficient in all the essential qualities that constitute a great and a safe Statesman, whose insatiable vanity and self-conceit renders him supremely ridiculous as a Republican citizen, and whose insatiable thirst for distinction and power has placed him on all sides of all questions—or whether he shall cast his vote for General FRANKLIN PIERCE, the distinguished statesman, the pure republican and the "gallant citizen soldier." A man who has proved his devotion to his country in every way that a patriot can be tried. It is his glory that, in all his life, as Mr. BUCHANAN remarked in his late speech at Greensburg, "Gen. PIERCE has never taken a single step backwards." He belongs to the party of progress, and from his earliest life he has steadily advanced from one degree of greatness to another—never seeking promotion or office—but ever ready to fill whatever station his country and countrymen might require him to fill.

Such is the character of the Democratic candidate. But it is not for this that he is now the chosen Standard-bearer of the National Democracy. It is because he is the embodiment of their time-honored principles—those principles that originated with the immortal Jefferson, and now acknowledged and advocated throughout the civilized world. It is for this that Gen. PIERCE and WM. R. KING, are wanted to be elected to the highest offices in the gift of the American people.

TO THE POLLS, then, you who are identified with the great National Democracy of this Union, and vote for FRANKLIN PIERCE and WILLIAM R. KING.

TO THE POLLS, then, you who value measures of greater importance than mere men, and cast your votes for the men of wholesome measures and sound national principles, PIERCE and KING.

TO THE POLLS, then, you who are in favor of continuing our present free and liberal institutions in their purity, and vote for the distinguished standard-bearers of the Democracy.

TO THE POLLS, all who are opposed to the placing of the government of your noble country in the hands of a man whose every act of statesmanship proves him to be notoriously incompetent and disqualified, and who, if elected, would be surrounded and controlled by a set of the most desperate and reckless politicians that ever disgraced our country, and cast your suffrages for the sound statesmen and true Republicans, PIERCE and KING.

TO THE POLLS, ye who are opposed to a National Bank, to high tariff taxation, to a squandering system of Internal Improvements, and all the rotten and discarded measures of the old Federal party, and vote for PIERCE and KING, the friends of equal laws, equal taxation, and an economical administration of the General Government.

TO THE POLLS, Democrats, every man of you, and roll up another majority of TWENTY THOUSAND for PIERCE and KING, DEMOCRACY and the UNION.

"Where will the Webster men go?" is already the question asked by the politicians. During the three or four days of his dangerous illness the city whigs press all at once became wondrous kind and courteous towards the supporters of Mr. Webster. All their invective and denunciation were immediately changed to the most honied phrases of kindness and regard, and which must have been anything but agreeable to their good sense. And even now, in some of the whig papers, in the very sheet on which they record his death, they seem to exult over the prospect of the Webster party falling in with the men who so ignobly discarded their great chief, and casting their votes for the spirit high distinction of the WEBSTER PRESS, or the WEBSTER MEN. They cannot so soon forget the recent past. They remember—and they feel—the last and the dying words of their lamented leader, and with them DANIEL WEBSTER'S "STILL LIVES!"

A SPLENDID POLE AND BANNER.—The Democrats of our borough, and Lawrence township, put up a pole in front of the Court house, on last Wednesday 110 feet in height—all thickly and perfectly straight—decorated with a splendid Banner, presented by Governor BROWNE, and others. After the pole was raised the eloquent Ferguson addressed the meeting.

MILITARY.—The Regulars, a Volunteer company just formed, under command of Capt. W. A. Wallace, paraded our streets yesterday for the first time, making a very creditable display.

OUR GLORIOUS MAJORITY.

Only look at it. Over twenty-one thousand and that with a small vote. If, as the whigs say, there were forty thousand votes not polled at the late election, by the same rule, what is likely to be our majority on next Tuesday? The answer is easily given, for the Democrats are now determined to give Federalism a death-blow, and they may look for a majority against them of something between twenty-five and forty thousand.

"ONLY A SECOND RATE LAWYER." Such is the character given to General PIERCE by the Whigs. Now, we don't pretend to know the difference between first and second rate lawyers, or exactly what constitutes either, but we would like to know or hear tell of the second-rate lawyer, who has been three times elected to the Congress of the United States.

We would like to know or hear tell of the second-rate lawyer that has ever resigned a seat in the United States Senate, and positively declined a re-election to the same high distinction.

We would like to know or hear tell of the second-rate lawyer who has ever declined a seat in the Cabinet of the President of the United States.

We would very much like to know or hear tell of the second-rate lawyer who has ever volunteered to serve in defence of his country as a private soldier, and rose in a single campaign to the post of a Brigadier General!

And we would very much like to know or hear tell of the second-rate, or even the first-rate lawyer, that has ever declined a nomination for President of the United States, when tendered unanimously by the political party of his native State.

Now all these things Gen. Pierce has done, and yet the Whigs call him a second-rate lawyer. CONGRESSIONAL GAINS.—The democrats have elected forty-six members of Congress—the whigs twenty-five—in the recent elections in Maine, Vermont, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Florida; showing a gain of eleven democrats, as compared with the election of '48

DANIEL WEBSTER IS NO MORE!

By the telegraphic communications which we copy from the Philadelphia papers of Monday last, it will be seen that the Hon. DANIEL WEBSTER, Secretary of State of the United States, expired early Monday morning last, at his family residence in Marshfield, Massachusetts. He had been suffering with a slight rheumatism for several days, which was not regarded as dangerous until it assumed a chronic character, and in four days he was no more! Truly a great man hath fallen. But his greatness "STILL LIVES!"

DEATH OF HON. DANIEL WEBSTER. Journal office Boston, 8 o'clock, A. M.—By an express from Marshfield, we have the painful intelligence of the death of the Hon. Daniel Webster, who expired at a quarter before 3 o'clock this morning. He died composed—so peacefully that his friends were unaware that he had gone to his final home. The bells immediately commenced tolling, and sadness and gloom prevailed everywhere.

Special messengers were despatched to Washington with the melancholy news. Minute guns were fired in Boston for three hours, and the flags everywhere, of all parties, were shrouded in crape. The funeral of the lamented deceased will probably take place from his late residence, in Marshfield, on Tuesday.

Further Particulars.—Webster's last moments, his dying words. Boston, Oct. 24, 7 1/2 P. M.—We learn from a gentleman just arrived from Marshfield, that up to 10 o'clock on Saturday evening, Mr. Webster continued to fail very rapidly. Arousing from his lethargy at about 10 o'clock, his countenance became animated, and his eye flashed with his usual brilliancy, when in full health. He exclaimed—"I STILL LIVE," and immediately sank into tranquil unconsciousness.

These were the last words of the world-renowned Daniel Webster. His breathing now became fainter, and his strength seemed entirely gone. He lingered in this condition until 22 minutes before 3 o'clock this morning, when his spirit left its mortal tenement and returned to God.

His bedside was surrounded by his son, Fletcher Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Paige, Mr. Harvey, Mr. Levy, Edward Curtis, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Appleton, Drs. Warren and Jeffries, Mr. Abbott, and Geo. T. Curtis. A few moments after he expired, Mrs. Webster entered the room to gaze upon the lifeless remains of her beloved partner. The scene was painful beyond description. Her grief gave utterance to the most agonizing tones of sorrow. But it were vain to attempt to mirror the scene. It was a picture never to be forgotten.

Those who saw Mr. Webster a few moments after death state that though much changed, yet there remains those characteristics of the great man, as strong in death as they had been in life. THREE O'CLOCK, A. M.—Mr. J. J. Marsh, Mr. Haskell, and Mr. Long, were entrusted with special despatches to the President and Departments at Washington, announcing the sad event.

They were accompanied by Messrs. Abbott and Banting, who came through by an extraordinary express. They arrived in Boston at half-past six o'clock this morning, and gave the first information of the death of Mr. Webster.

They were also empowered by Mr. Charles A. White, and H. Lyman, Esq. of the Webster State Executive Committee, who were at Marshfield, to instruct the Artillery to fire one hundred minute guns.

THE GAME OF THE OPPOSITION.

We again urge upon our friends in all parts of the State the utmost vigilance and activity in preparing for the undiminished exertion in November. The opposition are actively and quietly doing their utmost, and money will be thrown away with a prodigal hand if by that means the success of the Federal Abolition candidate can be secured. Notwithstanding her majority of 20,000 against them at the recent election, so desperate are the chances of the Federal State to their success, that they are endeavoring by every effort to overcome that majority, and the capitalists both here and at the East have been drawn upon for large contributions to effect the result. The Boston Post of Wednesday contains the following announcement:—Daily Argus.

PENNSYLVANIA.—A desperate effort is to be made to carry your State for Scott. The Scott managers, satisfied that they can make nothing out of the "rich brogue," are now trying their arts upon the "Native American" party. A large sum of money has been raised by the Scott Whigs for the purpose of securing the vote of the Native party—one man in New York it is reported, gave $1500—and it is confidently predicted that many thousands of votes can be gained for the Scott ticket by "peppering" manoeuvres. Democrats! look out for the tricks of your desperate enemies—they will resort to any means—foul or fair—to place a military yoke upon the necks of the people.

Will our friends take warning? CONGRESSIONAL VOTE.—Notwithstanding the Whigs brought out Mr. Kerr, as the Protective candidate, and stigmatized the Democrats as Free Traders, Mr. Curran has been re-elected by an overwhelming majority. The vote stands:
