THE REPUBLICAN 18 printed weekly at Oleanfield. Pa., by D. W. MOUR CLARK WILBUR, Editors and Proprietor, at the fo

ONE COPY ONE YEAR, IN ADVANCE! PROT. PAID: WITHIN THREE MONTH. IF NOT PAID WITHIN BIX MONTHS. IF NOT PAID WITHIN NINE MONTHS, 176 The above terms are as ilberal as those or any other powerry paper in the State, and will be exhoused; Modiscontinuades will be pllowed until glintenance hav

DUTY AND LIABILITY OF POSTMANTERS. Postmarters neglecting to notify the publisher, as directed by law lofthe flat that has at a but lifted by those to whom they are directed, are themselves, held presponsible for the amount of the subscription money.

Persons litting papers addressed to themselves, or to others, become subscribers, and are liable for the price of subscriberation. Out paper is now chrised by mali throughout the county

First and Last Night in London. It was in the fall of 18—, that the ship paper, and almost the first thing which atto which I belonged, after a voyage of tracted my attention was a notice of a four months in the northern Atlantic, hove bloody murder in—street, with the in sight of the Scilly Islands, and, as we reward of fifty pounds for the apprehenwere bound for London, shaped our course sion of the murderer. It went further, up the channel and in a few days were an- and, in the description of the supposed chored in the Downs. Having been short person, described me better than I could of provisions for some time back, we were have done myself, oven to the manner in obliged to stop to replenish. The next which I were my beard. The first barday, however, we were towed up the river, ber's shop received that gratis; and changand entered the Commercial Dock on the loss of October, 18—. It was a grand described, I went down to the docks, and sight to me, for I had never been in London, and the city seemed like the world in comparison with my humble village in the west of England. We were to be paid off on the morrow: and I determined off on the morrow; and I determined, as soon as I was at liberty to take a stroll and der Hull street, and received, severally, the amounts due them. There were just to my pleasure. I had been strolling around for some time, looking at the Tower and other places of note, and finally walked into one of the parks to see there what I could of London fashions. I was leaning against a tree watching a party which attracted my attention, when I was suddenly accosted by a female, apparently about eighteen or twenty, neatly dressed, and with an expression which, though pleasing, seemed some what sad. "What is it you wish, my good lady?"

said I. She looked at me a moment, and said "You are a sailor, I suppose?"

"How long have you been in London? "Yes.

"I arrived yesterday." "Have you been here before!"

"Well, then, perhaps I can be of some assistance to you. Suppose we take a cab and drive out to Vauxhall, this even-

I hesitated a moment; for I thought to myself, she no doubt thinks I have plenty of money, and wishes to obtain a share. difference; I'll spend it anyhow; and purse to pay the driver, when she antici pated me, and said-

"Never mind, sir, I have plenty. Besides, I invited you here; therefore, I bear all expense,"

I was astonished, for I had never doubted but that, my money was the principal attraction; and I was puzzled to think which sho insisted upon paying for, we music, until towards evening, when I remarked it would be best to return.

for you to look for a hotel to-night-and, besides, it would be ungenerous in me to allow you too,—I reside in——-street, and if you will accept a room in my house you will be perfectly welcome; and my husband, who is fond of company, will be glad to see you."

half forced me in.

When the cab stopped we got out, and I found myself in a narrow street dimly lighted, and before a large brick house, with iron railings in front.

She opened the door, and asked me to sit down a moment, when she went into a room close by, and returned almost immediately and saids: The same of the same

My husband has retired, I'll introduce you to him in the morning. Here is a light, take the room at the head of the falairsi : Good night. He the time to the party and a I went op stairs to the room she had pointed out, opened the door and went in. It was furnished, you might say, richly; the bed stood in the further corner, with blue damask curtains in front. I undressed quickly, as I was somewhat tired by my day's adventures, walked to the wain to attempt to describe my feelings. I often spend to make our neighbors enimmediately dressed myself, with a pres- vious. ence of mind I have never been able to account for I then tried to open the door, upon the irons in the fire-place; I snatch weeks since, one of his father's boots in a Pennsylvania Life and up one, and with one stroke; broke the hole dug in the vegetable garden. The lock and opened the decree Pennsylvania Life lock and opened the stairs, I found the front door fastened the enclosure was a leather tree loaded. too Having nothing to break the lock to, and jumped from the window into an sleigh-rides, because of the delightful privious the sound five hundred and thirty-four legheny mountains shall have been timed. Sound policy dictates the early combinate of the house, and I had lieges which the common law allows the dollars, being at the average rate of about ed. Sound policy dictates the early combined to the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the brilliancy as to light a large portion of the brilliancy as to light a large portion of the brilliancy as to light a large portion of the brilliancy as to light a large portion of the legislature—a mountain shall have been timed. Sound policy dictates the early combined to the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the brilliancy as to light a large portion of the legislature—a mountain shall have been timed. Sound policy dictates the early combined to the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for a year, and with such brilliancy as to light a large portion of the world burn for ind Tisaw the vory woman that reame ing the chilling winds away from a pair of par, two hundred thousand dollars of the on the attention of th outpunitaticediaday salos to spani oil ut to der ville derricht, with a construction of the construction of Assembly to the content of the conte

A WEEKLY PAPER: DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, MORALITY, AND FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

Volume 4.

Clearfield, Pa., February 4, 1853.

Number 6.

The next morning I was reading the

Among those who formed a part of the so often heard. At twelve the next day all hands proceeded to the office in Lean. her husband, was left in poverty, with the and eighty two thousand six hundred and task upon her bonds of rearing three sons; some relief to the prisoners confined on ments of the public works, &c. Divested board the prison ship and in the juils of of these items, the receipts and expendi-Charleston. This widow was one of the tures may be stated as follows, viz: was admitted within the city, and braving the horrors of pestilence, employed herself to the extent of her humble means, in al- Payments at the Treasury as leviating the deplorable sufferings of her She knew what she had to encounter countrymen. before she went; but, notwithstanding, Expenses of permanent revwent bravely on. Her message of human. ity having been fulfilled, she lest Charleston on her return; but, alas! her exposure to the pestilential atmosphere she had and permanent revenue has been more been obliged to breathe, had planted in than adequate to the ordinary support of her system the seeds of fatal disease, and the government during the past year; the ap-That dying mother, who now rests in the proper, have fully absorbed this excess. sole survivor of this family, to the world's ed that the resources of the Treasury are days thereafter, would cease to be allowed. inknown grave, thus left her only son, the The gratifying fact neverthless, is presentcharity; but little did she dream as death no longer insufficient to sustain the plightclosed her eyes, the future of that orphan ed faith of the Commonwealth, but that, the financial year was as follows:

OTIt is stated that the house of dele-duced, and our people relieved from the vide for the appointment of overseers, who are to be required to hire out, at public of $1,382,611 was in the treasury at the may clapse before the certificates reach prudence and the exercise of sound judg-successful in every quarter. The utifiost gntes of Virginia has before it a bill to pro- burthen of taxation. auction, all free persons of color, to the close of the fiscal year, yet the same is not the Treasury for recemption. After ordering some refreshments, or hire. These sums are to be devoted in the 1st day of repruaryness. The sound of the loan autinterest, and whilst the market price of the pect to retain it. which she ato and drank very little, but future to sending free persons of color be- $711,573 28 being part of the loan autinterest, and whilst the market price of the pect to retain it. which she missisted upon paying for, my your the limits of the parties. At the extinorized by the act of 4th may, 2000, for ordinary boiled does not observe that the principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the value, the former commands a handsome principle of the redemption of the over due loans of the persons of the redemption of the over due loans of the redemption of the redemption of the over due loans of the redemption of the redempti into slavery to the highest bidder, at pubbetter go. But," said she, "you are a be paid into the public treasury; provided I found it necessary to ask for the passage requiring no power of attorney or other stranger in London, and it would be folly that the said free persons of color shall slaves of any free white person whom they may select, on the payment by such person of a fair price. FIGURATIVE.-A Western editor says, if a contemporary makes faces at his sis-While hesitating, she called a cab and ter again, he must make up his mind to wear a slice of court plaster over his nose for the next three months. It strikes us that this is only a roundabout way of saying that "the party of the second part" must look out for what vulgar people would term "a bat over the smeller."

O7-"Barney, where have you been." "To widow Mulloney's ball, and illigant time we had of it-four fights in fifty minutes, and a knock down with the watchhouse, and that belonged to the ten kettle. Be dad the likes were never seen since

some people's ideas of the "illigant" differ somewhat from others. in OT All a man wants to make him happy in this world, are health, sunshine and bed and drew aside the curtains, and there contentment. The two former may be lay a man weltering in his blood, with his had gratis, while the latter may be purthroat out from ear to ear to It would be chased for less than half the sum that we

They must have some rich soil in Oregon: A child of a shoemaker; in one Glancing around the room, my news fell of the more fertile counties, hid, a few lock and opened the door. Running down next morning the principal attraction in tives of the Commonwealth of Penn'a. honorable bodies this, my annual report, Interest on $1,914,923 51 6 per ct. loans on the finances of the Commonwealth, being for the year ending the 30th day of November 1852. The tables which will be found hereto appended, show, in the usual form the revenue and expenditures, the estimates, the monthly statements, and statements relative to tax on real and personal property, relief notes, balance of appropriation and public debt. From these will be seen that the whole amount of receipts, for the year, was seven millions seven hundred and sixteen thousand five hundred and fifty-two dollars and seventeen cents, (7,716,552 17,) and that of the payments six millions eight hundred

As this representation of the facts howten pounds coming to me, and I started off to see how I could best make it conducive cause of their country, and she struggled ever might in some degree convey an cron with the youngest us best she could.— roneous impression as to the true state of After the fall of Charleston, and the disas- our finances, it is proper to remark that a trous defeat of Col. Buford of Virginia, by large portion both of the receipts and ex-Tarleton, permission was given to some penditure, is of an extraordinary characfour or five American females to carry ter, being loans, premiums on loans, sales necessaries and provisions, and administer of public property, extension and improvevolunteers on this errand of mercy. She Receipts at the Treasury from permanent ing Nov. 30, 1852. $4,428,096 23 applied to objects of a permanent character during 3.879,673 36 the same time.

· enue over permanent expenditures. Whilst it thus appears that the ordinary we were at: Vauxhall. I pulled out my this free Republic for that widow was the tion a few years above the definer when the resident of the president of the proper economy and prudent legislation and the proper economy and proper economy and proper economy and proper economy and prudent legislation and the proper economy and proper economy and proper e this free Republic, for that widow was the tion, a few years only will have elapsed Of 5 per cent loans. till our public debt will be, if not number- Interest certificates, scrip &c. 149,571 30 ed among the things that were, greatly reking up the full amount. The sum of one lion loan already negotiated shows to the zation is going on rapidly in that republic. hundred thousand dollars of this loan, contrary. bearing 4 per cent, interest, was taken at man that left but one whole nose in the par, by the bank of Northern Liberties,

B. C. H. Fisher. $520,000 at 1,03 prem. 520,000 at 1,23 Do. 520,000 at 1,53 " Do. 520,000 at 1,77 " Do. 520,000 at 2,02 Do. 520,008 at 2,27 Wes. Sav. F. Soc'y. 40,000 at 2,56 " 10,000 at 1,50 : " Ellmen Brothers, 10,000 at 1,75 Do. 10,000 at 2,00 " Do. 10.000 at 2.25 " Do. 10,000 at 2,50 T)o. 100,000 at 5:10 Pennsylvania Life Insurance Co., 100,000 at 1,53

Simon Draper, 1,000,000 at 5,00 "Girard Bank, 490,000 at 5,00 "

To the Senate and House of Representa- from the face of the annual report of the which it passes, must become one of the ving to the Commonwealth of more than provements. That it will amply repay for of Susquehanna county, who took a preunpaid loans, it proves that it will be a sa-GENTLEMEN:—Agreeably to the act of half a million of dollars. In illustration of the outlay in its construction, cannot well mium of $50 at the annual meeting of the 16th of March, 1832, I submit to your this fact I submit the following figures:

for 25 years, Interest on $2,985,976 at 3,732,470 61

5 per cent. loans. Interest on 100,000 00 at 175,000 00 5 per ct. for 35 years.

Old loans 5,000,000. In't. $6,778,505 87 Deduct S. tax from Int'st. Amount that would have been required for inter-

$6,439,580 58 est on old leans. Interest on $4,900,000 at 4 per cent for 25 years. 6,125,000 00

Interest on $100,000 at 4 per cent for 35 years. New loans, 5,000,000. In't. $6,265,000 00

Deduct premiums on new

8134,534 00 Deduct interest on same

for 25 y'rs. 201,801 00

Amount required to pay interest on new loans. $5,928,665 00

RECAPITULATION. Amount that would have been required to pay interest on old loans.

Amount requred to pay interest on new loans. Defference in favor of new loans, or saving to the Commonwealth. Or a saving of more than twenty thousand dollars per annum.

Agreeably to the 103d section of the act ere she reached her home, she sank under an attack of prison fever, a brave martyr to the last session of the last session of the last session of the cause of humanity and patriotism.

This statement is accompanied with the statement of Hon. Wm. Jessup, Wm. D. Cope, and A. Chamberlin, certifying that creditors' scrip, which have fallen due, to the cause of humanity and patriotism.

Legislature, and paid out of the Treasury to the cause of humanity and patriotism. that the interest on the same, from sixty The amount redeemed up to the closing of

1,000 00

. The bonds issued in pursuance of the highest bidder, and to pay into the State at all applicable to the payment of the in- the bonus issued in pursuance of the by these, as manifested in our nails of leg- zens. Arisin has resigned the presidency the funded debt, falling due on act creating the aforesaid loan, have at- islation, that we regained it, and it is only and fled the city; whereupon Cevallos, treasury the sums account from such terest on the funded dept, hand of the Supreme Court, organized hire. These sums are to be devoted in the 1st day of Februarynext. The sum of tached to them coupons, or certificates for in the same way by these that we can expressed in the 1st day of Februarynext. The sum of tached to them coupons, or certificates for in the same way by these that we can expressed in the 1st day of Februarynext. color remaining in the State are to be sold Commonwealth, there remained an availa- premium. This is, in a great measure, ble balance for interest purposes of but there can be no doubt, owing to the facililic auction, the proceeds of such sales to $671,037 72. In my report of last year, ty with which they can be disposed of, that the said tree persons or color shall of a law authorizing a special load to most authority to transfer them, out passing mercantile irrnot that city for the following be allowed the privilege of becoming the the February interest. It became neces- readily from hand to hand. The question extract from a letter just received from St. sary to make the loan thus authorized, and may therefore be asked, would it not be Petersburgh, and dated the 21st of Dec. it cost the State seven thousand two hon- wise policy in the government to change ... I here is a report that the plague has people consumed by an the calumaties of dred and three dollars and thirty-five cts. the character of other public loans to that entered Russia, and is prevalent at anoth- anarchy? How long will it be before the dred and three dollars and thirty-live cis. the character of other public loans to that entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia, and is prevalent at another anarchy is riow long will be locally entered Russia. falling due on the 1st day of February recommend this question to the considera- military cordon of sixty or seventy thou- invoked to rescue Mexican society aid next can be paid without resorting to a tion of the Legislature, and were the prop- sand men to prevent its advancing further civilization from total anarchy and barer provisions made for this change, and into the interior of the country. Some barism? How long will it be before other er provisions made for this change, and into the interior of the country. Some parisin is from long with the deleted in respect to the act of 4th May, 1852, for the redemp- Treasury in payments of all public dues, former times, as in the reign of Cath- Mexico? These questions are worthy of tion of the over due loans, the sum of it admits of but little doubt that the value erine, it stopped at Moscow." three millions five hundred and ten thou- of the bonds would be greatly enhanced. sand dollars had been negotiated up to the I cannot see that any disadvantage in conclose of the fiscal year. Since then the sequence of such change could possibly rebalance of said loan has been taken, ma- sult to the Commonwealth. The five mil-

By a resolution of the last Legislature, passed 4th May, 1852, the Governor was and the sum of four millions him number authorized to appoint three commission-include; panel to the revolutions has to China, relative to the technique of the thousand dollars, bearing five per cent. ers to digest and simplify the general tax put the whole country in a very finsettled panels, towards the expedition expected interest, at premiums ranging from 103 laws of the State, and to report the same to and disturbed condition. we waked Donneny. It will appear that per contum to five per centum, as follows, the next (present) Legislature." As the commissioners thus appointed, will in the ico is regarded as highly probable. dischurge of their duties submit the result of their deliberations to your consideration, that matter entirely to them. The tolls from the public works during the past year have largely exceeded those of any previous year. The receipts at the Treasury from that source, having reached the sum of one million nine hundred and thirty-eight thousand five hundred cents, (1,938,574 43.) This truly is the gratifying result of good management, as well as of increase of trade, and shows conclusively, what may be expected when The premiums on this loan in the ag- the North Branch extension of canal and gregate, amount to one hundred and thirty- the road to avoid the planes over the Alsleigh-rides; because of the delightful prive four thousand five hundred and thirty-four legheny mountains shall have been finish-mended; for whilst the former removes say nothing of the productive soil through most important links in the chain of our im-urged with equal force—whilst the facili- never has been equalled in the U. States ties for transportation will be greatly in-There were several other competitors, but welath will be the effect. The expenses Bitzer of Lancaster county, was the next with the interests on the cost of avoiding the next. them. The same reasons that operated to the avoidance of the Schuylkill inclined He ploughed five acres of green sward, for plane, may be applied with equal, if not greater force, to the case in question. Experience has already tested the wisdom of the former measure, and time will show the wise policy of the latter. For more specific information in regard to these improvements, reference is made to the annual report of the Canal Commissioners, which will be laid before you. Our public debt on the 1st of Dec. 1852, this sum being in the Treasury at that time and constituting part of the loan of 4th of 336,335 00 May, 1852, was subject to the redemption of the cultivator, making but little use of presented for payment before the close of the year the amount of them outstanding would have been reduced equal to the amount of the new loan received. It may be well to remark that this loan does in no the place of those loans that have fullen due. On the contrary, it directly reduces it in amount equal to the premiums received, these being vested in the commissionsioners of the sinking fund for the purchcrease in the debt since the 1st of Dec.

1851, is the North Branch canalloan, and this was dictated by the soundest princibalance now in the Treasury. But while the whole field, and that this made a yield this favorable aspect of our affairs is presented to our view, we should not too soon acre. lose sight of the unfavorable position in which we stood some years ago, when $1,333,426 75 tory, failed to meet punctually her honest cd last evening, brings vania, for the first time in her his-As a very large portion of these loans is engagements. Although we have now that the Mexican republic is on the brink Although an apparent available balance held in Europe, some considerable time fairly attained our former high position, of destruction. The revolutionists are by these, as manifested in our halls of leg- zens. Arista has resigned the presidency

I am with great respect, Your obedient servant, J. M. BICKEL, S. Trea'r.

The Plague in Russias

The Boston Traveller is indebted to a

The latest advices received from Mexico indicate that the process of disorgani-It is said that all the Mexican States but three have joined in the movement against and distracted government.

Santa Anna's immediate return to Mex-

OFAn Indiana paper says: Amos Worthington, of Cairo, is dead. He was an unpretending man, lived unostentati-ously, and supplied the people with fish. His last words were characteristic. "I and thirty-eight thousand five hundred say, Pritchard, I am going to peg' right whole bay is surrounded with innumeration seventy-four dollars and forty-three off. I've flirted my last fish; but bury my ble forty. The expedition will find the tackle with me—who knows but they bite

Or There is a hog on exhibiton at Cincinnati, of such size and fatness, that Professor Somerindyke says, that if his tail was lighted and kept properly trimmed

Prices of Advertising.

of eveny desuription. Printed in the very NOTICE, AT THE OFFICE OF THE "CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN."

ENORMOUS YIELD OF CORN.

The following says the Harrisburg Union, is the statement of Mr. Geo. Walker, owing ngures:
The avoidance of the inclined planes of largest crop of corn, being 160 bushels of shelled corn to the acre. We believe this creased, a vast saving to the Common- 962 bushels to the acre, raised by John B now attendant upon the operation of these highest, and 93 by John A. M'Rea, of planes are much more than commensurate White Marsh, Montgomery county, was

GEO. WALKER'S MODE OF CULTIVATION. corn, the beginning of May, and hauled one hundred loads of manure on the same. After the manure was spread the ground was well harrowed, and planted the last of May, in rows 31 feet apart, running north and south, and 3 feet upart in the rows, running east and west; from three to five grains in the hill. Two bushels of lime, mixed with three bushels of plaster, was applied to said five acres very soon after although stated in the table at $41,524, it came up. A plow did not enter the $75 37, was in realty $711,573 25 less; field after the crop was planted. The ground was kept loose and mellow, and the grass and weeds kept down by the use of any of the 6 per cent. certificate of loan the hand hoe. A specimen of the corn then due. Had these certificates been was exhibited at the State fair at Lancaster, in October, being of the white flint species, eight rowed, small cob and long cars, more than one foot in length.

In addition to the enormous yield of one hundred and sixty bushels to the acre wise increase the State debt, as it but takes of shelled corn, the same field, containing five acres, produced twenty tons of superior pumpkins, some of which weighed more than 41 pounds. Said field is situated on one of the highest hills in Susquehanna county, being an Oak, Pine, Beech ase of State stocks. The only item of in- and Sugar Maple ridge—soil a sandy loom.

October 20, 1852. This statement is accompanied with the penditures by the sum of nearly six hundred the hills in each row, and hysked dred thousand dollars, irrespective of the Highly Important from Mexico.

A despatch from New Orleans, receivbrief summary of events in Mexico suggests to the mind a story of social anarchy, disorganized government, and deso-lating rebellion, which tells us that Mexico no longer exists as a stable and independent government. The edifice is mercantile firm of that city for the following crumbling to the earth in hopeless ruin: How long can this country remain an idle and indifferent spectator of a neighboring "There is a report that the plague has people consumed by all the calamaties of of this country. The United States can. not be indifferent to the condition of Mexico .- Washington Union.

THE JAPAN EXPEDITION. The Boston Post publishes the following extract from a letter, received from a gentleman who has the central authority, and that the aug- just returned to this country from a trip authorized "to appoint three commission- menting power of the revolutionists has to China, relative to the feelings of the Ja-"I was informed by a gentleman a ma-tive of Japan, that the Emperor is ready It is obvious that such a state of things for the American expedition. He exhibit in Mexico is of great interest to the United ed a letter to me, which he had received I do not deem it proper, under the circum- States, especially in view of the opening from one of his countrymen then on the stances, to suggest any amendments to the which it offers for European interference Island of Jeddo. The people kept a struct revenue laws, as they now exist, trusting and influence in the affairs of that weak look out all over the coast; and their fires night in order to be prepared indean the squadron should appear at night One million of dollars are ready and on hand. The coast is all set with guns, while in the hay of Jeddo, where the fleet is expected, there are countless war junks, and the Japanese much better soldiers than they anticipated. The presents had better been left at home, Antrade will not soon be opened with that country, except by fored."

Later from Mexico. 1109

New Orleans, Jan. 28. The Picayone is in possession of later dates from Mexico. which mention the rumor that a Mexican OTA youth last week, wishing to com- war steamer with troops, having arrived