THE REPUBLICAN.

CLEARFIELD Pa., March 18, 1853.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

CANAL COMMISSIONER,
THOMAS H. FORSYTH,
Of Philadelphia County.

AUDITOR GENERAL,
EPHRAIM BANKS,
Of Mifflin County.

SURVEYOR GENERAL,
J. PORTER BRAWLEY,
Of Crawford County.

☞Attention is asked to the Veto Message of Gov. BIGLER. It shows that our excellent Executive is properly watchful of the interests of the Commonwealth. We can readily imagine how our old, staid and plain common sense farmers will wonder at the wisdom of a Legislature that would pass such a law.

THE STATE CABINET.

We find the following telegraphic dispatch in the Daily News of Tuesday last, and which we presume to be authentic.—Mr. BLACK, the new Secretary of the Commonwealth, was a member of the State Senate during much of the time which Gov. BIGLER served in that body. Of about equal years, and their political opinions harmonizing in every particular, it is not strange that an intimacy of the most confiding character was thus created.—This relation has continued ever since.—Mr. BLACK has the right kind of talents for the station, and his whole energies will be united with the Governor for the promotion of the prosperity of the Commonwealth.

Mr. HUGHES leaves the State Department with a fame that few men have earned in so short a time, and which the greatest might envy. His transfer to the Attorney Generalship will continue to the State the benefit of his wise and patriotic counsel, and afford him more time to attend to his extensive professional duties.

Harrisburg, March 14.—The Hon. F. W. Hughes, Secretary of the Commonwealth, has resigned, and the Governor has to-day commissioned the Hon. Charles A. Black, formerly member of the Senate from Greene county, as Secretary.

It is understood that Mr. Hughes resigned for the purpose of accepting the appointment of Attorney General of the Commonwealth, now vacant.

NEW JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

A bill is now before the Legislature to create a new Judicial district, to be composed of the Counties of Centre, Clinton and Clearfield. So far as we know or have heard, our citizens feel very little concern in its fate. Business connections, strengthened and matured by many years of intercourse, incline us to lean to an eastern rather than a western connection. But as regards our judicial district at present, we think our citizens generally would prefer remaining under the jurisdiction of his Honor Judge Knox, to that of risking the chances of an election for another. Besides this, at the time of the last Judicial apportionment, it was thought by many of our citizens that their cousins in Centre and Clinton manifested a remarkable degree of indifference about the fate of Clearfield; at least the annals of the times fail to show that any tears were shed when it was known that we were sold to the Yankees. Good fortune got us out of that trouble, and we are now perfectly contented. If they are not it is none of our fault.

WINTER! WINTER! AND NO FLOOD.—The flood that was so confidently expected about the time of our last publication, did not come—but cold weather did, and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week gave us a continued blast from the northwest that would do honor to the regions of Hudson's Bay.

Our lumber streams now present a novel appearance. The rafts are generally fitted up and ready to be sent to market as soon as there is sufficient water to carry them. Hundreds of young men from adjoining counties, who have spent their labor in making and preparing this lumber are now anxiously waiting for a rise in the water, whilst many, giving up in dispair, have returned to their homes.

Had we a flood now, there would probably be men enough to man and run pretty nearly all the lumber that is now ready, at once. This will not be the case, however, after a week or so; for many of our citizens will then have resumed operations on their farms, and those of other counties will have left us.

OUR MAILS AND THE P. M. AT SPRUCE CREEK.

We have received the following letter from Spruce Creek—whether written by the P. M., or some one else, we are unable to say—but are willing that he, whoever he may be, shall have every opportunity to "remove" the "evil to which he alludes.

SPRUCE CREEK, March 12, 1853.

Messrs. Editors:—Your article on the neglect of the P. M. of this place, which appeared in your last, has been read—and, considering it highly important that all such charges should be eradicated from the minds of the public, particularly those of editors—therefore, we deem it necessary to remove an evil which has long been prevalent in the county of Clearfield, that of charging the P. M. of Spruce Creek with neglect. You must know that the Post Master at this place is not responsible for any matter after leaving this office, and at all times, and under all circumstances send out two mail bags, one with the matter for Clearfield and Centre county, the other with matter beyond, and if they deviate from the right course, are we responsible? You are not willing by the tone of your article, to make any allowance for the non-arrival of the mails from the east of this place, which occurrence has been quite frequent of late. We are not in reach of Philadelphia and New York, but have to wait until the news arrives, and do hope the good people of Clearfield will do likewise. Yours, &c.

SPRUCE CREEK.

P. S.—There is a mail leaves here every morning for your place.

Now, if the author of the foregoing miserable attempt at wit, will again refer to our remarks, he will find that we did not complain of the conduct of the Post Master at Spruce Creek. We only asked that, in making up the through mail, (i. e. the mail "beyond Clearfield,") he would be careful not to put matter into it directed to this place, as the P. M. here was not allowed time to overhaul the said through mail. This is what we said. We made no complaint. But now we are willing to put our words in the shape of a complaint, or "charge" if you please, and assert that the Post Master at Spruce Creek must be guilty of "neglect," else why is it that eastern papers and letters directed to this place, frequently pass in the through mail in the evening, to Curwensville, and return from that place the next morning?—If the P. M., at Spruce Creek can satisfactorily account for this, without convicting himself of 'neglect' in making up the "mail for Centre and Clearfield counties," we will give it up. Or is he, the said P. M., ignorant of the fact that Curwensville is "beyond" Clearfield?

We are willing to put up with a great deal of inconvenience in this respect—and have done so—without complaining. But to be called to an account by those who cause this inconvenience, for politely requesting an officer to do his duty, is a little more than the bargain calls for.

☞Graham's Magazine, for April, which is already on our table, is a mammoth of its kind—containing 144 pages, filled with the productions of upwards of 30 different authors, and several illustrations. This large amount of valuable reading is furnished twelve times a year, at the low rate of $3—or $5 for two copies.

Important from Honduras.

The schooner Chas. Pearson, arrive at New Orleans, on the 9th inst., from Honduras.

She reports that great excitement prevailed on the Island, in consequence of Her British Majesty's war steamer Devastation, having anchored off Troupillo, and demanded the surrender of the place, in the name of the Mosquito King.

The inhabitants were given two hours time to decide before the commencement of bombardment.

The inhabitants yielded to superior forces but solemnly protested against the outrage.

The Mosquito king flag was hoisted and the Honduras flag pulled down.

The British war steamer then proceeded to Limas, and cannonading was afterwards heard in that quarter. It was presumed that a contest was going on between the steamer and the Honduras troops.

A severe shock of an earthquake was felt at Belize on the 10th of February.

Vice President King Declines the Oath.

Charleston, March 12.—The oath of office was not administered to the Vice President on the 4th instant. Mr. Rodney, our Vice Consul, visited Mr. King, on the 3d for that purpose; but Mr. K. considered the ceremony unnecessary, fearing that he should never be able to reach Washington to assume the duties of the office, and if he should, the oath could be administered at Washington. The friends, however, who accompany him encourage the hope that the salubrity of his present location may yet restore him to health.

Late from Havana—Vice President King Worse.

New Orleans, March 12.—The Crescent City has arrived with later dates from Havana. The latest advices from Matanzas report that Vice President King was getting more feeble, and it was doubtful whether he would be able to leave Matanzas alive.

Santa Anna in Mexico.

New Orleans, March 11.—By an arrival at this port, this morning, we learn that an English steamer was met seven days ago, entering the port of Vera Cruz, with Santa Anna on board.

DINNER AT THE WHITE HOUSE.—The dinner given by the retiring President Fillmore to Gen. Pierce is thus described by a correspondent: President Fillmore was at the head of the table, with Gen. Pierce at his right, and Gen. Scott on his left.—Secretary Everett was seated opposite to Gov. Marcy, and Attorney General Crittenden opposite to Gen. Cushing, with the rest of the old and new cabinet intermixed, together with Gen. Cass, Gen. Jo. Lane, Pierre Soule, and other members of both houses. Young Fillmore and Sidney Webster sat side by side, and such a harmonious spectacle of diverse political elements was never known in the White House before. Gen. Scott and Gov. Marcy were especially fraternizing and agreeable. The hasty plate of soup was forgotten in the sparkling champaigne. It was nice.

SETTLEMENT WITH THE U. S. BANK.—The Governor has signed the bill closing the several trusts of the U. S. Bank, and settling the judgment obtained by the State against the Bank on account of bonus. The Bank, we believe, is to pay the State $150,000. By closing the trusts, the Bank gets rid of a large and useless expense, and, by compromising the judgments laying against it, removes a weight that would forever keep it in the dust. If the Bank has anything after paying its creditors, there is now at least a chance of making it available to stockholders. We understand the Bank has several hundred thousand dollars' worth of property after paying the $150,000 named to the State.

Daily Record.

☞An exchange paper says:—General Pierce delivered his inaugural address, after taking off his overcoat, amid immense cheering, just exactly as if he were delivering an extempore speech. He had no paper or any notes, but delivered the address beautifully and gracefully, without a blemish to the end. It will be remembered that Presidents Taylor, Polk and others, read their addresses from the manuscript. When he came to that part of his address which related to the protection of American citizens abroad, he turned face to face with Mr. Fillmore and the diplomatic corps, and laid down the law with thrilling emphasis, and when he again turned to the mass of the people in front, occupying the vast square below, they shouted with delight, and every man of the fifty thousand in the street declared that Pierce is the man for the times.

☞The Ohio Legislature, on the 12th instant, passed a bill to amend the Tax Law, authorizing county auditors, in cases where banks refuse to pay the taxes levied upon them, to enter said banks, forcibly, and, with crowbars, pickaxes, &c., break open safes, vaults, or other places where the money may be kept, and take the amount of tax claimed. The vote on the final passage of the bill was 20 to 5.

GOLD COINAGE.—The coinage of gold at the United States Mint, from its organization to the close of 1852, is thus given by the New York Journal of Commerce:

At Philadelphia,	$194,871,141, 50
At New Orleans,	33,885,865 00
At Charlotte,	3,450,668 50
At Dahlonega,	4,817,809 50
Total to close of 1852,	$237,025,484 50

During the two months of the current year an additional amount of about $8,500,000 has been coined, which is to be added to the above—making a total in round numbers of $245,000,000.

☞One thousand laboring men are wanted on the line of the Susquehanna Railroad, between Bridgeport (opposite Harrisburg,) and Sunbury in the State of Pennsylvania. This road is fifty-four miles in length, runs through a highly improved country, and will furnish employment for Stone Masons, Carpenters and laborers, for the next twelve months. A large portion of the line is heavy work excavation—laborers that are familiar with work of that kind will find certain employment and liberal wages. Here is a chance.

Interesting from Mexico.

New Orleans, March 9.—We have received Mexican dates to the 21st of February. The Trait d'Union says—"There is little doubt that Santa Anna will be re-elected. A house has been already secured and furnished for him, and a Mexican revenue cutter sailed from Vera Cruz, on the 21st, with a commission to invite his immediate return."

Rumored Appointments.

Washington, March 13.—It was rumored to-day, that a number of appointments have been definitely fixed. It is believed that Hon. A. W. Buel, of Michigan, will certainly be appointed Minister to Berlin, and Mr. Dean, of Michigan, Assistant Postmaster General. H. H. Heath, will probably be appointed Secretary of the new Territory of Washington.

More Indian Troubles.

St. Louis, March 12.—We have advices from Little Rock, which state that the Camanches had of late become very troublesome, committing many acts of violence. They were making preparations to attack Fort Arbuckle.

MARRIED.—On the 15th inst., by the Rev. J. R. Morris, Mr. David S. Platner of New Washington, to Miss Jane Cross, of Curwensville, Clearfield county.

DIED—In Bradford township, on the 10th inst., Lovinah, wife of Joseph Winnery, aged 32 years.

L. R. CARTER,

AGENT for the sale of STOVES, MILL-GEARING and CASTINGS of all kinds. Also, BAR IRON & NAILS, Threshing Machines, Plows, Agricultural Implements &c. on Second street, under the Printing Office. mh.17'53.
