4TH OF JULY TOASTS.—We give the following from the Democratic Toasts on the 4th inst. that have come under our notice:

PERRY COUNTY.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE U. STATES.—FRANKLIN PIERCE.—His Past has been honorable and successful, his Present is fast realizing all that the fondest anticipation could look for, whilst his Future looks bright and glorious from the reflection of the ennobling qualities which adorn his nature.

GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA.—William Bigler—Tried, true and triumphant. His administration, like that of Snyder and Shunk, has won the admiring confidence of his friends and silenced the calumnious batteries of his enemies. The 'Raftsman' carries valuable 'lumber' but the 'river is up' and the 'oar' is already pulled that will send him safely through that political 'shute'—the Ballot Box.

THE SUPREME BENCH OF PENNSYLVANIA—An irresistable argument in favor of an elective Judiciary. Every shade of a perfect legal mind has there its representative. Just enough of 'Old Fogyism' to make it safe, and still imbued with enough of 'Young America' to keep up with the spirit of the age, and prevent a man from spending a 'lifetime in Chancery.'

PHILADELPHIA.

HON. GEORGE M. DALLAS—Pennsylvania's chosen and fearless son. The nation's choicest laurels await him.

HON. JAMES CAMPBELL—Selected by the President to preside over the Post-office department—may he redeem it from the disgrace that attached to it during the Galphin Administration.

HON. JAMES BUCHANAN: As a distinguished statesman and son of Pennsylvania, we take pleasure in bearing testimony to his virtues, talents and integrity. For his long patriotic services at home, his countrymen will confide in him abroad.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY.

Gov. BIGLER: in due time Old Westmoreland will fully reward his honesty of purpose and proclaim their admiration for the man and approbation of his acts.

HON. J. C. KNOX, young in years, but old in wisdom. The democracy of Old Pennsylvania will fully appreciate his virtues and worth.

Independence—Progress.

The Albany Knickerbocker, of the 4th, indulges in a most pithy review of the past and the present of the Union. It says:—

"It is seventy-seven years since Uncle Sam was born, and what an eventful seventy-seven years they have been. Seventy-seven years ago the United States were a remote circumstance—they now compose the second commercial Nation in the world. In three quarters of a century we have revolutionized the world, built up an Empire, licked our mother, and fenced in a Continent. In less time than it took Methuselah to get out of swaddling clothes, we have made more canals, tamed more lighting, and harnessed more steam, and at a greater cost in money, than the whole world could have paid for the day he got out of his time. In seventy-five years we have not only changed the politics of the earth, but its wearing apparel—cotton shirts being as much the offspring of the United States as ballot boxes and Democracy. Since the fourth of July, 1776, the whole world has been to school, and, what is better, has learned more common sense than was taught in the previous four thousand years. The problem of self-government has been solved, and its truth as immortal as Washington or yellow corn. Its adaptation to all the great wants of the most aspiring Nation, has been made most signally manifest. Under its harmonious working, a Republic has grown up in an ordinary lifetime that would have taken any other system of government a thousand years to have brought about. Yes, in less time than it takes some green-house plants to arrive at maturity, we have built a nation that has spread itself from Maine to Mexico, from the Atlantic to the Pacific—a Nation that has caught more whales, licked more Mexicans, planted more telegraph posts, and owns more steamboats, than any Nation that ever lived or ever will live. For all of which, we again say, thank God and praise Thomas Jefferson."

FRIGHTNUL ACCIDENT AT NIAGARA FALLS.—We learn from Buffalo, that on Monday evening, three men, belonging to a scow which came down the river to near the Niagara Falls, got into a skiff alongside, and it is supposed fell asleep, when the boat got seperated from the scow, and was hurried on by the current with fearful rapidity towards the falls. Two of the men one named Andrew Hannaman, the other a stranger, were hurled at once over the foaming sheet; the third, Joseph Able, caught hold of a stump in his fearful passage and clung to it until morning, when he was discovered; and Parties on the shore succeeded in floating a box of refreshments to the poor fellow: Subsequently a life boat was sent on from Buffalo, but, sad to say, proved to light, swamped immediately after it was launched, and was lost over the Rapids.

The situation of the unfortunate man thus grew more and more critical, and he finally gave way and went over the Falls at 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening after clinging to his feeble support all day. A raft had been floated him which he was on, when they floated another life-boat to him, and as he was getting ready to jump into it, the boat struck the raft and swept him off into the rapids. He attempted to swim for a small island but failed to reach it. He raised himself up to his full height, gave a shriek, waved his arms wildly, and disappeared.—Nat. Argus.

☞In Somersetshire, England, a boy under 10 years old, has been committed for wilful murder, by pushing another boy into a river.

MARRIED—On the 7th inst., by Wm. M. Bloom, Esq., Mr. Denton Bedman, of Bradford county, Pa., to Miss Louisa Jane McKee, of Jordan township, this county.

On the 14th, by the same, in Ferguson township, Mr. Amos Tubbs, to Miss Margaret Jane Wiley—all of this county.

In Morris township, on the 19th inst., by Samuel C. Thompson, Esq., Mr. Samuel Cramer, to Miss Elizabeth Golman—all of that township.
