THEBEPUBLEGAS ninied weakly, at Classfield, Pa., by D. W. MUURE

S COPE ONE TEAR. IN ADVANCE. NOT PAID WITHIN THREE MONTH. NOT PAID WITHIN BIX MUNTHS; NOT PAID WITHIN MINE MONTHS. NOT PAID WITHIN TWELVE MONTHS. and the abay atterning alway fiberal asthere of any other ontinuance will beallowed untildlarrearagethar

DUTT-AND LIABILITY OF POSTMARTERS. nastars neglecting to notify the onblisher, asdirects of the fact that papers are not lifted by those to who irestel, are themieves and themselves. brto others. paperis now ourried by malithroughout the county

Volume 4.

by George Sackett.

MR: PRESIDENT:-Ladies and Gentles public speaker. I have been called up. every page of their history is filled with the drunkards grave. Where the thous- quiet-like pedestrain came along and en- small expectancy. But it is the drunkards grave. Where the thous- quiet-like pedestrain came along and en- small expectancy. But it is the country caused by intem-directly in ten years 120,000,000 dollars; ands of distilleries and breweries still at quired the distance to the next town. He why the man would have to put up with directly in ten years 120,000,000 dollars; ands of distilleries and breweries still at quired the distance to the next town. He poorer accommodations. Betunce; have aroused the friends of tem-has burnt or otherwise destroyed 5,000,- work day and night in the land, placed in was told it was three miles. Being very poorer accommodations. When Mr. W. returned to the kitchen, rises how will it be done ? Some people tell us, that the only true 000 orphan children. inciple to reform man, is moral suasion. They tell us that we may persuade men -but we cannot force them into any meas-

It is true that some can be reformed by moral suasion; but there are others who have become so habituated to strong drink that they will turn a deaf ear to all the warnings and entreaties of their friends. frunkards; we see them daily in our streets; the hear them carousing nightly. If these then, can be reformed by some other mode why not adopt it ?

We believe that there are, in the commonwealth, a large majority who are in question could be divested of every other temperance again increase for the fifty party consideration. There are hundreds years to come, in only the same ratio that of men, who drink, and who will drink, it did for twenty years previous to the as long as they can get it, and who would commencement of general reform-about not sign a temperance pledge; who would be in favor of, and vote for a prohibitory go-which they have not the nerve to withetand.

We are told again, that we are not ready and that it is useless to make an effort.-- in the hands of politicians. Men, oven now, But we are just as near ready now as evwe will be, and it is just as easy to make drinks of liquor.

and second - 309 Leves leve-Republican. Elearfield

A WEEKLY PAPER : DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, MORALITY, AND FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

Clearfield, Pa., Oct. 27, 1853.

intemperance never fails to produce .---- uor vender? Is he not to blame for "holdund with it is not the provide the second state of the second stat Delivered before the Clearfield Washing. Greece became intemperate, and with it ng the bowl to his neighbors lips." With Roman history presents nearly the tel and little, they twine the corroding presiding elder, Mr. N., was expected in fell a pray to the Romans.

same facts. It is useless to go into detail. cords of the rum fiends, fast round the the district; and the ministers all stopped look like him?" ma: ransideat. - I appear before you to night, in a We might cite instances enough to fill a hearts of their unsuspecting victims; and with brother W., and his wife; every pronear solution with brother W., and his wile; every pre-we might cue instances enough to hit a near sol their unsuspecting victims; and with brother W., and his wile; every pre-bacity in which I have never appeared volume. From the greatest empire, down they are fast in the fetters that bind them paration was made to give him a cordial farmer smilling, "I am unable to speak as fore. You are all well aware, that I am to the smallest Indian village of America-- in the iron bonds of intemperance.

The daily, caused by the traine in a ruch of extensive information—from a compu-generation, to generation coming on; in the while Mr. W. was out at the woodpile, ter's room if that individual du not arrive, which are continually being enacted coholic beverages costs the United States the drunkards grave. Where the thous-which the country, caused by intem-berance; have aroused the ments of terms has burnt or otherwise destroyed b,000, work day and night in the land, placed in was told it was the or mines. Define to specify the burnt or otherwise destroyed b,000, work day and night in the land, placed in was told it was the or mines. Define to specify to specify the burnt or otherwise destroyed b,000, work day and night in the land, placed in was told it was the or mines. Define to specify to specify the burnt or otherwise destroyed b,000, one city or county, they would blacken all cold he asked permission to enter and when Mr. W. returned to the kitchen, one city or county, they would blacken all cold he asked permission to enter and where the stranger had scated himself beinty, in endeavoring to devise some means and 100,000 lives; sent 200,000 to prison, the surrounding heavens with their smoke. warm himself. Assent was given very where the stranger had bedden that they interesting to devise some means and 100,000 children to the poor-house--- And could all the oaths, obscenities, and grudgingly, and both went into the kitch- bad decided to let him star all night. The check its progress. Now the question caused 1,500 murders and 5,000 suicides blasphemics they occasion every hour, be en. The wife looked daggers at his un-had decided to let him stay all night. The blasphemics they occasion every hour, be en. and has bequenthed to the country 1,000,- uttered in one voice, it would be more ter. timely intrusion, for the stranger had on man expressed in a few words a grateful

In conclusion. Let every man who sets bare but neatly patched coat. At length silent and thoughtful. rific than "seven thunders." more or less, under the influence of liquor his face and influence, against the passage she gave him a chair beside the Dutch Soon after, the farmer's wife, giving peet at their hands. Thomas Jefferson, feeling of sympathy and benevolence- day at the church a mile or two beyond, After all was on the table, a short conferbe to me than any other circumstance sight and tears of widows and orphans;— roused by the viands about the fire, he and bacon as he could gat, but then, as he were inside, and a goodly number outside, moral suasion has been they to many ble to me than any other circumstance sighs and tears of widows and orphans; -- roused by the viands about the fire, he and bacon as ne could car, out then, as no were inside, and a goody number for the stands about the fire, he and bacon as ne could car, out then, as no were inside, and a goody number for the stands about the fire, he and bacon as ne could car, out then, as no were inside, and a goody number for the stands about the fire, he and bacon as ne could car, out then, as no were inside, and a goody number for the stands about the fire, he and bacon as ne could car, out then and but the minister had not arrived. Stands about the fire, he and bacon as ne could car, out then has occured to me during my ad- that he is fighting against the prayers of asked for some little refreshments before is heavitable to sit down at the table and "Where is Me----?" inquired are settlem delive of asked for some little refreshments before inheavitable to sit down at the table and "Where is Me----?" inquired in the elective franchise with the most vir- own conscience.

tuous citizen. Nor must it be forgotton And what is he fighting for ? Ho is fighting for the continuance that should the reform now cease, and inhimself or friends: and ho is fighting to part, as it was three long miles to town.-ards. But should intemperance increase dare under the blood stained banner of king Alcohol; let him fight in the drunkin that ratio for eighty years, a large maof their reach a temptation that meets them jointy of our voters would be dromands, en host against justice and humanity, lett as it he could order to a tevery turn and corner, wherever they hundred millions. Who then could turn and posterity will brand him with without any further ado. jority of our voters would be drunkards, en host against justice and humanity, back the burning tide; or who could gov- infamous. ern the maddning multitudes. Even now the brandy bottle is a strong instrument The Cattaraugus Whig publishes a statement of a during bighway robbery, committed Sunday night, 25th ult., four miles from Springville, on the main travel-we must not refuse, nor grant his request BLEVENTIL COMMANDMENT. T. S. ARTHUR tells a good story about in a complaining or reluctant spirit. You of the Suling, and the Integrity

IIIGHWAY BOBBERY.

"Having never seen an angel," said the

a year, been found drunk in the land, as- parade, and therefore the parlor was put ing smile to the face of Mrs. W., and a to spiritual things, and he did so most ear-

LITER FOUL EDDE ALTEL

Number 42.

.hornlosb tor lon milcowbide boots, an old hat, and a thread- sense of their kindness, and then became he thanked the farmer and his wife for their

-many have been seen drunk in the of a prohibitory liquor law, consider that oven, in which was baking nice cakes for up all hope of Mr. N.'s arrival, had sup-hospitality, and departed, went on his jour--many have been seen drunk in the of a prohibitory liquor law, consider that oven, in which was baking nice cakes for op an nope of an extended of coffee, ney. halls of legislation. If our law-givers are he is fighting against every thing that is the presiding elder, who was momentarily per taken up, which consisted of coffee, ney. Ten o'clock came, But Mr. N. had not drunkards what kind of laws can we ex- good; that he is fighting against every expected, as he was to preach the next warm short cake and broiled chicken.-arrived. So Mr. and Mrs. W. started for has said : "the habit of using ardent spirits every feeling of sympathy and benevolence— day at the church a mile or two beyond. After all was on the lable, a short conter-arrived. So Mr. and Mrs. W. started for the meeting house not doubling that they by men in office has occasioned more in- he is fighting against the best interests of prepared to leave, but the weather became invite the stranger to take supper. It was would find him there. But they were disby men in onice has occasioned more including he is fighting against the best interests of prepared to leave, but the weather became invite the stranger to take support. It was would find find there is but they were used in the public service, and more trout the nation; that he is fighting against the more inclement and, as his appeite was true they had given him as much bread appointed. A goodly number outside to be then approximate the stranger to take support. It was would find the first the public service, and more trout the nation; that he is fighting against the more inclement and, as his appeite was true they had given him as much be and because incide and a coordin number outside the stranger to take support.

distressed and impoverished families; that he sat out on a cold walk to the town be- inhospitable to sit down at the table and "Where is Mr----?" inquired a dozea It must not be forgotton that in this he is fighting against the christian religion, yond. Mrs. W. was displeased, but on not to ask him to join them. So making voices, as a little crowd gathered around to must not be forgetten that in this he is against the christian religion, yond. Mrs. W. was displeased, but on not to ask him to join them. So making voices, as a focus of the farmer. country every drunkard has equal power and certainly against the dictates of his consultation with her husband some cold a virtue of necessity, he was kindly asked the farmer. bacon and bread were set upon the table, to come to supper-an invitation he did "He hasn't come yet. Something has bacon and bread were sot upon the table, to come to supper-an invitation include "rie nash't come yet. Something has and he was then somewhat gruffly told to not decline. Grace was said over the detained him. But I will look for him ent. It was growing dark, and hints were meal by Mr. W., the coffee poured out, indeed I expected to find him here."

thrown out that the stranger had better de- the bread helped, and the meal served. There was a fine little boy, six years becoming thoroughly chilled, concluded to The wife grew petulent, as the new preach- old, at the table, who had been brightened go in and keep a lookout for the minister er did not arrive, and her husband sat up, and dressed in his best in order to from the window near which he usually one-third of our voters would be drunk-the staggering crowd-let him list if ho whistling the air of "Auld Lang Syne," grace the minister's reception. Charles sat. Others from the same cause, follow-ards But should intemperance increase while he thought of the words of the hymn was full of talk, and the parents felt a ed his example, and the little meeting ----When I can read my title clear," and mutual pride in showing him off, even be- house was soon filled, as one after another felt as if he could order the stranger off fore their humble guest, who noticed him came dropping in. The farmer, who turn. particularly, though he had not much to ed towards the door each time it was ope, The homely meal was at last conclud-ed—the man thanked them kindly for the "Come Charley," said Mr. W., after of the previous night enter, and come slow.

hospitality ho had received, and opened the meal was over and he sat leaning back ly down the aisle, looking from side to side, the door to go. But it was quite dark, in his chair, "can't you repeat that pritty as if searching for a vacant seat very few, and the clouds denoting a storm filled the hymn mamma learned you last Sunday." of which were now left. Still advancing he Churley started off without further in- finally got within the little enclosed alter, "You say that it is full three miles to vitation, and repeated very accurately two and ascending to the pulpit, took off his heavens.

or three verses of a new camp-meeting old gray coat and sat down. "I do," said W. coldly; I said so when hymn, that was just then very popular.

By this time Mr. W. was at his side and had his hand upon his arm.

OP EVERY DESURIPTION. PRINTED IN THE VERT BEST BTYLE, AND ON THE SHORTEST. NOTICE, AT THE OFFICE OF THE "CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN." with divine indignation. At its close he modestly asked if he might not have the Books, Jobs and Blanks.

Prices of Advartising.

square, linsertion,

d months, d months, 12 months, 8 months,

6 months

alaoha Lagaa do do do do do do,

"Angels! did you ever see an angel granted with more pleasure than any of the preceding ones.

Shortly after supper the man was conducted to the little square room accompanied a by the Bible. Before leaving him alone

This had the effect to bring an answer- Mr. W. felt it to be his duty to exhort him to address this society; and in chiefer a few disconnected re-of the nation is seriously affected by the traffic in liquors. Mr. Everett late Secre-manded. And yet unless patriot hearts for a disconnect for the will offer a few disconnected re-traffic in liquors. Mr. Everett late Secre-manded. And yet unless patriot hearts for a disconnect for the will offer a few disconnected re-traffic in liquors. Mr. Everett late Secre-manded. And yet unless patriot hearts for a disconnect for the will offer a few disconnected re-traffic in liquors. Mr. Everett late Secre-manded. And yet unless patriot hearts for a disconnect for the will offer a few disconnected re-traffic in liquors. Mr. Everett late Secre-manded. And yet unless patriot hearts for a disconnect for the will offer a few disconnected to be the main and the finally left his secred like a decent kind of a person, should be permitted to occupy the minis-guest lamenting his obduracy and igno-

In the morning he came down, and meeting Mr. W., asked him if he would be so kind as to lend him a razor, that he might romove his beard, which did not give his! face a very attractive aspect. His request"

"We will have breakfast in about ten minutes." said Mr. W., as he handed him the razor and shaving box.

was granted.

pricty at family worship. After breakfast on this.

nations, and it may have the same effect the gutter unable to rise? If this be free- by stuffing his mouth full of paper, bound History furnishes us abundant proof, ing with the fights of men who have made the roadside, and robbed him of all the that intemperance has been one of the it their business to manufacture, and soll money he had about him, amountprincipal causes of every national calami- liquor; men who have invested their capi- ing to something over $380, in Bank bills iv. Go back, if you please, to the Assy- tal in the traffic; and they should be pro- and silver. This done, the robbers detian Empire, and trace its history, you tected by law. Now if one man has a camped, leaving him bound hand and foot, will find that in its rise and progress, it right to sell liquors, all have a right to do and unable to make any noise whatever was strictly temperate and so long as it the same. But the licence system grants By wetting and compressing the paper in exercised its sovereigning over the whole others, meteore it is wrong. The gov-known earth; when this was accomplish. ornment has no right to licence an evil, or his neighbors, who was passing about two sid the Assyrians thought that they had to take under its protection a business, the hours afterwards, by whom he was releasnothing else to do. They began to say to certain effect of which is misery, murder, ed from his unpleasant situation. Suspicthemselves, like the rich man-thou hast and crime of every kind. The govern- ion fell upon two men named Shultze and goods laid up in store for many years- ment has no right to protect men in a bus- Barnett, of Springville, as the probable as the perpetrators, who, singularly enough, hearthe people became drunkards; they lost degredation and ruin of both body and ing that they were suspected caused Bosttheir accustomed vigilance; and were too soul of thousands. It has no right to send wick to be arrested, and made onth that deeply engaged in the wine cup to attend forth a host of licensed butcherers; to rob he hired them to rob him. So improbto the affairs of the nation, when amid the men of their money, to degrade them in able a statement confirms suspicion against ro me anarra of the indiana and the indiana of the eyes of the world, to destroy their them. The matter was to be brought beman's hand was seen, writing their fate character, to rob their families of susten- fore the Grand Jury at El conville. upon the wall, and in the same hour ance, and finally to lay them in a drunk-

We are told again

Eyrus entered Babylon, slew their king, ards untimely grave. and took the Empire.

This legalized sale of intoxicating drinks opens up every avenue to vice, misery,

The history of the Medes, Persian Empire, presents the same facts. The laws and crime. It stirs up every evil passion wine; and its use was entirely prohibited, prompts him to lie; to steal, to rab, and to raised 8800,000 for the building of the look like a strong man, and it's dark and recorded, of Persia put great restrictions on the use of that abides within the breast of man. It quest of Babylon wraught a pernicious blaspheme the name of the God who hange in the habits of this brave people; created him. Pass by the rum shop, you and two hundred years after that event, will see him carousing there; his coat in they were the most drunken, and corrupt tattors, his hat without a crown; his hair nation on the face of the earth. Intemper- disheveled, his face bloated-bearing therence stirred up internal disorders, disqual- on the mark of the beast, written in charfied the people for soldiers, caused their actors so legible that it is impossible to nea me people for soldiers, caused their acters so tegiole mat it is impossible to inga to undertake unwise caterprises, read them wrong. His bloodshot eyes, and finally was the cause of their becom-his factid breath, his blunted preceptions, his state jokes and unmeaning tales, his when Greece was ascending in the scale driveling mirth and bacchanalian songof nations, she had strict prohibotary laws all standing forth as sign boards on the on the use of wine. They did not even way that leads to hell. Then he will stagderate such a thing as a grog shop among ger home to his miserable hovel, and beat nem. They used to make their helots and curse the wile whom he has sworn to renates depasing ellects, and to warn them ren shrink from his presence as from a ger our suge b_____, in reprimationing a occusioned per is test, and the commandments. Husn't one been ad entitled to receive on the bread pride pride pride bind of so unwelcome a visiter, completely un- ven commandments. Husn't one been ad entitled to receive on the bread pride pride pride bind of so unwelcome a visiter, completely un- ded comparison of the bread of the bread pride pride prime allow. The prisoner replied wisiter binged her mind.

and there is at this time considerable such a law would be infringing on the ed road from that place to Ashford. The excitement on the subject, hence we liberties of the people. In answer to this, subject Mr. George Bostwick, of Ashford, should "strike while the iron is hot."- we believe that it would put down a mon- a drover, started in the evening to walk Every man who has the good of his fellow ster that holds its victims in the most ab- from Springville to Ashford, and after man at heart-every man who has a feel, ject slavery:-they are slaves to a depray. proceeding about four miles on his way, ing of benevolence in his breast, and every ed appetite, the cravings of which they was overtaken by two men with a horse man who loves his country, and desire to cannot conquer. Is a man free, when in and buggy. One of them, after some little man who loves his country, and desire to cannot conquer. Is a than nee, when in and buggy. One of them, after some fitted spite of every effort he cannot walk straight? conversation, got out of the buggy, re-see it prosper—should make an effort.— spite of every effort he cannot walk straight? conversation, got out of the buggy, re-who can tell the fearful effect, that is a man free when he does not know marking that he was chilly, and would drunkenness may yet have on our nation ; where his home is and if he does he has walk with him. He almost immediately it may yet be the means of destroying this not the power to go there ? Is he free when seized Bostwick, and threw him upon the great republic. It has been in a great he will talk to a swine, mistaking it for a ground, and by the help of his companion, measure, the means of overthrowing other friend ? Is he free when he is powerless in who came to his assistance, gagged him dom, what is slavery ? But it is interfer- him hand and foot, tied him to a tree by remained so, it grew and spread until it this privilege to some, and denies it to his mouth, he succeeded in making noise exercised its sovereignty over the whole others: therefore it is wrong. The gov- sufficient to arrest the attention of one of ifying effect of Railroads upon its growth, and business. Of Louisville the Journal says, in 1848 she had not a single rail-subscribed $200,000' to the Jefferson and Columbus company, $100,000 to the has proposed to subscribe $1,000,000 to the Louisville and Frankfort company to and it's no use to think of it. He'll have der. enable them to build a branch road to to stay somehow." Knoxville. The value of the property in Louisville in 1848, when she entered upon a little over $14,000,000; now after five bad about him. We might make him a years only, it is a little less than $30,000. bed on the floor somewherein the house." 000, and the city was nover increasing more rapidly in population and never exhibited more evidences of general prosper-you first stopped, and you ought to have "Now let us hear you say pushed on like a prudent man. You could pleased at the child's performance. have reached there before it was quite dark."

> THE EFFECT OF RAILROADS IN KEN-TUCKY .- This State begins to feel the viv-

D---

"But I was cold and hungry, and might aid of a little prompting. "How many commandments are there?" have fainted by the way." asked the father.

The manner of saying this touched the The child hesitated, and then looking up farmer's feelings a little. at the stranger, near whom he sat, said in-"You have warmed me, and fed me, for which I am thankful. Will you now benocently-"How many are there ?" stow another act of kindness upon one in a strange place, and, if he goes out in the The man thought for some moments, darknoss, may loose himself and perish in and said as if in doubt-"Eleven, are there not?"

the cold," The peculiar form in which the request was made, and the tone in which it was eigned surprise. uttered, put it out of the power of the farrebuke than astonishment in his voice.---mer to say no.

"Go in there and sit down," he answer ed, pointing to the kitchen, "and I will see what she says."

you know how many there are of course." And Mr. W. went into the parlor where the supper table stood, covered with a "Ten." replied the child. "Right my son," returned Mr. W. The tall mould candles were burning thereon, and on the hearth blazed a cheerread the bible, sir ?" ful fire.

"Hasn't that old fellow gone yet ?" asked Mrs. W. She heard his voice as he returned from the door. ken about there being only ten? "No, and what do you suppose? wants us to let him stay all night." ed astonishment, and exclaimed---"Indeed !---We can't have the like of him in the house now. Where could he rance of the Bible !" sleep?" "Not in the best room, even if Mr. N.

should not come."

road running into her. Since then she has can turn him out of doors. He doesn't the portion in which the commandments are loud that she wondered whether the sound on the proof of the stranger's error, "There, while he had daylight, and not lingored look for yourself." The stranger came round from the side Louisville and Nushville company, and here as he did till it got dark." "We can't turn him out of doors, Jane, of the table and looked over Mr. W.'s shoul-"There, d'ye see !"

"But what can we do with him?" "He seems like a decent man, at least, the grand scheme of railroad building, was and does not look as if he had; anything

> " I wish he had been in Guinea before be came here," said Mrs. W. (retfully.

The disappointment arising from the you believe the Bible?" 02-Judge B-----, in reprimanding a occasioned her to feel, and the intrusion strikes me somehow, that theremust be eles kindness to the stranger as he had the

I'm sure I always thought so."

with marked impatience is his voice.

the com-"You musn't sit here. Come down and mandments," spoke up the mother, well I will show you a seat," said he, in a much excited tone. And Charley repeated them with the

"Thank you," replied the man in a composed voice. "It is very comfortable here." And the man remained immoves: ble.

Mr. W. embarrassed, went down intend. ing to get a brother "official" to assist him in making a forcible ejection of the man from the place he was desecrating. Im. mediately upon his doing so, however the man rose, and standing up at the desk, opened the hymn book. His voice thrill: "Eleven!" ejaculated Mrs. W,, in uned to the finger ends of brother W. as in a distinct and audible voice he gave out the "Eleven!" said the husband, with more hvmn.

The congregation arose after the stran. 'Is it possible that you do not know how many commandments there are? How ger had read the entire hymn, and had remany are there, Charley? Come, tell me peated the first two lines for them to sing. Brother W. usually started the tunes. He tried this time, but went off on a long me. tre tune. Discovering his mistake at the looking at him with a smile of approval.--- second word, he balked and tried it again, "Right. There isn't a child of his age but now he stumbled on a short metra. within ten miles who cannot tell how many A musical brother here come to his aid, commandments there arc. Did you ever and led off with the tune that suited the measure in which the hymn was written. After singing, the congregation kneeled "When I was little, I used to read it sometimes. But I thought there were elev. and the minister for no one doubted his en commandments. Are you not mista- real character-addressed the throng of Grace with much fervor and eloquence. The reading of a chapter in the Bible suc-Sister W. lifted up her hands in unfeignceeded. Then there was a deep pause "Could any one believe it ? Such igno- throughout the room, in anticipation of the text, which the preacher prepared to an-Mr. W. did not reply, but rose, and gonounce. Brother W., looked pals, and his hands ing in one corner of the ronm, where the good book lay upon a small stand, he put it and knees trembled. Sister W's face was "But, really, I don't see Jane, how we on the table before him, and opened it at like crimson, and her heart was bebting so

"There," he said, placing his finger up. to her. There was a breathless silence. The dropping of a pin might almost have been heard. Then the fine emphatic tones of the preacher filled the crowded room?

"And a new commandment I give unto you that you love one another." Brother W. had leaned forward to lis.

ten but now he sunk back in his seat. This "Yes, it does say ten;" replied the man was the Eleventh Commandment. and "and yet it seems to me there are eleven, The sermon was deep, searching, yet affecting and impressive. The preacher "Docsu't it sny ten ?" inquired Mr. W., uttored nothing that could in the least wound the brother and the sister of whose "Well, what more do you want I Can't hospitalities he had partaken, but said much that smote their hearts and made litem

O, yes, I believe the Bible; and yet, it conscious that they had not shown as much