

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.

The Governor has appointed Gen. William F. Packer, and Judge James L. Gillis, Receivers to take possession of and superintend the works of the late Franklin Canal Company.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—The State Temperance Convention, which assembled at Harrisburg, on the 24th of January, was well attended, and went the whole figure for total abstinence. Whether the plan they submitted for the consideration of the Legislature will succeed or not, remains to be seen. If it should fail, they threaten the formation of a State Temperance ticket. As we did not get a sight of the proceedings until our paper was nearly ready for the press, we are obliged to defer any further notice of them for the present.—Dem. Union

MARRIED.—On Tuesday, the 31st of Jan. by M. Nichols, Jr., Esq., Mr. Leonard Ogden, to Miss Maria S. Holly, all of Lawrence tp., Clearfield co.

By Rev. J. R. Morris, on Thursday, the 2d inst. Mr. John Blair, formerly of Lewisburg, Union co., to Miss T. Jane Stone, of Stoneville, Clearfield co.
