

AMERICANS GIVE BAR.
THERE will be a Mass Meeting of the true-hearted Americans held at the Court House in Clearfield, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 22. Gen. P. Sken Smith will positively be here to address the meeting—and all are cordially invited to attend. Although they may not subscribe to the principles, yet they will doubtless be interested in the addresses.

Any person is privileged to ask the General any questions relative to the subject while on the stand, and such questions will not be considered as an interruption. Delegates will also be chosen at this meeting to represent our county in the state convention to be held at Harrisburg on the 1st of March.

By order of the Committee.
A. M. HILLS, Chairman.
Feb. 15, 1854.
