

FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM BIGLER. FOR SUPREME JUDGE, JEREMIAH S. BLACK. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, HENRY S. MOTT.

NEW POST OFFICE.

A new Post Office has been established at "Jefferson Line," and so named, situated midway between Luthersburg, Clearfield county, and Prospect Hill, Jefferson county, and J. W. Dunlap appointed Post Master.

This office will accommodate a large number of citizens who have heretofore labored under great inconvenience in consequence of the great distance to a Post Office.

We have read with much satisfaction, the recent lecture of N. W. Goodrich, Esq., before the Southport, McKean county Lyceum, in favor of the bill now before Congress for the organization of Nebraska and Kansas territories.

We see by the Washington Evening Star, that in the Supreme Court on the 8th instant, on motion of the Hon. Caleb Cushing, Attorney General, Hon. George R. Barrett, of Pennsylvania was admitted to practice as an Attorney in the Supreme Court of the United States, at the city of Washington, District of Columbia.

The whole of Tuesday and Wednesday of the present term of Court was taken up with the trial of William Morgan and John M'Guoy, who were charged with having participated in the murder of Richard Conklin, on the night of the 11th of October last.

The case was conducted on the part of the Commonwealth, by Crans, Gordon and Linn, and Wallace, Barrett, Curtis, McEally and Cuttle for the defence.

In our next we will give a more full account of this trial together with all other proceedings.

DOINGS AT WASHINGTON.

The attention of our readers is invited to the letter in another column, from Washington, in relation to the exciting scenes in Congress on the Nebraska question.—Truly this is a fearful state of affairs.—What are we coming to? such legislation may be in accordance with parliamentary rules, but we sincerely doubt its utility in a republican government.

The integrity of our good old Keystone State is well sustained in this trial—and we are glad of it. But for the honor of the "glorious northwestern" we regret to see four out of her five representatives democratic representatives, Curtis, Drum, Gamble and Grow, recording their votes along with that arch-agitator and standard bearer of the black flag of abolitionism, Joshua R. Giddings, of Ohio.

The Erie Rotter.—In the U. States Court, yesterday, Judge Irwin presiding, Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Killpatrick, Sheridan, and Lowry were discharged, on paying the costs of prosecution. It will be remembered that those gentlemen were out on bail for contempt of Court, in disobeying the injunction laid on the Erie Railroad at Harbor Creek.—Pittsburgh Union, 10th.

No Licenses in Crawford.—The Court of Quarter Sessions of Crawford, lately announced that it would not grant any tavern license for the present, but would try the experiment for one year, whether "public houses" cannot get along just as well, without disposing of spirituous liquors.

Monument to Prof. Butler.—The Louisville Courier states that the various committees appointed to canvass the city and solicit subscriptions for a monument to the memory of Prof. Butler, and the assistance of his widow and child, are meeting with great success. There is a universal disputation among the citizens to contribute to this laudable object.

Fanny Fern makes some powerful home truths now and then. In speaking of clergymen who turn the pulpit into a political forum, she says: "They will now tell you and the Almighty in their prayers, all the political news of the week!"

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

May 12, 1854. The proceedings in the National House of Representatives for the past week, have been of the most extraordinary character—a character entirely unheard of in the history of the government.

A dreadful catastrophe had occurred in the English channel at 2 o'clock on the morning of the 28th of April. The American bark Hesper, Captain Jones, Charleston, S. C. for Antwerp, came in collision with the Bremen bark Favorite, Captain Hogeman, from Bremen for Baltimore, with 180 passengers.

At day break nothing was seen of the bark, which no doubt, sunk immediately with all on board. The collision occurred in a portion of the English fleet has actually bombarded Odessa.

It may be remembered that on the 6th ult. the British steamer Furious was sent by a flag of truce to Odessa to bring off the British ex-Consul and some seventy British subjects.

On the morning of the 23d, nine steamers of the allied fleet took up a position before the forts that command the entrance to the harbor, and immediately commenced to throw bombs and rockets upon the forts and the city.

The Russian Telegraphic despatch says: "The English and French Admirals demanded the surrender of the Russian ships in the port of Odessa."

An attempt to land 1,800 men failed. The bombardment produced no effect! "This being refused a bombardment began from eighteen ships. A small part of the city was destroyed."

The Baltic Fleet.—The British fleet had been further reinforced, and was awaiting the arrival of the French squadron. Until the latter arrives, a British force will cruise off Finland and Bothnia.

On the 21st, nineteen ships were anchored before Stockholm. Admiral Napier arrived on the 24th, and on the 25th had an audience with King Oscar.

ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

The U. S. Mail Steamer Atlantic which left Liverpool on the 3d instant, arrived at New York on the 15th. She brings advices from all parts of Europe three days later than the news of the Canada.
