To attempt to enumerate or describe my lot of entire new goods, which I offer to the public would be altogether too laborious an undertaking for me at the present time. I would merely say, that in the line of Ladies Dress Goods, I defy competition either in price, quality, or beauty of style...

Some beautiful sets of Iron Stone Ware, and a nice selection of Queensware of all kinds; also, fancy articles in no small quantity. The above mentioned stock of goods will be offered for sale at lower prices than the same quality and styles of goods have ever been offered in this place, as a proof of this, I only ask a comparison of prices and quality with any other goods in town.

AFFLICTED READ! PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE—Established 20 years ago by Dr. KINKELIN, corner of Third and Pine, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, Pa. INVALIDS are advised that DR. KINKELIN continues his practice to a particular branch of medicine, which engages his undivided attention. He cautions the unfortunate who are afflicted with Mercury; thousands are annually mercantiled out of life. Recent afflictions are promptly extinguished. TWENTY YEARS OF EXPERIENCE in the treatment of a class of cases, are a sure and perfectly understood, has enabled DR. KINKELIN, (Author of a work of Self-Prevention), to prove that nine-tenths of the causes of nervous debility, local and constitutional weakness, mental and physical suffering, are owing to certain habits, forming the most secret, yet deadly and fatal springs of domestic misery and premature mortality.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood, which if not reformed in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted insidious and devastating affections. Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable feelings and vague fears in the mind.

The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable to labor with accustomed exertion, his mind is dull, irresolute, and engages in sport with less energy than usual. If he unmanly himself before the practice has done his worst, and enters matrimony, his life is unfruitful, and his ease tells him that this is caused by early follies. These are considerations which should awaken the attention of those immediately situated.

MARRIAGE requires the fulfillment of several conditions, in order that it may really be the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness be raised, and its source in every instance disclosed, in how many could it be traced to phisical debility, and their attendant disappointments. Apply then while it is yet time, in order to have your unstrung and relaxed organization re-organized, revived and strengthened.

Remember he who places himself under Dr. Kinkelin's treatment may religiously confide in his honor as a general man, and rely upon the assurance, that the agents of Dr. K.'s patients will never be disclosed. Young man—let no false modesty deter you from making your case known to one who, from education and respectability can certainly befriend you. Do not deny that you will conceal the secret in your own heart, and cure the disease. Often is this a fatal decision, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society, has faded from the earth.

Sufferers of the urethra are rapidly removed by the application of a new and efficient agent, used only by Dr. K. Weakness and constitutional debility promptly cured, and full vigor restored. Country invalids can have—by stating their case explicitly, together with all their symptoms, per letter, enclosing a remittance to Dr. Kinkelin, of Philadelphia, Pa., and a copy of the book, forwarded accordingly. Forwarded to any part of the United States, and packed secure from damage or curiarity.

Read: Youth and Manhood. A Vigorous Life, or Premature Death, Kinkelin on Self-Preservation—Only twenty-five cents. It is a work eminently required, as a means of reforming the vices of the age in which we live.

Notice.—The subscriber being desirous to settle up his old accounts, (which his old friends and customers having unsettled accounts will please take notice.)
