

THE CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN.

For the Clearfield Republican. Messrs. Editors:—You will please publish this statement for the benefit of all whom it may concern.

Table with 4 columns: Township, 1850, 1851, 1852. Lists various townships like Beccaria, Bell, Bradford, etc.

Total of Tax's, 3742. The amount of State tax assessed for the year 1853 was $3,501 68.

White Clearfield Borough (which is the highest) pays one dollar and seventeen cents for each taxable inhabitant.

Thus it will be seen that Clearfield county pays 66 per cent less tax than her sister counties. Centre bounding on the East pays 60 per cent more tax.

One single person pays $40 State Tax in this township, hence the reason that valuation in the third column appears to be very high.

Messrs. Editors:—It affords me pleasure to see that the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have enacted such a valuable law; authorizing all the Directors of the Common Schools in the county, to meet in Convention for the purpose of electing a suitable person for County Superintendent.

Whig temperance meeting was held in Allegheny city one night last week. At the close of the ceremonies, nearly the whole party adjourned to a neighboring hotel and 'welcomed' several gallons of the crifer.

The ladies of Maysville Kentucky, recently presented a pair of pantaloons to Miss Lucy Stone in due form.

An Irish woman, residing in Norristown, cut the head off her infant child with a razor one day last week.

When Gen. Lee was a prisoner at Albany, he dined with an Irishman. Before entering upon the wine the General remarked to his host, that after drinking he was very apt to be drunk.

A husband residing in a small village in the interior, thus announces the departure from his bed and board of his dearly beloved: 'My wife, Anna Maria, has strayed or been stolen.

A society of 'Dove Nothings' was proposed some time since, but the project has been abandoned. Newspaper publishers were very zealous in their endeavors to establish such societies for selfish ends.

A weather stax.—An old hunter predicts that the following will be a dry summer, from the fact that woodcocks have built their nests in low moist places.

A female writer says: 'Nothing looks worse on an old lady than darned stockings.' Allow us to observe that stockings which need darning look darned eight worse than the darned ones.

The 'Know-Nothings' claim a very ancient date for their origin—no further back than the common fraternity. 'True', Samuel, chap. 15, v. 11.

Somebody says that a pretty woman is a brilliant poem, full of rhyme, sentiment, and all manner of illustrations. When 'bound' in one's arms, she increases to several volumes.

A rash and somewhat deluded young man has threatened to apply the Moline law to his sweetheart, she intoxicates him so.

It is said that 'the Black Swan' is about to be married to a goose of a Londoner. About a year hence, look out for 'mottled cygnets.'

Mrs. Catharine Hawkins, of Allegheny county, Mo., lately killed nine wild turkeys at one shot. We shall soon have the three dollar gold pieces and the white cents in circulation.

Principal and Interest.—A debtor observed to a creditor, 'that it was not his interest to pay the principal, nor his principle to pay the interest.'

DIED.—In Lawrence tp., on Tuesday evening, the 23d inst., Mr. John K. Hicks, aged about 25 years. The deceased leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. AUCTION! AUCTION! SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1854. A. M. HILLS will positively sell his remaining stock of Goods at his old store in the west end of the Mansion House.

OSIAH PERHAM submits to the people of the United States, his third Monitor for the Exhibition of 1854, in connection with the Exhibition of his Magnificent and Immense MIRROR OF NORTH AND SOUTH AMERICA, at Academy Hall, 603 Broadway, New York.
