Perceiving that acute questioning failed to answer his purpose, the deciple of Coke und Blackstone betook himself to that oftentimes successful resource of lawyersridicule. 😘

'What did you say your name was?' he inquired flippantly.

Folks call me Crazy Pat, but, 'Crazy Pat, eh? A very emphonious ti-yourself, an' lave me to chuse another.' This caused a slight laugh in the court room, and the presiding Judge peeped over his spectacles at the attorney, as much as to say. You have your match now.'

'And what did you say your trade was?' continued the disconcerted barrister, with an angry look at the witness. I'm a tanner, sur.'

'A tanner, ch! And how long do you think it would take you to tan an ox-hide?

Well, sur, since it sames to be very important fur ye to know, it's myself that 'll jist tell ye-that's intirely own' to circumstances. 'Did you ever tan the hide of an ass?'

'An ass?' No sur, but if you'll just step down the lane, after the Coort, be jabers I'll give ve physical demonstration that I cud tan the hide of an ass in the shortest end of three minutes.'

The unexpected reply of the witness brought forth roars of laughter, in which the Bench heartily joined; whilst the baffled attorney, blushing to the eyes, hastily informed 'Crazy Pat' that he was no longer required.
