Come on, all ye men of sense And get impressions of your faces, To show your friends your many graces. The dress is better to be dark, But brown on red is just the mark, For then the contrast fairly shows, Between the person and the clothes. It's well enough the sun should shine, As this will serve to shorten time, But if it don't and clouds be rife. He'll take your picture to the life. Those-little kinners, 'yelept babes Should never come 'midst clouds and shades, But when the monarch of the skiez, This shining robes puts on, arise And bring your little ones to me, And brightest pictures you will see. Another theme the muse suggests, To put all gloomy doubts to rest ch honest men as scruples feel. Lest wicked craft fresh from the deal, Should be invoked in place of art And made to act a wily part, Are told with conscience clear of evil. We have no dealings with the devil.
