

the best judges of the character of the Resolved, That the Whig leaders, by their opposition to this measure, but betray the national propensity of Southern to disrupt the Union people.

Resolved, That the administration of Gov. Brown has been uniformly unscrupulous, by securing to the State a system of unfeeling proslavery, and most odious a system of power and subversion, such as will be parallel to their history, and whose course has been marked by perfidy and sin—desecrating all his labors with the same consciousness regard for the right that we prominently distinguished him when among us as a private citizen.

Resolved, That in Judge Black, our candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, and in Henry S. Atorn, our candidate for Chief Committee, and we recognize men of the firmest character and highest legal and practical attainments for the discharge of the duties of the stations for which they have been named, and being Democrats of the purest water, we heartily yield them our cordial support.

Resolved, That in David Barclay, our candidate for Congress, we have a firm and reliable friend, a man of talents and well acquainted with the peculiar demands of this district, and that we will yield him our cordial support.

Resolved, That our country ticket meets exclusively approbation—that we recognize in them plucky, patriotic and efficient men, pure and unadulterated National Democrats.

PROHIBITION MEETING.

The Washingtonians and friends of prohibition met in the Court house on Monday evening, Sept. 18th, 1854. The meeting was opened by prayer by George W. Lovell, Sr. It being agreed upon that the business of the Washingtonians be transacted first, the report of the Committee to procure tickets for the coming election was voted for. The Chairman Dr. Rose, reported that the printing of three thousand. The business of the Washingtonians being transacted, the Prohibition meeting was organized by Elihu Irvin taking the Chair as President, and John Parchin & G. P. French as Vice Presidents, and Gen. W. Kline, Jr., Secy.

Mr. Samuel Tamm was called on to address the meeting, who did so by overruling all arguments advanced against a prohibitory law, and prove unequivocally that nothing short of total prohibition will satisfy the people of this State. He was followed by Judge Hale in his usual interesting style.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting, and a list of the committees, be forwarded to the Republican Journal, with a request for publication. Adjourned.

G. W. RHEEM, Jr. Secy.

50,000 DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.—Last Monday night—the anniversary of the adoption of our National Convention—the Democrats of Philadelphia held a meeting in Independence square, which is described as the largest political gathering ever held in that city. The object of this meeting was, on this, the anniversary of the adoption of that inestimable charter of our liberties—and at a period when it is assailed in its most vital part, and attempted to be disregarded and overthrown—to re-pledge devotion and protection to it—and this was done by an army of thirty thousand good and true Democrats of the Eastern part of the State. The old lion of Democracy is fully aroused.

CONGRESS.
Under favorable inducements and encouragement, I have consented to be a candidate for Congress. I want it to be distinctly understood that I will not if elected, ever agree to the extension of slavery in any way whatever; I shall do the best that I can to establish the government on its original basis.
