

Notice to Subscribers.

The Post Office of Clearfield county are duly authorized...

We were told by the Whig orator that welcomed the Curwensville delegation last Tuesday night...

Now, this is simply not true. Governor Bigler, so far as we remember, never made any "promise" or "pledge" to that effect.

We are not apt to under-estimate our own ability. If it was certain that this stock would net a profit of from 10 to 15 per cent. per annum...

The second assignment is, that he and his friends promised to favor the erection of Pine County...

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory...

The elections in Ohio and Indiana, resulted as they did in our own State, only a little more so...

Who lost the Watch that Mr. DeLano found? Those having unsettled debts with Purley Fisher...

Gentleman, you may keep your Salt River Tickets to them. We repeat again, that we are not candidates for that region...

The RESULT IN THE STATE.—Pollock's majority will be in the neighborhood of 30,000. Black's about the same, and Mot's over 100,000...

We have not as yet received a single word of reliable information from Michigan county. Elk county however, gives Alexander Caldwell a majority of 229...

Mr. BARCLAY is elected to Congress from this district, by a large majority. Jefferson and Clarion give him about 2000 and Clearfield over 2000.

NOW FOR BUSINESS.

Now that the election is disposed of it is proper that we should turn our thoughts upon other topics...

Philadelphia has abundance of spare capital at this moment, to build this road; but they cannot be expected to embark their means until they see proper efforts on the part of those more immediately interested...

The report of Mr. Mosgrove, the very able Engineer, which we published a few weeks ago, was very conclusive and satisfactory...

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

The Whigs and Know Nothings have made no less than four different attempts to celebrate their late victory, in this place and vicinity.

LOSS OF THE STEAMER ARCTIC.

In addition to the account of the destruction of the Steamer Arctic, which we published last week, we now give the following account as published by the Captain of the ill-fated vessel...

Quebec, October 4th, 1854. E. K. COLLINS, Esq.—Dear Sir—It becomes my painful duty to inform you of the total loss of the steamship Arctic...

Nothing worthy of special note occurred during the passage, until Wednesday, the 27th, when at noon we were on the banks of Newfoundland...

The bows of the strange vessel seemed to be literally cut or crushed off for full ten feet, and seeing that she must probably sink in ten minutes...

Several ineffectual attempts were made to stop the leak by getting sails over the bows, and finding the leak gaining on us very fast...

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

We were safely taken on board about three, P. M. The next was Mr. James Smith, of Mississippi, a second class passenger.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

ing scene presented itself to my view.—Over two hundred men, women and children struggling together amidst pieces of the wreck, calling on each other for help...

In another moment I beheld him lifeless in the water. I succeeded in getting upon the top of the paddle-box in company with eleven others.

In the course of the morning, we saw some water-casks and other things belonging to our ship, but nothing that we could get to afford us any relief.

We had then a clear view of about one half the horizon, and nothing could be seen but the water and sky.

Shortly after we had given up all hopes of being rescued by the bark, a ship was discovered to the eastward, steering directly for us.

We were safely taken on board about three, P. M. The next was Mr. James Smith, of Mississippi, a second class passenger.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

The Rev. Mr. Walker and lady, and Mr. Blank, who were passengers by the Cambria, have been unceasing in their endeavors to promote our comfort.

but with sincere gratitude to those from whom I received such unbounded kindness, since I have been providentially thrown amongst them, and with whom I am about to separate and go to New York...

I am, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, JAMES C. LUCE.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION. As the question of the admission of the present territory of Utah into the Union as a State, is destined to make a good deal of noise in the world...

The subject of the admission of Utah into the Union as a State is beginning to attract a good deal of attention. Several papers treat as absurd the idea of admitting a State with a constitution allowing polygamy.

When the papers referred to above scout the idea of the admission of Utah as a State with a constitution allowing polygamy, those papers must mean to imply that Congress will not admit Utah unless with a constitution prohibiting polygamy.

A southern paper now before us thinks that a step can be put to polygamy in Utah by passing a law of Congress that polygamy shall not exist in the United States.

Still, we do not undertake to decide that, if we were in Congress, we should feel bound, under all circumstances, to vote for Utah's admission even if she were to comply with the requirements of the United States constitution.

Of the thirty-three Governors of the different States and Territories, how many are foreigners? We believe not one.

Of the five thousand members of the Legislatures of the different States, how many were born abroad? Not fifty we venture to assert.

Of the Judiciary of the different States?—Few, if any. What means then, this ever-recurring sentence: "Americans must rule America!"

A fellow was once asked what inference he could draw from the text in Job, "And the asses snuffed up the wind." "Well," he replied, "the only inference that I can draw is this, that it would be a long time before they would grow fat upon it."

Second, Despatch from Capt. LUCE. QUEBEC, Oct. 14.—I have safely arrived at Quebec, and am left without a penny in the world to help myself with,

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.

Our minister to Spain has become the target for the vulgar diatribes of the English and French press because of his decided and manly bearing at the court of Madrid, surrounded by the presumptuous intrigants of the European powers.