Alexaticld Republican.

J. H. LARRIMER.

numerical in original in original in original in in original in in original in in original in original

Editors & Publishers.

"EXCELSIOR."

(TERMS--$1 25 per Annum.

VOL VIII.—NO 26.

Two squares, : : : : 4 00
Three squares, : : : : 5 00

CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY JUNE-14, 1858.

NEW SERIES-VOLA III.-NO 21.

Terms of Subscription. (fipaid in advance, or within three months, $1 25 If paid any time within the year, - - 1 50 If paid after the expiration of the year, - 2 00 Terms of Advertising.

Advertisements are inserted in the Republican Oho rauare, (14 lines,) $ 50 Two squares, (28 lines,) 1 00 Three squares, (42 lines,) 1 50

: 8 00 : 14 00 Over three weeks and less than three months 25 cents per square for each insertion. ness notices not exceeding 8 lines are inserted for $2 a year./

Advertisements not marked with the number of LARRIMER & WARD.

SELECT POETRY.

NEAR THE LAKE WHERE DROOPED THE WILLOW.

BY GRORGE P. MORRIS.

Near the lake where drooped the willow, Long time ago,
Where the rock throws back the billow, Brighter than snow—

Dwelt a maid, beloved and cherished, By high and low : But with autumn's leaf she perished, Long time ago!

Rock, and tree, and flowing water, Long time ago-Bird, and bee, and bessom taught her, Love's spell to know, While to my fend words she listened, Murmuring low, Tenderly her dove eyes glistened, Long time ago. Mingled were our hearts forever-Long time ago, Can I now forget her? Never! No, lost one! no!

To those her grave those tears are given, Ever to flow—
She's the star I missed from heaven, Long time ago.

From the National Era. The Wife's Mistake.

read to you some of Romney's Great been and tenthe the takeentities to andsying busitwany d in a stantly dina stantly contievetwo sying busitwany d in a stantly contievetwo sying busitwany d in a stantly contievetwo sying busitwany d in a stantly contievetwo sying busitwo sying busitwo

4 any

THE RELEASE OF SALES TO SALES

Thoughts on duty."
She went hastily to her chamber for the volume. When she returned her quiet entrance was unheard by her husband, whose pen was rapidly moving along the who had neither heart nor mind to be con-sat hour after hour, till his brain was weasat hour after hour, till his brain was wear ry and his eyelide drooped. Then laying In that hour all was clear between them which surround every flower-bed, and the aside his books, he remained a long time in deep thought.

"God bless my Margaret," he prayed, "and give me stronght to bear all things. Give me power to make her happy."
Putting far away all thoughts of her of, to the heart of her husband, who would of both." gladly have sacrificed every earthly good for her happiness.

A sudden and severe ill came to her.

know what great sorrow has come to you?"

came involved in a speculation, whose failure suddenly took from him, the accumuinterest wealth of his years of commercial centerprise. There were a few years of interest years you can only see interest. There were a few years of interest years you had lost, then deep despondency, a lingand lost, then deep despondency, a linginterest years of commercial interest years of listed in the sixth century. It was then establisted interest years of listed in the latter country by John de listed in the sixth century. It family vault of the Washingtons. A sim ple sarcophagus is just visible inside, and there were the pleasant shadows of the moving trees can just fall. slumber the balmoving trees can just fall slumber the balmoving trees can just fall slumber the balmoving trees can just fall slumber the balmoving trees can just fal weary vain strugglings to regain what he lished in the latter country by John de lost, then deep despondency, a ling-ling disease and death. His wife and four children were left pennyless. The latter country has now its lodges line the latter country has now its lodges latter to the latter country by John de lished in the latter country by John de loss or fingers may be cut off, to secure a agood old age, while the greater portion lished in the latter country by John de loss or fingers may be cut off, to secure a certainty of my being dead. I further request my dear wife, that as she has been moving trees can just fall, slumber the hallows of the may not be offensive, and that one of my few acquire an appetite for it, and live to may not be offensive, and that one of my few acquire an appetite for it, and live to may not be offensive, and that one of my agood old age, while the greater portion lished in the latter country by John de loss or fingers may be cut off, to secure a agood old age, while the greater portion lished in the latter country by John de loss or fingers may be cut off, to secure a agood old age, while the greater portion lished in the latter country by John de loss or fingers may be cut off, to secure a certainty of my being dead. I further request my dear wife, that as she has been there were the pleasant shadows of the may not be offensive, and that one of my acquire an appetite for it, and the or fingers may be cut off, to secure a certainty mands the respect and countenance of all kings and congress. He sleeps not in that his prospects for the future were who are acquainted with its nature and the gloom of great catnedrals, or in the blooded but with the sloop of great catnedrals. louded; but with a noble self-forgetfuless he turned cherfully into the way fate ad marked out for him, and walked reso-He obtained a situation with a merchant, skim-milk.

who had known his father, where his faithfulness and untiring devotion to his du-ties, won the confidence of all who knew him. During the first years of her widowhood, the mother had taught a private school for young ladies; and it was the boy's highest ambition to relieve her of feeble health required. I cannot tell you all his privations, his willing sacrifice of $7 00 that he might lighten the burden of those 10 00 so dear to him. Year after year success crowned his ef 14 00 forts. In the village where his mother 13 00 had passed the years of her childhood and the first years of her married life, he purchased a pleasant residence for her, and then, a fucrative business being opened to him in the west he came here.

At the time of his arrival here, accident Advertisements not marked with the number of: At the time of his arrival here, accident steep ascent up through a scarcely tradinsertions desired, will be continued till forbid and revealed to him the fact that the widow den path, whose outlines were scarcely discharged necording to these terms. and invalid daughter of one whose fortune treme poverty. To him the are indebted russet ferns, the purple asters, the goldthem, and for the delicate thoughtful minration to their daily comfort.

Now, when the commercial world is clouded, and disasters crowd thick and fast upon him, as upon others, his anxious thoughts turn to the mother and suffering sister, in the little village home whose comfort depends upon him, to the other lonely fireside, to which his thoughtfulness: imparts its only light, and to his own home, and the young wife whose happiness is dearer to him than life. For this Margaret, Ralph Hale gives his days to incessant toil, and willingly sacrifices social pleasures he is eminently fitted to enjoy.

I have been in these three homes. With a love that is almost reverence, his mother and sister speak his name, and with full heart thank God for his life-that life so filled with the beauty of self-renunciation. has made glad, tell of numberless acts of side, and forming one of the finest natural kindness, of his delicate and unceasing blessing on him whose life is a blessing to

In his own home, the wife whose love should bless him, whose gentle ministry should comfort and strengthen him, because he prefers the happiness of othheart should reverently and gratefully cherish it, as the richest blessing of her chart.

Why did he not marry a woman she was clasped in her husband's arms. "You have been very ill, (said a voice faultering with emotion,) but thank God, in the room she had left. Ralph Hale you are safe now, my Margaret."

In the room she had left. Ralph Hale "Oh, yes, I am safe indeed, now," deeper love for each other, and a prayer bathed, as they are; in the radient sunned for them. Putting far away all thoughts of her and happy wife, wrote: "I cannot tell you geraniums, and azalias.

husband's real nobleness of character, jeal. all he has been to me—my guide when I liero are exposed for sale tiny bouquets, ousy preserving the memory of every slight all he has been to me—my guide when I ousy preserving the memory of every sight was ignorant, my strength when I faulter-difference in their tastes and pursuits.— was ignorant, my strength when I faulter-darranged with the rare taste that all ne-Margaret cherished the spirit of disconditions do I not owe you for revealing the mistake ics of Mount Vernon which are eagerly tent, the it emontered every nour of her which had almost wrecked the happiness bought up, at exorbitant prices, by all pat-

Origin of the Odd Fellows.—Many per-sons who are under the impression that which he continually ejaculates— zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. You can imagine with a bundle of sucks, or zenship. while Raipa was in a distant city. Une the society of Odder thous is an original day during her slow recovery, the aged minister who had babtized her in infanminister who had babtized her in intan-cy, was slitting by her side.

"Margaret," he said, after steadily steadily steadily the Roman soldiers in the memtoes, firmly believing in the old dar-

I should not recognize in you my once given them by Titus Cæsar twenty-four we don't hesitate to say that if the Mount should not recognize in you my once given them by Italy on the ground we don't nestrate to say that if the Brount cheerful and happy child. May I not years afterwards, and they were so called Vernon woods had been cut down three or heerful and happy child. May I not years atterwards, and they were so called vernon woods not central down three of now what great sorrow has come to you?" from singular character of their meetings, four times over, they wouldn't have yield-now with sobs and tears she told him land from their knowing each other by each other of "genuine hickory and from their who means of mystical signs canes" that have been palmed off on unlight or day by means of mystical signs canes" that have been palmed off on unlight or day by means of the company of After a short silence, the old man spoke again; and there was sadness, almost sternness in his voice. "Years ago-Margaret a wealthy New York merchant became involved in a speculation, whose fail-came involved in a speculation, whose fail-series in the source of gravet and in Portugal in the sixth century. It is structure of gravet mossy stone with an angle of on unsuspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation, engraved on a certain suspecting strangers by these sable deceived them a dispensation and th purposes.

A Visit to Mount Vernon.

What American is there who does not feel a sacred interest in that sweet place on the shores of the quiet Potomac, once ennobled by Washington's presence, and boy's highest ambition to relieve her of now hallowed by his ashes? It is the this necessity, and give her the rest her Mecca of the republic- a spot where her pilgrim-sons come, with reverential homage to stand beneath the noble old trees every recreation, his continued self-denial, whose shadow one fell on the broad and godlike brow of Washington himself! Our first visit to the Mount Vernon, two years ago, was in the golden flush of autun n. I well remember the crimson and russet robes of the quiet woods that fringed the water side, and the rude, narrow bridge, built far out in the river, over which we were compelled to pass before we could reach the shore. And then, the cernable through the bright drifts of was, by his father's advice, risked in that brown and orange leaves which fluttered unfortunate speculation which had so down through the warm, blue air—the en rods, whose fiery torches hung like for the pleasant home that now shelters lines of flame along the natural terraces, and the sweet wild mint, whose fragrance even now seem inseperable from that Oc-

to ber day at Mount Vernon! But this time it was a bright winter noon, when our little party stood once mere on the smooth shere-one of those days when the calcuder tell us it is February, in obstinate contradiction to the radient sky and warm breezes that speak of | May itself. The sunny slopes and steep banks were a delicate tinge of velvet green, can 1 do for you?" and nature seemed as if preparing for the I thought I mought as well come ane give light feet of the coming spring-time!

Probably no private residence in the you a job. United States can boast a finer view than Mount Vernon. From the house a prospect is visible of the broad, bright river, with quiet sails gliding slowly over its expanse, and miles on miles of sunny wooded shores, rising up from the water

The house itself stands on a bit of smooth watchfulness, and daily they ask God's level lawn; a tiny opening in the midst of as well be fixin' for it.: Come mightynearthe grand old trees, whose interlacing freezin' t'other winter, tell ye I did, but, branches are so plainly outlined against the blue heavens; and its old-fashioned portico, a sort of continuation of the caves, supported by rude yet picturesque pillars, turns coldly and unfeelingly from him, supported by rude yet pictures que pinnes, fact, had almost forgotten their errands in turns coldly and unfeelingly from him, seems almost like a memory of the past

who has won the deepest love of such a gone into an undiscovered country, of which the world has neither map nor

With an impression of impatience, almost of keorn, resting on her face, she hastily turned away.

"And this is the end of all my dreams of marriage," said sho on reaching her room. "He has a taste for drudgery. His pursuits and tastes are all common-place, and tastes are all common-place, and tire of first of all for him whom suits and tastes are all common-place, and tire of first of all for him whom suits and tastes are all common-place, and the books Llove, and the beautiful in art, for which he has neither eye nor ser. Why did he not marry a woman of goings. Thesa and soldiers have their glass. Thesa and soldiers have the churches received from the example departed grandeur may still be traced in lesque, of this sort of literature, and gives of the established clergy, admitted him

the gardens, which are not so attractive at Union: this season of the year, although, during the summer, they are kept in excellent order. But the bright edgings of box With new resolves for the future, with cheerful evergreens have a pleasant effect, for strength, another page of life was tur- shine; and the green-houses at the left five. though narrow and old-fashionhand, Ye rs afterwards, Margaret, a proud ed, are full of blushing roses, camellias, tage-ground is also posted a gray-headed so far. To be spoken of for Alderman in a powerful effect upon the popular mind old negro with a bundle of sticks, over volves loss of reputation, friends and cities the tags of interest, has produced the days of the days riotic Yankees. At every available van-watching her troubled face, "you are very year 55. At that time they were called key's solemn asseveration that they are unhappy, I have seen it a long time.—

"Fellow citizens," the present name being "cut close to de Gineral's tomb," although the wide heart of the American nation, and his memory needs no lengthy inscription or solenm ceremonies to keepitalive

The red, level light of sunset is begining to checker the floor of the old portice as we descend the slope once more, Wehave lost the idle gayety with which we climbed up a few hours ago, and we step lightly and speak softly, like the pilgrims coming from the shadow of some old temple at Jerusalem. And as the swift little boat bears us away over the calm waters of the Potomac, we look back regretfully at the high elevation where the sunset is shining lown on the mossy roof of Mount Vernon, and on the tomb of Washington, MRS, GEORGE WASHINGTON WYLLYS.

A HARD CUSTOMER. A green looking customer observed a sign hanging over a grocery store, reading at sea. thus--"Wholesale and Retail Store.', He dies and gentlemen until he got facing one

Washington City, Feb., 1858.

"Say, Mister, who's boss here?" "The proprietor has just stepped out,

"Well, be this a retailing shop?" The young man hardly comurchending the greeny's thoughts, simply answered: "Yes, sir; a wholesale and retail store. "Guess you understand your trade.," "th yes," replied the clerk, wrapping

"Well as the cold weather is coming on up a bundle for his lady customer, "what

"I don't understand you, stranger,' died the c'erk, who began to think that the fellow was in the wrong box.

"Zactly so; well, I'll tell you." "Explain what you meen, my friend, aid the clerk as he sow him produce bundle from under his coat.

"Well, squire, as I said before, the cold weather's coming on, and I that' I might clerk, seeing there were a number of customers waiting to be served, b t wlio, in century. It is there, as the attendants the rich conversation between the clerk

Passing out at the back door, we enter thing that ever happened to the Rochester He had a shooting lodge in the Highlands ing no effort to turn out of the procession.

pail, he was under the bed. Mother. Reverse and spank. Bride. Victoria pins can be had at S.

O. Barnum's. Statistics. Seven times five are thirty-Helen. You can keep them up with elastics. Medicus. Apply shoemaker's wax, and squeeze it. Geographer. Rochester is on the canal east of Lockport.

Stumuckake. Fifteen drops each of laudanum and camphor, and rub it. so far. To be spoken of for Alderman in- a powerful effect upon the popular mind DEADLY Sins .-- Boring an editor while Boring an editor while not writing. Reading his exchanges without his permission. Asking his permission to read the exchanges.

Hooking his scissors, when "original" matter is wanted by the devil. Hooking his pen when he has selections to furnish. Laying profane hands on the proof.

Blanchard, of Plymouth, proved in 1783, meat.

who are acquainted with its nature and purposes.

| Kings and coquerers | Description ugnt of consecrated tapers, among sourp- one of those articles, and tured effigies and sable plumes, but wrap- other day, why he did not secure some least, by a free use of those articles, and It is not well, says Henry Ward ped in the green arms of the fragrant fond one's company in his voyage on the also milk, eggs, and various sacharine sub-

The Daughter of Aaron Burr.

Correspondence of the Pennsylvania Inquirer. An item of news just now going the ounds, relates that a sailor who recently died in Texas confessed on his death bed that he was one of a crew of mutineers connected with a ride on the New York who some forty years ago took possession Central Railroad. He relates it in a letter that he was one of a crew of mutineers of a brig on its passage, from Charleston to the Knickerbocker Magazine, and puts to New York, and caused all the officers it on record to serve as a caution to future and passengers to walk the plank. For innocent travelers. He says: forty years the wretched man had carried died at last in an agony of despair.

is the fact that the vessel referred to is the Irishman, who, deaf to menaces, unsoftenone on which Mrs. Theodocia Allston, the beloved daughter of Aaron Burr, took pas- maintained his post for the benefit of the sage for New York for the purpose of "leddies." "Leddies car, aye, you please-meeting her parent in the darkest days of forard car for gentlemen without leddies."

worked his way through the crowd of da- her well; said that she was the last who determined to get into it, cost what it of the clerks who was exhibiting some fine sugars to a young lady, when he broke out with.

The sugars to a young lady, when he broke out with account I regarded it as a fiction; but on shawl, and a large portmanteau, urging vy, he assures me of its probable truth, by her side, and with my native grace and and states that on one of his passages home gallantry offered my arm and assistance some years ago, his vessel brought two pi- They were gratefully accepted, and proud

Mrs. Allston and her companions. What chiefly caused my scepticism on the subject was the fact that Mr. Parton, when this low employee of a monopoli the recent biographer of Burr, leaves the zing and unaccommodating Railroad, adfate of the daughter enveloped in myste-dressed my companion with the tone and ry, and closes the record of her noble and beautiful life with her embarkation on board the brig, which he declares has never since been heard from I am at a loss now to understand if the confession alluded to by my naval friend was made public, as it undoubtedly was, how Mr. Parton could have failed, among his extensive and industrious researches, to discover the fact. Whatever opinion "Stranger, I hope you will tell what you want, so I may serve you," interrupted the red as one of the loveliest and most excelto invest that memory with a more tender kneeled down to enable me to mount him and melancholy interest, absorbed in poring over day-books and ledgers.

"Those tiresome accounts still," she exclaimed. "Will you never find sime for anything else but business, Ralph? Have so crucily mi-judged you," said the weeping wife.

"Oh Ralph, I fave never known with any beyond figures?" which have been the salines in the tone was unheeded, as she continued: "Some men talk pietry, some write it in words, and fire with the salines of his residence in Egypt, and fire write it in their lives. The true here will be surken store flags forming its acad master will iet you re-tail there is an Episcopalian, but and the was want to pace for shirts! Let 'em come glown to about the claims of seciety, or for the high intelligent animals. A story was claimed. "Will you never find sime for anything belse but business, Ralph? Have so crucily mi-judged you," said the weeping wife.

"Oh Ralph, I fave never known voil any the second figures?" but the saliness in the tone was unheeded, as she continued: "Some men talk pietry, some write it in words, and the weeping wife.

"The old man continued: "Some men was unheeded, as she continued: "Some men with edge of the plant in the largest of the flags in the tone were will iet you re-tail there is and the was a large for shirts! Let 'em can edgow to about the claims of seciety, or for the high intelligent animals. A story was action to about the claims of society, or for the high intelligent animals. A story was action to a shirt the claims of seciety, or for the high intelligent animals. A story was action to a short the claims of seciety, or or the high intelligent. The clear the was a flow choese to beta to deliver the shade and the over, which has a sold master will iet you re-tail there is and the was a shift to the lives. The true here is all who choese to be an about the claims of short the claims of seciety, or or the high intelligent. The clieve is an ever with the was a true in the claims of seciety. The true here is and the claims of short the claims of seciety of the salid master will it PARAGRAPHS.—The "note and query det the highest to the lowest, nor were the They are very cunning as to weighing chart.

The library, the parlor, the dining room, literary hebdomadels—furnishes a tedius the demand upon his ministrations, which march, and if there is an ounce short they If the twilight of that day, Margaret was awaiting her husband's return.—Amid the bitter self repreachings that darkmid the bitter self repreachings that darkbeen a splendid room; the remains of its
been a splendid room; the remains of this sort of literature, and gives

The demand upon its initiatives and it there is an one the regular amount of ignorance, imbedility, verdancy, were continued throughout the week. The will discover it and it there is an one the regular amount of ignorance, imbedility, verdancy, were continued throughout the resolution of the Free Church and United Presbyterian ministers of the Free Church
and United Presbyterian Church, and one
have a gallon of grog per day, just as sailbeen a splendid room; the remains of its
been a splendid room; the remains of this sort of literature, and gives

The Buffalo
and United Presbyterian ministers of the Free Church
and United Presbyterian Church, and one
have a gallon of grog per day, just as sailbeen a splendid room; the remains of its
been a splendid room; the remains of the setablished clergy, admitted him > clusively to those districts where he had who was standing by, he remarked: formerly rendered himself most notorious and obnoxious by his profligacy. In his ex-boott here; to hum, where I live, they alpressions of self reproach, which of course ways turn out for a funeral." must be taken with considerable limitation, he has repeatedly declared that he marked the Philadelphian gravely, had been guilty of all the sins in the decalogue except murder. Mr. North is no exclaimed the astonished Yankee. why you see, it is a very poor. zenship. You can imagine what a man their power lies not in their logical structure, but in their earnestness. .

Use Pleatr of Gravy.—Dr. Dixon in a late number of the Scalpel, in an article on "Diet." assuming the position that "the with brandy." use of oil would decrease the victims of A few weeks after the doctor chanced to consumption nine tenths, and that this is meet the wife. the whole secret of the success of cod-liver oil," quotes the following summary of ob- advice?" servations on this subject, made by Dr. Hooker:

1. Of all the persons between the ages the brandy higher than his mouth, poor of fifteen and twenty-two, more than one fellow." fifth eat no fat meat. 2. Of persons at the age of forty-five, all

3. Of persons who, between the ages of fifteen and twenty-two, avoid fat meat, a gentleman beside him,) that my hat took few acquire an appetite for it, and live to that direction?"

fect substitute for fat meat; without which fear and reverence, sooner or later, the body is almost sure to show the affects of deficient calorification

How John Phœnix Got in the Ladies John Phonix thus tells an incident

"I had observed at each change of the about with him the dreadful secret, and cars, and they were frequent, when the ed at last in an agony of despair.

What gives this story additional interest defended from the assault by a stalwart his existence, and which never having been Ned I say that this car was the most comheard of, was supposed to have foundered fortable of the train, and with that stern resolve which ever distinguished me in the The dving sailor professed to remember discharge of my duty towards myself, I perished, and that he never forgot her might So when we changed cars at Uticonversing to day with an officer of the na- her way through the crowd, I stepped up ecuted at Norfolk for recent offences, and to the platform of the ladies' car. My old who, before their execution, confessed enemy was holding the door. "Is that that they had been members of the same your leddy, sir," said he. With an inward crew, and participated in the murder of apology to Mrs. Phonix for the great injustice done to her charms by the admission, I replied 'yes,' Judge of my horror manner of an old acquaintance, Sal, I guess you've done well, but I don't think his family will think much of the match.

> ELEPHANTS IN INDIA.-A Calcutta corespondent of the New York Commercial, in giving an account of a visit to Barrack pore, says: "We saw the recently arrived elephants from Burmah; they looked in good condition. There were ninety of them at the stables and many were traveling about lent of American women, and the revela- through the different streets and roads. I tion of her untimely fate can only serve had a ride upon one of the largest, who and some of them made us a salaam with The carriage stopped at the door, and in a few minutes, Margaret Hale entered the approach to the driver is called the minutes, Margaret Hale entered the approach to the driver is called the minutes, Margaret Hale entered the approach to the driver is called the minutes, Margaret Hale entered the approach to the driver is called the minutes, Margaret Hale entered the approach to the driver is called the minutes, Margaret Hale entered the approach to the driver is called the minutes, Margaret Hale entered the control of their trunks when told to do so by their tell us, that the arm-chair, of Washington and his droll customer.

"Certainly: I always a certainly: I always a certainly: I always a control of their trunks when told to do so by their tell us, that the arm-chair, of Washington and his droll customer.

"Certainly: Squire, certainly: I always a certainly: I alwa ors and soldiers have their glass. These where he indulged in very loose and pro The Yankee was astonished at this want Robertson. He was not hid in the slop flighte practices. After his conversion, he of attention on the part of the driver of devoted his labors as a christian man ex- said cart, and turning to a Philadelphian "I guess the folks ain't very perlito a

"Oh, that't part of the procession," re

"Why you see, it is a very poor, sandy roughly imbued with Christian principle, soil about here, and nothing comes up and profoundly impressed with a sense of they plant, unless they manure it well;—the duty laid upon him of making known so, when they bury a fellow, they throw audanum and camphor, and rub it.

the great salvation. No preaching since a whole cart load in the grave to make the days of Whitfield, has produced such him rise at the judgment day!" The Yankee mizzled,

> A kind hearted wife once waited upon a physician to request him to prescribe for her husband's eyes which, were

"Well, has your husband followed my

"He has done everything in his power to do it, doctor, but he never could get

An outside passenger of a coach had his excepting less than one in fifty, use fat meat.

3. Of persons who, between the ages of a coach had his blown over a bridge, and carried away by the stream.

"Is it not very singular, (said he to a find that blown over a bridge, and carried away by the stream."

"Not at all, (said the other,) it is natural for a beaver to take water. A gentleman complained to old Banister that some malicious person had cut off his horse's tail, which, as he meant to sall bim, would be a great hindrance. "Then, (said Charles) you must sell him wholesale. "Wholsale ! (says the other,) how so?"

"Because you cannot retail him? True love is ever accompanied with