

LOCAL NEWS.

SERIOUS STABBING AFFAIR.—A most melancholy affair occurred in Phillipsburg on last Monday evening by which a young man will in all probability lose his life. An old man named Porter who we believe once resided in this, but now in the former place, while being made the subject of some practical joke, drew out his knife and stabbed one of his tormentors, a young man named Andrews in the abdomen, causing a wound which will in all probability prove fatal. When we last heard from the wounded man he was still alive, but no hopes are entertained of his recovery. We learn that the unfortunate old man, whose own degradation has made him the butt of revilers, until in the excess of his exasperation he was driven to commit this fearful act, has been arrested and committed to Bellefonte Jail.

THE LIGHT FANTASTIC TOE.—We understand that the friends of 'mirth and dancing' intend having a 'hop' or 'cotillon party' at the 'Town Hall' on Thursday—tomorrow evening. The music for the occasion will be furnished by that popular violinist, 'Bob Ridley,' which will be the last opportunity the citizens of Clearfield may have for some time listening to the 'stirring strains' of 'Bob's' old violin, as he intends leaving our town immediately after the 'hop.' We feel safe in saying that this will be one of the pleasantest little 're-unions' of the season.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—In our advertising columns this week will be found a number of important notices and business announcements. John A. Reed offers to put in the Rose water-wheel on short notice. Any one wishing this wheel will do well to call upon Mr. Reed, who is an excellent mechanic and one who will do precisely what he undertakes.—Mr. Naugle announces to the citizens of this place and the public generally that he opened a watch and jewelry establishment in Shaw's new Row nearly opposite the 'Journal office,' where he will always be ready to do for his customers anything that pertains to his art in a neat and durable manner, and on short notice.

THE WEATHER.—For the last two weeks we have been favoured with the greatest variety of climate and temperature.

Clear and cloudy, dry and rainy, hot and cold, sultry and frosty, express a number but not all the changes the weather has put through in that period. It has however, finally settled down into a very unsettled state of "drizzel-drozzling" which is fearfully destructive of good humor and good digestion. Still we hope for some fine weather yet, before "Old Boreas" gets his icy chains upon us.

FROST.—In the early part of last week frost visited various regions of our county, but so far as we can learn no serious damage has been sustained by the Corn and Buckwheat both of which were in a condition to be greatly injured by a hard frost.

THE CROPS in this country are we fear likely to prove much short of the average yield. The wheat was injured very materially by the weevil and other causes, the Oats suffered first by the wet weather then by the dry, and then from the rust. The Rye only was a fair crop; and the Corn promises well if it be now allowed to ripen without frost.

SEVERE FALL.—A child of H. H. Morrow of Clearfield Hotel aged about two years, on last Saturday afternoon fell from the top of the cellar door into the cellar of the Hotel a distance of eight feet. It was at first thought that the little fellow was seriously and perhaps fatally injured, but we are happy to be able to state that he has entirely recovered from the effects of his sudden tumble, and is now ready for another romp or hair breadth escape.

HORSE STOLEN.—Some excitement was created in the early part of last week, by the supposition that a very valuable horse belonging to M. Forney Esq., of Bedford tp. had been stolen, and pursuit was made in the direction which from various indications it was supposed his captors had taken. It proved however that he had broken out of the field and strayed to Grahamton, where he was caught and stabled on the supposition that the owner would soon be after him. Two or three days elapsed however before Mr. F. to his great relief discovered his whereabouts.

MANY are the preparations offered to the public for the cure of Chronic Diseases, but no medicine has ever done one half the amount of good for sufferers as Dr. YALL'S GALVANIC OIL. It is applicable to all sore and painful diseases. It will relieve pain in a few minutes. For sale by country merchants generally.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Our correspondent Penn's communication has been unavailably crowded out this week. It shall appear in our next.

The Dutch Advertisement is too old to be published as original, as is evidently intended by the person who sends it to us in manuscript.

A number of advertisements have also been crowded out this week but shall appear in our next.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

"THE MINING RECORD AND Pottsville Reporter" is now the title of what was recently the "Mining Register &c.," and which Phoenix like has risen from the ashes of its former self.

On last Saturday night two weeks ago, a destructive fire broke out in Pottsville Pa. destroying several buildings and a large amount of property, including the printing office, press, type, fixtures &c. of the above named paper. With that admirable spirit of energy and indomitable enterprise which so eminently characterizes the gallant sons of the "Old Keystone State," Gen. Calk the Editor and proprietor, notwithstanding the heavy loss, amounting to over $5,000 above his insurance, which he had just suffered, proceeded at once to Philadelphia, purchased and shipped to Pottsville the type materials, and every thing necessary for the publication of his paper; and on the usual day of publication his subscribers were greeted by the Record, the successor of the Register, as by an old friend whose regular visits has never been interrupted. Success can scarcely fail to attend such promptness and devotion to a worthy enterprise.

The appearance of the Record is exceedingly neat and attractive.

"THE PATRIOT AND UNION and the Keystone," published at the seat of government, of this State have been consolidated, and will hereafter be published by the title of the first named paper.

The Daily Herald has also been purchased by Messrs. O. Barrett & Co. the publishers and proprietors, and the design of issuing a daily Patriot and Union. The latter arrangement goes into effect on the 1st inst. (to day.) The Patriot and Union will be under the Editorial charge of R. J. Haldeman Esq. its former Editor.

From the character and standing of the gentlemen connected with this enterprise, as experienced Editors and publishers of newspapers, we have no hesitation in saying that the Patriot and Union will continue, as it has heretofore been, one of the ablest and most fearless Democratic Journals in the State. We wish it unlimited success.

THE IOWA COUNTY ADVOCATE is the name of a new weekly paper, the first number of which is before us, just started at Dodgeville Wis. by Messrs. How & Stevens. The Editors "spread" themselves in their first number, after announcing that with the first number of the Advocate, they "cut loose" from all affiliation with any party, and that it will be a "free and independent Journal," by particularizing the various departments of their paper and the care and attention which they intend bestowing upon each. Their enterprise is a laudable one, and we hope they may succeed in all they have undertaken in this connection.

The Democratic Whig (Bellefonte) which was for many years the organ, and an influential one, of the old whig party of Center county in its palmy days, in the times when Gen. Jas. Irwin was a member of Congress, and a candidate for governor of Pennsylvania—but which has recently existed as a relic of the "days of other years," and "has done nobody any harm," has at last yielded up the ghost. Peace to its ashes!

We do not intend to write its epitaph, although many reminiscences of the "olden time" have been called up by the announcement of its sudden, though not, early decease. For the gentleman whose ability has governed its columns except at brief intervals, since our acquaintance with it; and who delivers its dying soliloquy, we have the warmest feelings of friendship. A nobler heart beats not in the bosom of man, than animates the breast of John K. Shoemaker Esq. Politically we opposed him, yet while we felt we were honest in our opinions, we knew him to be equally so in his. May prosperity be the guiding star of his pathway; and may reason some day yet make him a Democrat.

"The Central Press" is the title of the paper which is to take the place of the defunct Democratic Whig, and is to be conducted by J. G. Kurtz and Wein Forney Esqrs. The former of the "Bellefonte Watchman" some time since of the Bellefonte "Watchman." The "Central Press" is to be independent in politics, and devoted to the mineral and industrial interests generally of the county. From the well known character of these gentlemen, they will doubtless publish an interesting and useful sheet. With their independent position, if maintained, we have no fault to find; but we had much rather have seen them, take one side or the other. But here's our hand any how.

A modern writer says: "It may seem strange, but it is a fact, that men generally are much more afraid of women than women are of men."

Brown remarks that the fact is not strange at all; for in both cases the fear is proportioned to the danger.

Candid, but ungallant.

A drunken chap blundering through the dark hall of his boarding-house, was accosted by his landlady to know if he did not wish a candle. "Thunder no!" said he, "it's so cursed dark out here that I could not see if I had eight!"

"Wonderful things are done now-a-days," said Mr. Timmons: "the doctor has given Flick's boy a new lip from his cheek!" "Ah!" said the old lady, "many's the time I've known a pair taken from mine, and no very painful operation, either."

How COFFEE came to be used, it is somewhat singular to trace the manner in which arose the use of the common beverage of coffee, without which few persons, in any half or wholly civilized country in the world, now make a breakfast. At the time Columbus discovered America, it had never been known or used. It only grew in Arabia and Upper Ethiopia. The discovery of its use as a beverage is ascribed to the superior of a monastery, in Arabia, who, desirous of preventing the monks from sleeping at their nocturnal services, made them drink the infusion of coffee, upon the report of shepherds, who observed that their flocks were more lively after browsing on the fruit of that plant. Its reputation spread through the adjacent countries, and in about 200 hundred years it had reached Paris. A single plant brought there in 1714, became the parent stock of all the French coffee plantations in the West Indies. The Dutch introduced it into Java and the East Indies, and the French and Spanish all over South America and the West Indies. The extent of the consumption can now hardly be realized. The United States alone annually consume it at the cost of its landing, of from fifteen to sixteen millions of dollars. That of tea is a little over eight millions of dollars. You may know the Arabian or Mocha, the best coffee, by its small bean of a dark yellow color. The Java and East Indian, next in quality are larger and of a paler yellow. The West Indian Rio has a bluish or greenish gray tint.

A SKIRMISH WITH THE BUFFALOES.—An officer of the army, writing from the camp on the Platte: "On the 4th of July we first struck the buffalo. The excitement was intense. The recruits, in their enthusiasm, broke through discipline, and blazed away at a small herd crossing the road in front of them. Some three or four bulls ran parallel to a light battery, where the artillerymen commenced peppering them with Col's revolvers. Stung by these leaden bullets, the animals wheeled in line and charged the battery with the most warlike intentions. Down they came with glancing eyes, and away went the horses and pieces in the most inglorious manner. One piece ran to the rear, and another struck off a quarter of a mile into the prairie, before the affrighted horses became manageable. The dragoons and infantry of course had a hearty laugh at the vanquished artillery, but had they been charged, one half the former would probably have found a seat somewhere else, and the latter scattered rapidly, without standing at all on the order of their going. Indeed, if there is any military combination composed of flesh and blood, capable of solidly withstanding the charge of an infuriated herd of buffalo, I have yet to find it out."

LUKE SERMONS.—"Well John, have you been in church this evening," inquired a father of his youthful son. "Of course I was." "How was the sermon?" "About an hour too long."

A TRUST FOR THE LADIES.—"The fair daughters of America—may their virtues expand like their skirts, and their voices grow small and beautifully less, like their bonnets."

The trust brought down the house, and especially the ladies.

A CARD.

From Dr. James M. Jarrett, of THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.

My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve year's course of steady devotion to the CURE OF

Pulmonary Consumption, and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantages of pathological research—added not a little by a perfect system of

MEDICAL INHALATION, has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the THROAT, LUNGS AND AIR-PASSAGES.

By inhalation the curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organ and the Integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of ORAL TREATMENT; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both GENERAL and LOCAL treatment. The success of my treatment is the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or commendation from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above clarity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping, therefore, that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I was never consulted personally, for or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, are prepared to suit each individual case.

Inhaling Vapors, Medical INHALERS,

Ac. &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canada.

TERMS: My terms of treatment by letter are as follows viz:—$12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also inhaling vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on the receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance $6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely on immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D. No. 820 Broadway, cor. Tweelck St., N. Y. P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our Improved Apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.

Whether Relief was Experienced.

Let the afflicted give it a trial—a single bottle will convince the most skeptical of its efficacy.

Dr. J. M. LINDSEY: Dear Sir—I take pleasure in acknowledging the great benefit your Improved Blood Searcher has been to my son. He has been afflicted with what physicians called a scrophulous disease of the absorbing glands of the stomach. He has been afflicted with this disease from infancy. He is now fifteen years of age; during all this time he has had several severe attacks, and all the food taken into the stomach imparted little strength to the system. I had several eminent physicians attending him, but I found very little advantage, as the disease still returned with all its usual consequences.

In April 1857, he had a violent attack, so much so, that all who saw him supposed he was in the last stage of Consumption. I was advised to try your Blood Searcher; I accordingly procured one bottle of it, and by the time he had used it he appeared restored to perfect health.

It is now one year since he used your invaluable Blood Searcher, and I am perfectly satisfied it has saved him from an untimely grave. I now unhesitatingly recommend it to all who may be similarly afflicted, and deem it no more than justice to bear this public testimony to its virtues.

Respectfully yours, &c. JAMES F. DEVLIN, Postoffice Station, A. P. R. Road. Mr. Devlin is well known to the citizens of Indiana and Westmoreland counties. July 6, 1858.
