

CHILDREN ALONE IN A BALLOON

The correspondent at the Illinois Fair at Centralia acquaints us of the following thrilling occurrence. Mr. G. W. Brooks, a distinguished astronomer, was advertised to make an ascension from a spot contiguous to the Fair grounds, on Friday evening, after the closing exercises of the Fair. Instead, however, of going up himself, he yielded to the solicitations of a young man who has been traveling around with him learning the theory and practice of ballooning, and who begged that, as the evening was so fine, he might be allowed to test the value of his knowledge by a little experience. The young man, whose name has escaped the recollection of our informant, made the ascension in beautiful style, in the presence of thousands of admiring and wondering people. The atmosphere was so quiet that he rose almost vertically to a great height, and then, when it was supposed he would descend, the balloon passed into a current of air which bore it away to the southeast, and finally carried it out of sight. It was said that Mr. Brooks was much annoyed at his pupil for refusing to descend before striking the current of air which bore him away from the scene of the ascension. He did not return until Sunday morning, about day-break, and then communicated an account of his most thrilling experiences. The current of air which bore him off to the southeast carried him a distance of about twenty miles before he thought of descending. By means of his grappling-irons the descent was made with safety and ease, and he found himself alighted near a farm-house, the inmates of which regarded him with the greatest wonder and gratification. The balloon was made fast to a fence, and after a short conversation with the farmer and his wife, they were persuaded to make ascensions of a few hundred feet, at a time. The balloon, relieved of all extra weight, rose readily and was easily pulled down again by means of the anchor rope. The farmer and his wife were highly pleased with their trips, and while expressing their gratification, two of their small children, one five and the other three years of age, who had been looking on with astonishment, scrambled into the car and cried out, "Let me go up!" "Let me go up!"

The ascension proceeded at once to gratify them, but from some carelessness or accident as he was letting them up, the rope slipped from his hands, and the balloon mounted upward with the velocity of a rocket. The frantic agony of the parents and the consternation of the attendant may be imagined. In a minute or two the balloon had passed entirely out of sight, and was lost in the blue depths of the sky. Nothing could be done but to hasten back to Mr. Brooks, at Centralia, and ask his advice. Saturday morning at daybreak, a farmer near New Carthage, forty-three miles distant from Mr. Harvey's place, discovered the balloon suspended in the air, attached by the grappling rope to a tree in his yard. He immediately hauled the balloon down, and found the youngest child asleep in the bottom of the basket, and the eldest carefully watching over her little brother. They had been wafted about by the different currents of air throughout the night, and had come to a halt but a little while before they were relieved. The story the girl told was that as the balloon ascended she cried piteously to her father to pull it down. She said she passed over a town where she saw a great many people, to whom she likewise appealed at the top of her voice. This place was Centralia. The balloon was seen to pass over there, but the people little imagined it carried two persons in such danger. Her little brother cried with cold, and the heroic girl took off her apron, covered him and got him to sleep. In handling the ropes she happened to pull one which had the effect of bringing the balloon down, and although not understanding the philosophy of the movement, she was quite content to keep the valve open, so long as by so doing she found she approached the earth. The youthful aerial voyagers were in the balloon about thirteen hours and a quarter. It may easily be imagined that among the neighbors where they landed they were the objects of much curiosity and interest. The girl's presence of mind and love and consideration for her brother, may well entitle her to remembrance, while the incident itself was of such a remarkable character that we opine it will not soon be forgotten in that section. The boy and girl were conveyed home as soon as practicable, and it is needless to say were received with outstretched arms.

AERIAL EXPEDITION ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.—The Troy Times uses the following language with reference to an aerial expedition across the ocean: "The scheme of crossing the ocean with a balloon has been proposed by Messrs. Wise and Steiner, and each has offered to build an air ship of the requisite size, and make the trip, but has failed of getting a subscription of twenty thousand dollars for the purpose. Mr. La Mountain says he will remain in this city during the present winter, and build a balloon sixty-five feet in diameter, with an expansive power of five tons, with which he will cross the ocean, starting from the city in May next, and land within 25 miles of any given point in Europe. He has discovered a principle which will enable him to retain the gas in his balloon for any given length of time, and he is confident that the air can be navigated as well as the water, and with as little difficulty. He does not ask twenty thousand dollars to make the attempt, and is willing to encounter the attendant risks without any immediate prospect of reward. We are glad the trial is to be made at this point. Whether it is a success or failure, it will be a rare sight to witness the departure from our midst of a balloon inflated with 150,000 feet of gas, and carrying a ship provided with apparatus for navigating the air."

PAST AND PRESENT.—When first we did to maidens zeeed. Their hearts alone they eased in steel? But now more caution they display, And wear steel armor all the way. "I can't bear children," said Miss M. indignantly. Mrs. Partington looked at her over her spectacles mildly but replied: "Perhaps if you could you would like them better."

Three Hundred Mormons Renouncing the Faith

From the Jefferson City (Mo.) Herald, Sept. 1. From the arrival of a man named Herbert Branden, who has been furnished with the following information from Salt Lake: "I left," says our informant, "Camp Scott on the 13th of June. The Mormon train had passed Camp Scott on their way to the States. They stated, while en route, that they would not have been permitted to leave, or they would have abandoned Salt Lake long ago. On being questioned as to their determination to assist the entrance of the United States troops, they replied that the major part of the Mormons only awaited the entrance of the troops in order to effect their escape from Brigham Young. On their arrival at Camp Scott they were minus the common necessities of life, being asked the cause of their destitute condition, they stated that before Brigham Young had relented from his determination to resist the troops, he had ordered them to deposit what provisions they had in the storehouse; but as soon as he made known his intention of going South, those of the Mormons who refused to go were deprived of all, and they could get nothing for their outfit. They also stated that, but for the interference of Governor Cumming, the destroying angels would have forced them away, and that they did succeed in instances in driving away several women. I came down with the two Mormon trains from Camp Scott, numbering about 300 persons, who were chiefly English and Scotch; and the principal topic of their conversation throughout, was the absurdity of Mormonism and its principles. They were all unanimous in their denunciations of Brigham Young and his apostles, and talked of his assassination by the Mormons who remained at Fort Scott, as a sure event. They have all, without exception, become disgusted with Mormonism, and have renounced it, and express their desire to return to their native countries, and would, if they had the means to do so, in order that they might be instrumental in saving others from the baneful influence of Mormonism."

LET'S VICTIMIZE.—A few days since an aged man, named Wm. Frazer, was arrested in Baltimore, Md., and taken back to Norristown, N. J., where he had escaped from jail, having been confined for counterfeiting. Some years ago, a young man was living in New York city, in grand style. He had a large business, connections, and was so much engaged by the world's glitter and display that he took no time to look after his sister, at that time a poor teacher in one of the boarding schools of New York. That man was William Frazer. The once poor teacher lives now at Paris, in the Palais Bourbon, on the Champs Elysee, and is the wife of Prince Lumen Murat. She made every night of kings and crowns, while her unfortunate brother is awaiting his sentence to the State Prison.

A GOOD OYE.—The Harrisburg Telegraph tells a huge story about a train on the Central Railroad being detained by grass-hoppers. It looks incredible. We will, however, give the story as they render it: We understand from the engineers on the Central Railroad that the speed of the locomotive is considerably decreased by the immense swarms of grass-hoppers between Lancaster and Philadelphia. One of them stated that his train was forty minutes behind at that point, owing to the number of grass-hoppers on the track, and that he was obliged to use twenty buckets of sand, which was thrown on the rails in front of the driving wheels to enable him to get along at all. It is probable as this story may appear its truth is vouched for by the engineers above alluded to.

THE STATE CANALS.—We learn from Harrisburg that the sale of the State Canals has been fully consummated. Mr. Moorhead, the President of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company, having just concluded with the Governor, State Treasurer and Attorney General, the closing of the entire transaction, namely, the paying of the Commonwealth, as provided in the third section of the law authorizing the sale, 75 per cent. of the excess of the price, three and a half millions, at which the Canals were sold to the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company. This excess amounted to two hundred and eighty-one thousand and two hundred and fifty dollars.

THREE COMETS VISIBLE.—The three comets now visible are set as follows: Donaus—In the constellation Ursa Major; Risus—3h. 16m. A. M., N. E. by North; Sotus—3h. 41m. P. M., N. W. by North. Evel's—In the constellation Cancer; Risus—1h. 07m. A. M., North-East; Sotus—5h. 17m. P. M., North-west. Talle's—In the constellation Perseus. This Comet has just come within the circle of perpetual apparition, and therefore does not set to us. It is on the meridian, above the Pole, at 3h. 34m. in the morning.

THE GREAT PURIFIER

TO PRODUCE ITS EQUAL THE BLOOD SEARCHER. SUGGESTION BY THE HON. SENATOR OF MASSACHUSETTS. David M. Cheney, of Natick township, Bedford county. In April, 1858, as near as I can remember, a small child made its appearance at my upper lip, which soon became enlarged and put on a red and swollen state, and a vein of blood shot out, without effect. Philip the red extended I washed on Tr. Ry. of Philadelphia, who pronounced it CANCER, and prescribed a wash of sugar of lead, and bread poultices. Finding these remedies of no avail I called on Dr. Charles DeWitt, of Philadelphia, who also pronounced the disease CANCER, and gave me a prescription of the same nature, and gave me a small quantity of the same, but all to no effect. The disease continued spreading toward the nose, I next used a preparation of arsenic in the form of salve. This for a time checked the disease, but the inflammation soon increased. I next called on Dr. Studer of St. Charlesville, Bedford county, who also pronounced the disease CANCER, and applied a salve said to be a never failing remedy, but it had no effect whatever in checking the spread of the sore. In November of the same year, the disease had now nearly reached the eye, and I had ordered them to deposit what provisions they had in the storehouse; but as soon as he made known his intention of going South, those of the Mormons who refused to go were deprived of all, and they could get nothing for their outfit. They also stated that, but for the interference of Governor Cumming, the destroying angels would have forced them away, and that they did succeed in instances in driving away several women. I came down with the two Mormon trains from Camp Scott, numbering about 300 persons, who were chiefly English and Scotch; and the principal topic of their conversation throughout, was the absurdity of Mormonism and its principles. They have all, without exception, become disgusted with Mormonism, and have renounced it, and express their desire to return to their native countries, and would, if they had the means to do so, in order that they might be instrumental in saving others from the baneful influence of Mormonism."

NEW EVIDENCE.—Being afflicted with a grievous letter on the anus and rectum—after trying many remedies which utterly failed to cure—I was persuaded by W. M. Harris & Co. to try Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher and now, six weeks after finishing the second bottle, pronounce myself cured. The letter has quite something over a year ago, on the inside of my arms, extending from the elbow down to the wrist; also, on my face, immediately round the mouth and chin, and continued to be a perfect torment to me until cured by the Blood Searcher. My arms, at times, were almost useless, owing to the cracks and sores on them, liable to bleed at any time on the least exertion to lift or work, and sometimes so itchy that I could scarcely prevent tearing off my flesh. I have now been cured six weeks, and feel it due to Mr. Lindsey, and to the public generally, to make this statement, in hope that others like myself may be benefited by using his valuable medicine. JANE WILSON, mark.
