

CLEARFIELD, October 21, 1858.

All the Deceay.

Our dear town neighbor... All the deceay... Well that's rather cool, to say the least of it.

It becomes our painful duty to record the overwhelming defeat sustained by the Democratic party at the late election... The true causes of the heavy losses...

Table with columns for Districts, Republican, Democrat, and Total. Lists various townships like Beccaria, Bell, Boggs, Bradford, etc., with their respective vote counts.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RETURNS COME IN VERY slowly, but enough we think have been flooding the country for months with his manifestoes and proclamations...

By these figures it will be seen that no slight variations in the returns in the counties from which no official returns have yet been received could change the aspect of the case...

LEGISLATIVE RETURNS have been received from all the counties in the district... They foot up as follows: In the whole district Dr. Boyer has 3598 votes...

FROM ADJOINING STATES, we have a mass of incongruous returns, which are entirely too voluminous for our columns... as is also California.

A BELTIVE BANK.—A movement is in progress in New York for the establishment of a bank... The plan is to found a bank which shall discount only to the extent of its own capital.
