

CLEARFIELD November 11, 1858.

A NICE CHARACTER.

As a Supreme Court of Vermont, Mr. Sarah A. Mott was divorced from her husband, Mr. Darwin Mott, by the Vermont...

How often could the history of the members of a class of unscrupulous adventurers, of which every community has its share, be written in the above brief but comprehensive chapter.

A GREAT HISTORICAL FACT.—The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "There is one stern, undeniable historical fact, which completely destroys all the points urged for argument and made in behalf of the Republican organization."

Humiliating Confession.—The Philadelphia North American makes the following humiliating confession since the election.

Overwhelming as the victory has been here, and throughout the State, the majority would have been still more imposing in this city but for the complexion of our legislative ticket.

KEYING NOT DEAD.—The death of the distinguished Chinese Statesman Keying, who was alleged to have fallen by the tyrannical edict of the ruler of the "Celestial" Empire, under the axe of the executioner, is contradicted by the late foreign arrival.

ELECTIONS.—The elections are not all over yet. The stockholders of the Curwensville Bridge Co. are to have an election on Friday Dec. 3rd, for a board of officers.

PROCLAMATION

OF THE GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA. FELLOW CITIZENS.—The goodness of God to us as a people calls for our public acknowledgement, and our grateful praise.

PROBABLE MURDER.—An unknown man was found lying on the railroad track opposite Mr. Wood's Hotel, in this place, on yesterday morning. He was at first supposed to be about five o'clock when he was entirely extinct.

PAUL MORPHY after having conquered in the great chess contest in Paris recently, is to have another antagonist of world-wide reputation, as a champion.—Herr Anderson, the well known victor in the tournament of 1851, is now on his way to Paris to contend against the young American champion.

EDUCATION IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The unostentatious State of North Carolina has disbursed from its literary fund, for the support of schools and for the education of deaf and dumb children, during the years 1855-1856 the sum of $306,255.

AMERICAN.—Signs visible in Hall's Journal of health, from the depths of his profound wisdom and sagacity, puts forth the following abstruse dictum, which some snobs as was evidently the writer, says "should be remembered and acted upon by every parent in the land."

TO THE AUTHOR OF THE ABOVE PARAGRAPH, it has evidently never occurred that accomplishments, are only the gilding and ornaments of a character, and not the basis and groundwork of it.

There is too much of such snobbish trash, circulated in the columns of newspapers at the present day, much of which finds its way into them without their bearing and tendency being noticed by editors.

IF WE ARE TO HAVE PRECEPTS, let them be adapted to all classes, and if that can not be had, let them be applicable to the largest. Let them point to the improvement of the masses, by directing their pursuits into channels of usefulness, such as will fit them for all the vicissitudes of fortune in the great battle of life.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE COMPANY.—The list of American stockholders in the Atlantic Telegraph Company is as follows: Cyrus W. Field, Peter Cooper, David D. Field, August Belmont, John C. Group, Wilson G. Hunt, Jacob Little, A. M. Lawrence, Mathew Morgan, Henry S. Margant, S. T. Trimble, B. H. Van Anker, Most Rev. John Hughes, Estate of Mortimer Livingston, Messrs A. A. Law & Bro. Messrs. Duncan, Sherman & Co., Messrs. Schward & Gephard, Messrs. W. H. Sale & Co., Messrs Phelps, Dodge & Co., Mrs. E. W. Perkins all of New York city; E. B. Stevens, esp. of Saratoga Springs, New York, and Wm. Dow, esp. of Montreal, Canada. Cyrus W. Field owns two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the stock.

NEW STEAM CANAL BOAT.—The Spruce (N. E.) Journal says that a firm in that city is building a new steam canal boat. It differs from all other steam canal craft in this particular—instead of a screw wheel placed in the stern of the boat, it has regular paddle wheels at its sides, which are movable or adjustable, and on approaching a lock they are drawn in sufficiently to allow the boat to pass through the locks.

GREAT RAILROAD CASE.—In the United States Circuit Court at Chicago, on Monday, Judge McLean presiding, the case of George C. Bates vs. the Illinois Central Railroad Company, being an action of ejectment brought for the recovery of the depot grounds of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, was brought to trial.

BRIGADIER GENERAL A. HENDERSON, Commandant of the Marine corps, being on a tour of inspection, yesterday visited the Marine Barracks at this station. The old hero is the cotemporary of STEWART, and assisted in his most brilliant naval engagements, viz: the capture of the Cyane and Levant. General HENDERSON was afterwards brevetted for distinguished services rendered whilst commanding the regiment of marines that served in the Florida war. The old soldier takes the liveliest interest in his important command, and his energy and professional devotion have rendered it one of the most popular branches of the national defenses. We trust he may grace his present position for many years to come.

YEAST ON A "BUSI".—At Detroit, the other day, as a man employed in the office of the American Express Company was sweeping out, a keg of yeast intended for a Dutch brewer, went off with an explosion that startled sleepers in the Michigan Exchange, and nearly drove the sweeper out of his senses.

There is a woman now living in Shippen, C. E. by the name of Willey, who has had no natural sleep for over fourteen years. She is of Scotch descent, and formerly lived in Karet in this State, she is about seventy years of age. The doctors decided some time ago that the organ, or faculty to sleep was by some means destroyed. She goes to bed regularly as ever at night, and she often says weawsome nights are appointed unto her.

A sick man, slightly convalescing, recently imagined himself to be engaged in conversation with a pious friend congratulating him upon his recovery, and asking him who his physician was, he replied, "Dr.—brought me through." "No, no," said his friend, "Providence brought you out of your illness, not the doctor." "Well," replied him, "may be I did, but I am certain that the doctor will charge me for it."

THE LEGISLATURE of Minnesota has passed a law exempting a homestead of eighty acres from a levy for debts incurred also $300 worth of household furniture; $300 worth of tools, the library of a professional man, and provisions enough to support the family one year.

HEART RENDERING.—In Buffalo, Mrs. E. Z. C. Judson, the gifted and beautiful wife of the notorious Ned Buntline was found lying dangerously ill in a miserable hotel, utterly destitute and alone. She is a writer of great ability, and a woman of marvelous loveliness.

THE ELECTIONS.—The elections which took place the first week in this month in several of the States of the Union, have resulted about as follows: New York has gone Republican by a large majority, E. D. Morgan, Republican having been elected Governor, together with a large proportion of the members of Congress. In Illinois a majority of the State Legislature elect, are friends of Judge Douglas, which secures his election to the United States Senate over Lincoln, Republican. New Jersey is also largely Republican, as of course is Massachusetts, while gallant little Delaware has proved herself faithful to her Democracy. Upon the whole the Democratic party have not been so very badly beaten, especially when we consider that our opponents will find that a very difficult portion of their task remains to be accomplished—that of turning their victory to advantage; a consummation that it is extremely doubtful whether they can ever effect.

DISOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. The books will remain at their old office, where Dr. Hartwick can be found at all times, either to settle or attend to professional calls.
