

Divine Service.

The Rev. Lloyd Knight, of Hollidaysburg, will with Divine permission administer the Lord's Supper, on the second Sabbath in March, in the Lutheran Church in Clearfield. Services to commence on Friday evening, the 11th of March, at early candle-light. The public are kindly invited to attend.

Literary Society.

We have been requested to announce that the young men of this place contemplate forming a literary society, and intend holding a meeting with that object, at the office of Walter Barrett, this evening at half past six o'clock. The young men of Clearfield are respectfully invited to be present.

THE WHY AND WHEREFORE.—Our readers have doubtless been very much disappointed at the abrupt breaking off of the story entitled "Sea-Waif," portions of which we published in our last two papers, and we are free to confess that we would feel just as they do under like circumstances; but we have a reasonable, and we think also a legal, excuse for the deed. And that is, that we published them for a consideration—got paid for them. And in such times as these, it can scarcely be regarded as a prudent act to decline doing anything that will "pay." We regret the necessity that compels us to resort to any thing like a "sell," to obtain the material necessary to carry on the "Republican," as much as any one can regret not being furnished the balance of the story. In doing so however, we have not encroached upon our reading columns and have given the usual amount exclusive of "Sea-waif."

Francis J. Smith's new story—"Azid Kan," of which a portion was given, properly an advertisement, published in our usual advertising columns.

THE TIMBER BUSINESS.—Owing to the lack of snow, much of the timber made during the season will remain in the woods, and the amount that will be got to market considerably less than usual, and than would have been, if there had been good hauling.

LIFE SPEECHES, &c. of Daniel Webster. We refer our readers, and especially those persons desiring to act as agents, to the advertisement in this paper of this new work from the pen of Samuel M. Smucker, Esq., a gentleman of considerable celebrity as a historian. This will doubtless be a most valuable and interesting work, and should grace the library of every lover of American literature.

THE CHANGES of the weather have recently been so sudden and frequent that we might imagine ourselves in a continual oscillation between the Torrid zone and the Arctic circle. Some times, (to use the expression of a friend of ours,) the weather changes about forty times within twenty-four hours. Perhaps this is exaggerated, but at all events we would not like to throw off more than a few "snakes"; and if we refused the number to about two dozen, we should persist in refusing to come down "another dog."

MARRIED.

In Luthersburg, on the 24th ult., by G. H. Goodlander, Esq., Mr. John Jamison of Jefferson county to Miss Harriet Luther, daughter of Rev. Luther Luther, Esq., Luthersburg.

DIED.

On Tuesday the 22nd, ult., at the residence of his father, after a short illness, Mr. Charles Walters, son of Jacob Walters Esq. of Bell tp., aged 25 years and 11 months.

In Luthersburg, on the 27th Feb., Mr. James M. Stebbins aged about 21 years.

At his residence in Rose township, on Thursday, the 17th inst., Major John Lewis, in the 82d year of his age. Major Lewis was buried in this county at a very early period, and it may be said that he is one of the pioneers of Jefferson county. He was much esteemed by all who knew him, a kind parent, a devoted husband and an humble, sincere Christian.—Brooklyn Jeffersonian, SPIRIT SPRING.

On Our Table.

THE ELK REPORTER, has just paid us one of its semi-occasional visits, or the purpose of announcing that the present proprietor, J. A. BOYLE, Esq., has sold the establishment to Tabbeus Luther, Esq., and accordingly closes his editorial connection with the paper in the number now before us. We regret to lose Mr. Boyle from the editorial ranks; but we must acquiesce in his determination, as it is his privilege to decide for himself, and he doubtless consults his own inclinations and interests in doing so. May success attend him. The Reporter will hereafter be under the editorial charge of Capt. P. W. Barrett, of Luthersburg, in this county, a practical printer and a gentleman in every way qualified to make it an excellent county paper, and we bespeak for him the patronage of the people of Elk county.

THE BRASSER GAZETTE.—We failed to notice at the time the retirement of Mr. Hibbs from the Brassier Gazette, and the assuming by Allen B. Tate Esq., formerly of the Columbia Democrat, of the editorial direction of that paper. However by not doing so until now, we are enabled to speak from observation of the improved appearance of the Gazette, which is now as neatly printed, as interesting and as spirited a little sheet as can be met with along the North Branch or in fact anywhere else. We wish Mr. Tate all the success and encouragement his efforts to please his subscribers entitles him to.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The March number of this ably conducted magazine has been received, and we have no hesitation in pronouncing it equal in the quality of its reading matter to any magazine of the day. Philip Sampson & Co., 13 Water St., Boston, at $3 per annum, or 25 cents per number. Upon the receipt of the subscription paid, the publishers will mail the work to any part of the U. S. prepaid.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—The March number of this valuable and handsomely printed farmers Magazine has made its appearance on our table, and is fully equal, if not superior, in its editorial execution as well as its reading matter, to any former number.

ANECDOTE OF QUEEN VICTORIA.—The following anecdote of her Britannic Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, who is also the wife of Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg, we copy from an exchange without pretending to vouch for its authenticity. But whether true or not it contains a moral that married ladies who undertake to come the "strong minded" game over their non-resisting husbands, might apply with profit. If the Island Queen did as is related in the anecdote, it is evident that the wife is not entirely absorbed in the monarch.

It is reported that her Majesty has a sweet little temper of her own, and that her carriage, like a prudent man, generally retires before the storm, and looks himself in his private cabinet until the key is clear, and sunshine again illumines the classic shades of St. James or Windsor. After one of these little ebullitions, the Queen gave a thundering knock at the door of the room where Prince Albert had taken refuge, and upon being asked "Who's there?" responded, "The Queen cannot enter here," responded the henpecked. After the lapse of an hour, a gentle tap was heard upon the door. "Who's there?" asked Prince Albert. "Your wife," responded Victoria. "My wife is always welcome," was the gallant reply.

DOG-MAN.—They must have dogs in New York, of no ordinary sagacity and practical experience in rural employments. The following story is related by an exchange with the gravity with which it would report the proceedings of a religious revival; and of course no one would doubt its reliability. We would like to possess a dog-caricature of such an illustrious specimen of the canine race:

One day during the recent sleighing, Mr. Eber Hart, of Brighton, N. Y., harnessed a pair of spirited young horses to a sleigh, partially loaded. The horses took flight while standing without a driver, and ran away. A large mastiff owned by Mr. Hart, saw the horses start and gave chase, pursuing for half a mile before he overtook the runaway. He passed them, and by presenting himself in the track in front of them endeavored to check their speed; but to no purpose—they actually ran faster for the barking of the dog. Failing in this the dog dropped out of the track, and following behind, he seized the reins, drawing upon the ground, and did not relax his hold until the team stopped. After he had been drawn for some distance, his pull became greater upon one than the other, which drew the horses toward a fence, where they stopped.

COUNTING INTEREST.—The Detroit Advertiser gives a new method of computing interests on any number of dollars, at six per cent., which appears simple:

"Separate the right hand figure by a point, and the figure on the left hand of the separating point will be the interest in cents for six days—the figure on the right of the point the amount of a cent. Multiply the whole amount by five to find months; for thirty days, and this sum by two for sixty days, three for ninety days, &c. For any number of days less than six take the fractional part of the interest for six. Care must be taken to separate the right hand figures of the dollars, whether there be cents or mills in the given sum or not."

THE SENTRY & FIRE RAIL-ROADS.—The report of the President of the Sundry and Erie Railroad, holds out the very gratifying prospect that the cars will be running from Philadelphia to Erie in about two years. The letting of the middle division, it is supposed, will take place at an early day, and it is the intention of the company to push forward the work with all possible despatch.

The Boston Post says:—"All the distinguished strangers, the 42d Highlanders, Mr. Charles Dickens, Mr. Spurgeon, Queen Victoria, Kossovit, Montalbert, and others, have concluded to remain where they are for the season. Nobody is coming to the United States—not a furrier, not a Hood-and-tan, and not a patriot—except Mr. Smith O'Brien, notwithstanding the recent reports to the contrary. We shall have to look up a domestic hero."

JAMES W. CLARK, Esq., editor of the Locomotive Gazette, has been appointed by Gov. Packard, Grain Measurer, at Philadelphia, in place of James Allison, Esq., deceased.

The Twenty-Second in Brady.

In pursuance of previous arrangements a large concourse of the citizens of Brady township met in the New Salem School House, for the purpose of celebrating the anniversary of the birthday of Washington.

On motion of LIEUT. G. W. LANG, Jas. L. Morgan was appointed to the Chair, Jas. C. Barrett, Lieut. G. W. Lang, and Daniel Haines, Vice Presidents; Geo. J. Morgan, and J. W. Pauley, Secretaries. The President then stated the object of the meeting in a few brief but very appropriate remarks.

On motion, a committee were appointed to draft resolutions, consisting of the following named persons, viz.: J. W. Potter, Tolbert Dale, David Reams, John Helgou, and M. C. Clark.

Martial music being next in order, the Luthersburg Band, under the supervision of Maj. M. H. Lullin, struck up "Hail Columbia." The music was then entertained for some time by the singing of songs by the Luthersburg String Band.

Numerous toasts suitable to the occasion, were then offered, all of which were heartily responded to.

Mr. J. W. Potter, was then called upon to address the meeting which he did in a very enthusiastic manner. Mr. James C. Barrett, being then loudly called for, bringing down the applause of the house. Rev. Jno. P. D. le, and others, made a few remarks, after which the following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That we do highly appreciate the spirit manifested here this evening, the anniversary of the birthday of the hero of American Independence.

Resolved, That every patriot should hail it as one of the most heartfelt memories that we as a nation, have the privilege of celebrating.

Resolved, Let England boast of her Wellington, France of her Bonaparte, but it remains for us to claim Washington as ours. "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be tendered to the officers, and to the Luthersburg Band, for the manner in which they have enlivened the audience.

Resolved, That the county papers be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet the 22d of February, 1859.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER, with thirty-three stars, was hoisted on the Capitol simultaneously with the announcement of the signing of the Oregon Bill by the President. It had been made and was hoisted by order of Mr. C. S. Jones, Doorkeeper of the Senate.

GOOD MEMORY.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot relates the following anecdote of Senator Chestnut's wife, which furnishes a happy instance of graceful recollection. Fifteen years ago, Major H—, who was a fellow passenger with Mr. Chestnut and his wife, on a homeward bound European packet, began the recital of a story to them, in which he was interrupted, and no opportunity occurring for its conclusion before the termination of the voyage, the passengers became separated at New York, and remained so until a day or two ago, when the Major waited upon his former acquaintances to welcome them to Washington.—The first greeting over Mrs. Chestnut, with a smile of pleasant expectation, said:—"Now Major H—, pray relate the rest of that story."

WILL AN OYSTER EXPLODE?—A number of gentlemen in this place, who were disposed to have a good time on Wednesday night last, procured amongst other "good things," a can of Baltimore oysters, which they concluded to stew en masse, without taking them out of the can. They were placed in a stove, the door closed, and the fire began to crackle around the "stew." The boys had gathered about the stove, anticipating a feast, when all at once a tremendous explosion sent stove, fire, ashes and oysters to Davy Jones'. As the steam rose, the can exploded, and broke up the feast.—San Andrew (Mo.) Independent.

Scrofula, or King's Evil.

It is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is exempt from its attacks, and the disease which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is invariably caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, and filthy habits, the depressing view, and, above all, by the Venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children, and the third and fourth generation; indeed, it seems to be the root of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

It effects commences by deposition from the blood of corrupt or albumen matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is transformed into tubercles in the glands, swellings, and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This corruption, which pervades the blood, deprives the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases, consequently, vast numbers perish by diseases which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in the scrofulous contamination, and many dangerous diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and all the organs, arise from, or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To clear it from the system we must remove the blood by an alternative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in AYER'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this evil, every where prevailing and fatal malady. This compound is the most active remedial that has been discovered for the expurgation of this fluid disorder from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERYTHEMA and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, RASHES OF THE FACE, ITCHING, TETTER, BRUITS, BLOTCHES, AND OTHER TUBERCLES, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC AND MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROOPY, DYSPEPSIA, DIBETES, &c. Indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIALIZED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills, are so prepared that disease within the range of their action rarely withers and or excruciating their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human system, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the individual who is afflicted with pain or physical debility is enabled to find his health of energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The great help named is pleased to furnish his American Agents, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Constipation, Headaches, Hoarseness, Indigestion, Irritability of the Bowels, Itching, Pimples, Loss of Appetite, Stomachic, and other humoral complaints, arising from a low state of the body, or debility of its functions.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been cured of chronic, and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what article to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted, who can never forget, and reproduced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
