Divine Service

The Rev. Mr. Focht, will preach in the Lutheran Church, in this place, on Sunday the 14th inst., at half-past 10 o'clock, A. M., and at 3 P. M., in Curwensville.

BIBLE MEETING.

A meeting of the Clearfield County Bible Society, will be held at the Presbyterian Church in Clearfield, on Tuesday evening, the 17th inst., at early candle lighting. Several addresses will be delivered. All are invited to attend.

A. McLeod, Pres't.

THE CROSSING.—The complaint against the crossing at the corners and other places along our streets, we find is quite general, and we cannot help adding, very just. A three hours moderate rain will at any time make them almost impassable, especially to the feminine portion of our citizens. A few dollars (not more than the cost of an oyster supper,) would place flag-stones upon all the principal crossings, that would ensure the comfort of passengers, and enhance the appearance of the town. Will not our Council see to it?

THE WEATHER.—During the ten days prior to yesterday, we had a season of most delightful spring weather imaginable, and every body was in ecstasies in consequence. Yesterday however, was a marked contrast, and to day is much like its predecessor—chilly, rainy, dismal and gloomy. Yet this will be of vast importance to vegetation, as the Earth had begun to need moisture, and the temperature is still favorable to its rapid growth.

Don't Forget when you come to Court, that it will be a very convenient season to pay us a visit and a little money on subscriptions. We are averse to dunning, but have desisted so long, and want the "needful" so much, that we are compelled to offer this slight hint, trusting it will be sufficient to procure relief for our pressing necessities. Remember, a little from each makes muckle to us.

FIRE IN THE WOODS.—For several days past, a fire has been raging on the mountain in the direction of the "Green Woods," and considerable apprehensions existed of danger to the timber in that region. Fortunately however, about the time it had reached the timber, the late rains commenced, and we presume they effectually arrested the devouring element for the present.

THE MIX SOCIETY held its last meeting last evening, at the residence of Col. J. L. Cutler, and was largely attended, the evening passed delightfully to all present. The next meeting will be at the residence of D. W. Moore Esq. on next Tuesday evening. A general attendance is invited.

"LOOK BEFORE YOU BUY," is a wise old proverb, and in its day was very applicable to the affairs of life, but to be adapted to the present age, it should be rendered, look, before you buy—your boots and shoes, at the elegant assortment offered to the public by Isaac Johnson.

Look out for the Circus!—This wonderful and astonishing institution is coming round to delight our citizens generally and young America in particular. It will be here on Friday the 20th inst., wind and waves permitting, ready to receive all the spare quarters that may be floating around on that day.

THE GAS COMPANY.—By reference to our advertising columns, will be found a call for a meeting of the Commissioners, appointed by the Legislature, at the Court house on Saturday next, to open the books and do all other things within their province that may be deemed expedient to further the design of illuminating our dwellings and streets with gas. It is of great importance and every body interested should give it their attention.

Dissolution.—The late firm of Merrill & Carter, has been recently dissolved and the business will be carried on at the old stand by Mr. O. B. Merrill who has taken the entire establishment.

REWARD.—The Sheriff offers twenty dollars reward for the apprehension of Owen McGovern who broke jail a few days ago. Won't some body bring Owen back?

WANTED.—Mr. John Guelich of this place wants a Journeyman Cabinet-maker, one who is a thorough workman.—See advertisement.

GROCERIES.—The attention of the citizens of Curwensville is called to Stephen Graff's new advertisement.

Who ever seen to-morrow?—(Tyron Star.) It is generally supposed that it was never saw—Our Devil, who is something of a grammarian.

THE WAY TO DO IT.—The Reading Daily Times gives the following advice:—If you want to keep your town from thriving, turn a cold-shoulder to every young mechanic or new beginner in business; look upon every new comer with a jealous scowl. Discourage all you can; if that don't do, deery his work, and rather go abroad for ware of this kind, than to give him your money. Last, though not least, refuse to take your home-paper.

JENNY LIND is advertised to give a series of concerts in England. It is said she has lost her fortune, and has set about making another. She has a Goldsmith for a husband; it will be, therefore an easy matter. She has, too, the ring of the true metal, and he is the metal itself: so beat away.

CENTRE COUNTY.—Our sister county seems to be at present the scene of some of the most daring robberies and burglaries known in the annals of crime. In the village of Milesburg one night, week before last, seven stores were entered and cash and other articles taken from nearly all of them. In that of Mr. Cook, the robber was caught by Mr. C's son, at the money till as he was picking out the change, and instead of being daunted he made an attempt to seize young Cook, the latter ran up stairs and awoke his father and when they came down they saw two men in front of the store, who left about that time, as Mr. C. was armed. Mr. Weaver's, Mr. Ryman's, Mr. Green's and other stores were either broken open or the attempt made.

On Sunday night as we stated in our last paper Mr. J. D. Harris of Bellefonte had a fine horse and wagon stolen, and a night or two previous, the Harris residence near the spring was entered and a quantity of provisions stolen.

The stolen horse and baggy were found standing on the turnpike near Reedsville in Mifflin co. on the next day after it was missing.

The horse of Mr. Gordon, stolen near Zion, on the Friday night previous, was found near Bellefonte the following morning.

J. S. Royal has been appointed Crier of the Supreme Court, at Harrisburg. "Josh" is a good Democrat and a very clever man, and we endorse his appointment as being an excellent one. Argus.

An editor "old West" gets off the following: "Mr. Spurgeon's visit to America is reported to be all a "sinner-stir" movement."

To the retiring editor we tender our fraternal wishes for his future prosperity.
