STRINGS

BY JOHN R. HOLMES.

Once on a time to try my skill, And see what I could do, I set me down and wrote a verse--Twas all about a shoe.

I gave it to a man of Lasts, He smiled, and felt his head, And said it was goog a thing As ever he had read. Another time when in a town

Not very far remote, I wrote a curious little song. A song about a coat. I saw a tailor on the street,

And up to him I ran, He took the piece, he read, and said I was a mighty man.

Another time when I was calm-As gentle as the dove,

I wrote a piece of sentiment, All tendernes and love, I met a pretty lady friend Who one true-lover had,

I read the poem to her at eve, It nearly drove her mad. Thus if you want to reach the heart

You'd better know the string, For all men have a curious way Of loving some one thing. If you imagine all must like

The same things just as you, Your wits have gone up Blunder hill, You'll never, never do.

AN EXTRAORDINARY HEIFES.-The following account of a Guernsey heifer, the reperty of Dr. Gibson, a well-known genleman of Philadelphia who has been noed for the excellence of his stock upon his farm, and who has for several months been a resident of the island of Guernsey, vill be read with interes::

A beifer, little more than two years and a half old, of uncommon size and beauty, bred by Mr. Nicholas Mellish, of Bon Air and now owned by Professor Gibson, of the United States of America, to which country she is intended to be sent, has attracted great attention for several weeks past. She is of deep mahogany red, interningled with a few spots of white on difterent parts of her body. Her skin is of Mullen & Muther brightest yellow, and her coat like With Liquors silk or velvet. All her points are nearly perfect, and in size she is superior pernaps to any animal of her age in the Island. Were it not for the striking peculiarities of the Guernsey race, which conspicuously belong to her, she might easily be mistaken for a splendid specimen of a Durham or Ayrshire cow. We understand that Mr. Mellish received a very large price for her, which may account for his permitting such an animal to leave the island. This magnificent and highbred creature has recently calved, and yields milk in quality and quantity equal to that of the finest cows which have had two or three calves; an effect likely to make speedy inroads upon a superfluous fat and flesh, and to make away much of that size and beauty which inherently belong to that particular class of milkers and butter makers from which she is known to be descended through a long and direct line. Professor Gibson, who is at present residing in Guernsey, and who great admirer of our bovine breed, which, for its dairy qualities, he considers superior to all others. He has, at different and in a good state of cultivation. The balance is well rimbered. Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional discate, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it porvades the whole leady, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attachs, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, dis-ordered or unhealthy food, impure sir, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venercal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, " I their children." Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, cruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevating and fatal malady. It is com-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Enverive and Skin Diseases, Sr. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Environas, Pimples, Pustules, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEEM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-RASES, DROPSY, DYSPERSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, all Complaints anising from Vitia-TED ON IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in them. contaminated constitutions.
