Notice Dr. A. M. Hills desires to inform his weeks of July, on a professional trip to Elk co.

CONTEMPTIBLE ROWDYISM.-We regret that it should become our duty as a faithful recorder of the events that fall beneath our knowledge, to speak in terms of condemnation of the conduct of some young men while returning from a singing school in the village of Paradise, in the vicinity of our borough, one night last week .-But we would be false to our convictions of our duty if we failed to hold up to publiescorn any creature in human semblance who would wantonly for the gratification of low and base feelings, insult females while returning from a place of amusement or instruction. We have been informed that such conduct was indulged by several young persons, whose names, in the hope that they will never allow themselves to be engaged in a like afiair again, we prefer to suppress. Obscene and vulgar language, insulting remarks, everything, in fact, that their debased imaginations could suggest that was outrageous nd offens ive to the ears of these defencelels young ladies were offered by those men. For shame we say I never again while the breath infused into your bodies by the Creator, continues to animate them. degrade yourselves, by such conduct .al sense of the community would assured constables taken. ly not allow you to go unscathed.

Lines on the death of Mother. If death our mother and us divide, Thou dost not Lord our sorrow chide, Or frown our tears to see;

Restrained from passionate excess Thou bidst us mourn in calm distress For those that rest with thee.

We feel a strong immortal hope, Which bears our mournful spirits up, Beneath their mountain load; Redeem'd from Death and griefand pain, Our mother we shall meet again,

Pass a few fleeting moments more, And Death the blessing shall restore, Which he has snatched away; For soon will come his messenger' To give us back our mother dear, In that eternal day.
