

CLEARFIELD, April 4, 1860.

GOVERNOR.

HENRY D. FOSTER.

THE CHARLESTON CONVENTION.—Various rumors and considerable discussion, have occupied the Democratic journals of the country for a few weeks in reference to the place of holding the next national Democratic Convention, objections having been made in some quarters to holding at Charleston S. C. We think however that public sentiment has settled down to the belief that Charleston is now the proper place to hold it; it being the one selected by the last National Convention at Cincinnati. The principal reason assigned for changing the place was the want of proper accommodations for all the people that will probably assemble on that occasion. This inconvenience will be obviated in various ways, so that all that have any call to go to the Convention can be entertained comfortably. In any event we would be inclined seriously to question both the authority of the National Committee to make a change, and the propriety of their doing so. The time of holding it has been fixed early, [the 23rd of April,] to suit the climate, and if there is and honor advantage in having the Convention, no State in the Union is better entitled to it than South Carolina.

CONSISTENT, VERY.—That [the] integrity, Glory to God Covode is the author of a resolution introduced into Congress for the purpose of enquiring whether any money was used in the campaign of 1856 to carry the election of Mr. Buchanan, and how much and in what manner. The following extract shows how sincere the man Covode is in seeking this investigation, and how free he is from the kind of corruption he professes to be anxious to expose.

The Republican Congressional Executive Committee at Washington, have issued a very pressing and earnest confidential circular, calling the Republican party to contribute money individually, in order that the Committee may be provided with the necessary means to distribute the Helper book and other Abolition documents, preparatory to the Presidential canvass. To the circular is appended the fac simile of the signature of each of the Committee, and among them Hon. John Covode, of Pennsylvania, as Treasurer of the Committee.—About John Covode, who only on Monday a week moved in the House a resolution for a select committee to inquire whether money had been used in Pennsylvania in the last Presidential election, and from what source it was obtained!

We see by its editorial columns that our amiable down town neighbor has been under renewed obligations one of its literary friends for a brilliant production, which is evidently intended to be very severe upon somebody. It is a fortunate circumstance that these explosions occur but rarely, as they are very destructive—Bull!

A man named Lavalley an engineer on the Williamsport & Elmira railroad, was fatally injured on last Thursday week by jumping from the locomotive as it was about to run over a tree lying across the track. He lingered until the evening of great pain. His remains were buried at Elmira with masonic honors.

An exchange says that nothing breaks a man's patience so effectually as to set him to breaking a new pair of boots. This is a trial to which printers, fortunately for themselves, are seldom exposed.

A down east Editor, gives as a fools maxim—"Absurdity is the spice of life.—It is doubtless original, with him.

WORK TO BE DONE.—Democrats will learn a useful lesson from the energy with which the Republicans work. They are distributing the Helper Book, the life of John Brown, the speeches of Wilson, Lincoln, and other "irrepressibles," issued in a cheap form, by hundreds of thousands, by which appliances they expect to prepare the popular mind for the election of a sectional President. It is time that Democrats were at work to counteract these malign influences. This can be done most readily by the circulation of Democratic Newspapers. Every Democrat should feel an immediate personal interest in this matter. Take hold of it at once. There is no time to be lost. The New York Tribune admits that if the Republicans win this battle it must be by the help of voters indifferent or hostile to the cause to-day. We have only to maintain our ground, keep what we have, prevent the enemy from taking possession of the wavering or lukewarm, and strengthen the faith and zeal of Democrats. Let not a moment be lost—Time is precious.—Work done early in the campaign is worth more than exertions at a late day. If the Democratic party of this State is defeated at the next election, it will be from want of proper exertions at this time, when labor is most effectual. We can't be defeated if we only do our duty. The current of popular feeling runs in our favor, but we must not depend upon that for success. Labor, real hard labor, will alone insure the reward of victory. Need we say more to Democrats?—Greenbury Democrat.

VIVID DESCRIPTION OF A ROW IN THE HOUSE.—The special Washington correspondent Cleveland Plaindealer writes:—"At once there rose so wild a yell, etc." This is a little ahead of any thing yet.—Buffalo runners in steam boat times would stand no more chance here than a bobtailed bull in a city.

I can see the gavel going but can't hear it. Now I am sorry I used the comparison of the bobtailed bull so soon. Here is a first rate place for it. What a voice that Tom Florence has got. The Speaker cries ORDER! Florence cries Mr. SPEAKER! One story Washburn cries PRIVILEGE. Question! "PREVIOUS QUESTION." POINT OF ORDER." rings all over the house. Keitt lays back and smiles so loud that you could hear him in your office if you would listen.—This is all for "pure cussedness," as Ed. Wade would say. The Speaker will probably send for a big gong with a nigger to ring it. "These times," Motion to adjourn, which luckily is always in order, brings a calm. Adjourned till Friday.

MOVING DAY is past and those who have found it either convenient or necessary to change their domiciles, have already become settled in their new homes. Various changes have taken place in our own town, several of our citizens have removed from our midst, and their places have of course been supplied by others.—Mr. McMonigle of the Mansion House has removed to Bellefonte where he takes charge of the Franklin House." His place in the Mansion" is supplied by David Johnston Esq. late of the "Susquehanna House," at Curwensville. Col. D. M. Weaver well known to the traveling public as "mine host" of the Mansion, at one time, has taken the Susquehanna." Benj'n Bloom Jr. has become the landlord of the hotel in Curwensville recently kept by David Smith Esq. Wm Reed Esq. a citizen of this borough has taken possession of the hotel in Luthersburg occupied by G. W. Long. And Mr. Thomas Robins having purchased the brick hotel in Phillipsburg, recently occupied by Mr. Shadman, has removed there and assumed the proprietorship thereof. These are the principal changes which have taken place in the hotels within our knowledge. The gentlemen are all clever and hospitable and we have no doubt will do all in their power to render their guests comfortable.

INFANTICIDE.—Our community was thrown into a high state of excitement on last Friday morning, by the finding, by some boys, of the body of a male infant, in the river at the north west part of the town, lying only a few feet from the shore. The news spread rapidly and in a short time a number of people had assembled upon the spot. After a Coroner's jury had been summoned, by the justice of the Peace present, there being no coroner in commission in the County, a post mortem examination of the body was made, and it was given as the opinion of the Physicians who made it, that the infant had been born alive, and had come to its death by violence. A most tedious and protracted inquiry was then made by the Jury, which resulted in the arrest and imprisonment of the suspected female.—With any further details of this melancholy affair, as we do not profess to publish a sensation paper, we do not intend for the present to deal. A shocking crime has been committed in our midst, the perpetration of which every one must deeply deplore. The guilt or innocence of those to whom is laid this heavy charge, will doubtless be determined by a court of Justice. We have no comments to make.

HAND IN HAND.—We see by the Gazette that the old court house in Williamsport, Lycoming county, is about being torn down to give place to a new, and more commodious edifice, adapted to the wants of the people, and the progress of the age. We mention this fact as coincident with the demolition of the venerable pile which but lately reared its spire far above every structure in our borough, and of which now, not a vestige remains but a pile of bricks, because both buildings were planned and erected by the same architect and contractor, the late Mr. Collins. The two buildings bore a striking resemblance to each other in their proportions and internal arrangement, and both were remarkable for the durability and excellence of the workmanship displayed in their construction. Hand in hand, these relics of primitive days, depart from the places where they so long stood as temples of justice, to give place to more fashionable successors, which will in their turn share similar fates. Just as the Old year give place to the new, which in time becomes the Old itself, and departs like its predecessor.

How to SELECT FLOUR.—First, look at the color; if it is white, with a slightly yellowish or straw colored tint, buy it. If it is very white with a bluish cast, or with black specks in it, refuse it. Second, examine its adhesiveness; wet and knead a little of it between your fingers; if it works soft and is sticky, it is poor. Third, throw a lump of dry flour against a dry smooth, perpendicular surface; if it falls like powder, it is bad. Fourth, squeeze some of the flour in your hand; if it retains the shape given by the pressure, that too is a good sign: Flour that will stand all these tests is safe to buy. These modes are given by old flour dealers, and we make no apology for printing them, as they pertain to a matter that concerns everybody, namely, the quality of the staff of life.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.—The catalogue of criminals in our midst is receiving daily additions. We mentioned in another place that a young man named Baker had been and committed to prison on a charge of highway robbery. Last night about 11 o'clock, the Constable of Lumber City brought a young man named Lyons, and another whose name we did not learn, and lodged them in Jail, on a charge of being partners of Baker in the same transaction. The party robbed, we understand was a colored man named Cochran. All three are now in custody.

AN ANCIENT LAND MARK.—In cutting down a tree a few days ago on the farm of Mr. Daniel Bailey of Pike tp. his son, R. S. Bailey, found a notch in the body, which upon counting the growths was found to have been cut one hundred and four years ago. This is perhaps the most ancient land mark yet discovered in this county and carries us back to the year following Braddock's defeat in the vicinity of Fort Duquesne, now Pittsburgh in the year 1753.

FIRE.—A fire broke out in the woods in the vicinity of Hale's mills in Decatur township on last Thursday, and the weather being windy it spread so rapidly that it soon reached the mills, which were for some time in great danger of being burnt down. However through the exertions of the people in the vicinity who came promptly to the rescue they were preserved without having sustained any injury.

SNOW STORM.—We were visited with a Snow Storm on last Sunday which gave the face of nature a very wintry appearance for a few hours. The snow however was mingled with rain and melted soon after it fell.

DEATH OF A REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER.—We were handed a communication in relation to the death of Ludwig Snyder of Burnside tp. this county, who died on the 23rd ult. at the advanced age of 113 years, too late for insertion this week. We shall give it or its substance in our next issue.

THE WEATHER, after many variations from cold to moderate, and from moderate to stormy, and round again, is now mild and damp, rain having fallen during a greater part of last night. The river has risen some, but not enough to carry a raft in safety.

ARRESTED.—A young man named Baker, was arrested at or near Lumber City on last Wednesday charged with the larceny of some money, he was brought to this place the same day and lodged in the County prison where he still remains.

The Merchantile appraisers list was handed us for insertion this week, but owing to the amount of space and type required for the unseated Lands, we were unable to give it. It shall appear in our next.

Our readers must excuse the want of reading matter and general news in this weeks paper, as all our time and room have been given to the Tax sales by the Treasurer.

CORRECTION.—We published last week the marriage of Mr. John Rowls to Miss Doughman, we have since been informed that it should have been John A. Rowls.

As we were walking along the street the other day, we noticed a crowd of urchins standing around a boy who was sucking a piece of candy. "I say Bill," said one of them, "give me that candy, and I'll make it come out of my ears like Blitzen did last night at the theatre." "Second youth shells over the candy. First youth very deliberately eats the candy, (second youth watching the little fellows ears) and after drawing himself in to every conceivable shape he said, "If I haint forget the rest, you may have my shirt for a dish rag."

DIED. In Boggs tp., Centre co., on Friday the 16th day of March last, Lilly Ely, daughter of Charles and Mary R. Larimer, formerly of Oshkosh, Wis., now of this borough, aged 3 years and 4 months.

Near Phillipsburg, Wednesday morning, March 7th 1860, James Wilson, infant son of Russell D. and L. Anna Shwalter, aged 8 months and 10 days. After a long and painful illness, this little one has been taken in the bloom of innocence to rest in the bosom of Him who hath said "suffer little children, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." His sorrowing parents have the bright consolation that he has been spared the turmoils, trials and dangers of the thorny pathway of life, and that he now tunes his cherubic harp in the pearly mansions of eternal bliss.

This lovely babe, thus early torn, From our fond breasts away; With silent grief was gently borne To its lone bed of clay. Thus severed from their parent stem, Our babes go on before; That our fond hearts may follow them, To that eternal shore. (Com.)
