Clearfield, Pa. August 15, 1860.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.

Also on Sunday at 10 o'clock.

Camp Meeting.

The Camp Meeting of the M. E. church for the Clearfield and Curwensville charge will be held on the ground of Mr. Thos. Reed on the old pike to commence on Friday Aug 24 1860. Come to the Camp Meeting.

Wm L. Spotswood, Preacher in charge.

The recent refreshing rains have been of vast benefit to the corn, potatoes, pasture &c.

TALL TIMOTHY.—Mr. James Bailey of Lawrence tp., brought to our office the other day three stacks of Timothy, each measuring six feet and six inches. Beat this if you can. It was raised on his farm about two miles from town.

We have one of "Grace Greenwood's Little Pilgrims" upon our table. It is indeed a fine number—a Pilgrim that should be in every family. Fathers and mothers get it for your children.

About to leave temporarily on a professional tour.—P. C. Purviance, Ambrotypist of Clearfield, takes this method to announce to the public, that he will close his gallery on the 27th Aug. (inst.) for the purpose of making a professional tour, of probably several months. Those wishing Ambrotypes can secure his services during the mean time. In addition to his stock of cheap cases always on hand, in a few days he will be supplied with an apartment of fancy cases, at lower prices than ever before sold in Clearfield county.

A Lady friend writes us "that the committee of arrangements for our county fair, have omitted a very important class of things for which there should be a liberal premium awarded—it is for the best trotting old Bachelor in single harness, the ring to be open to all competitors, the object being the improvement of the stock."

Sixty-four counties in the State of Kentucky give Gen. Leslie Coombs 25,296 majority for Clerk of Appeals.—He was the Union candidate, and received the support of the friends of Douglas.

The result of the recent election in Missouri is still in doubt. Four candidates were out for Governor, and the same number in some of the Congressional Districts.

An affray occurred at Cleveland on the 9th inst., between the keeper of a saloon and two negroes, in which the white man was instantly killed by a knife in the hands of one of the negroes. The negroes fled, but were subsequently arrested.

Recent Publications.

Teachings of Patriots and Statesmen; or, the Founders of the Republic in Slavery. By Ezra B. Chace, Esq. J. W. Bradley, 48 N. Fourth street Philadelphia.

From a very hasty examination of this book, we should say that it ought to be read by all persons, no difference what their religious or political feeling may be. The subject of slavery is treated fairly and impartially, and in accordance with the view of the "Early Fathers of the Republic," no dicta of a single individual is allowed to establish a fact, either for or against slavery.

This book displays much patient research, and Mr. CHASE has displayed admirable judgment in the arrangement of its pages. In it we find the history of the slavery question, from the Act of Confederation down to the present time, giving the reader an accurate history of this institution for nearly a century.

We have no hesitation in recommending Mr. CHASE's book to all our readers, as being worthy of their patronage and support.

The "American Agricultural" for August has also been received. This is one of the best and cheapest. Agricultural papers in the country, and should be liberally patronized by all classes, and particularly farmers. Published by Orange Judd, N. Y. at $1.00 per annum.

The "Democratic Text," is the name of a new paper published in Bloomfield Perry Co. Pa., by J. B. Cooper Esq. It is a neat paper, and has the ring of the true metal.

The "Atlantic Monthly" for August, is upon our table. The high literary character of this publication is well sustained. It is an admirable number. Published by Tickner and Fields 135 Washington street Boston, at $3.00 per annum.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued his advertisement for proposals for the use by the Government of a line of magnetic telegraph to be constructed within two years from the 31st of July, 1860, from some point on the west side of Missouri, by any route which the contractors may select, (connecting by telegraph with Washington, New Orleans, New York, Charleston, Philadelphia, Boston, and other cities in the Atlantic, Southern and Western States to San Francisco.) The contract will be for ten years, and must not be for a greater sum than forty thousand dollars a year.

Patience, like children, becomes strong by exercise.

The pen of the tongue should be dipped in the ink of the heart.

Mysterious Music.

In going from Mobile to New Orleans through Grant's Pass, and along the Sound formed by the main land and a succession of Islands, the steamer carries you near to the mouth of the Pascagoula river, which is on your right. In sight of the line of transit, a short distance up the river, is often heard mysterious music, of which the reader may probably get the best idea by comparing it to a distant though powerful Aeolian harp. Many assert that they hear as many as three or four notes. Others compare it to the purring of a cat, yet of course very much louder.

This music may be heard at any time of the year, or at any period of the day, though not at all hours. It is most frequently noticed at night. It is apparently loudest when there is considerable wind. It is said that the United States Government sent a corps of savans to this place to discover, if they could, the cause of this strange melody. The result was unsatisfactory. Some persons have a tradition that a number of poor Indians were long ago murdered at that place, and that the sound heard is their plaintive moan. This is of course superstition.

The same or a similar sound is heard at other places. A gentleman of high standing assures us that he has heard the same in the port of Guaymas, in the Gulf of California. It is asserted that it is also heard at the mouth of Bayou Coq del Inde, and at other places along the coast of the Gulf of Mexico. Nor is it confined to this continent, as may be learned from Sir Emerson Tennant's recent work on Ceylon. At least something like it is heard at Battialloa. There it is said to be most audible at night and when the moon is nearest her full. Sir Emerson says: "Sounds somewhat similar are heard under water, at some places on the western coast of India, especially in the harbor of Bombay. At Caldera, in Chili, musical cadences are said to issue from the sea near the Landing place; they are described as rising and falling fully four notes, resembling like those at Battialloa, till they produce a musical discord of great sweetness and delicacy. The animals from whence they proceed have not been identified at either place, and the mystery remains unsolved, whether those at Battialloa are given forth by fishes or mollusks."

Whether this sound proceeds from catfish, or any scaly fish, or from shell fish, or from any of these, seems very doubtful. A friend of ours has been promised some papers on this subject. Should he secure them, our readers may hear something further on the point. We should be much pleased to receive any further reliable information on the subject. We have heard that it is noticed in Col. Pickett's history of that part of the Southwest.

THE CANDIDATES FOR THE CHARLESTON NOMINATIONS.—There were nine gentlemen before the National Democratic Convention, for the Presidential nomination, viz: Messrs. Hunter, Guthrie, Douglas, Dickinson, Lane, Toucey, Davis, Johnson, of Tennessee, and Pearce, of Maryland. Since the Baltimore nominations, they have declared their preferences as follows:

FOR MAJOR BRECKINRIDGE.

2. Gen. Jo. Lane,
3. Hon. James Guthrie,
4. Hon. Andrew Johnson,
5. Col. Jefferson Davis,
6. Hon. Isaac Toucey,
7. Hon. James A. Pearce,
8. Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson.

FOR JUDGE DOUGLAS.

Of the gentlemen prominently mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination, but who were not voted for at Charleston, nearly every one has expressed a preference for Breckinridge and Lane. Among them are Ex-Governor Wise, Ex-Speaker Orr, Senator Hammond, Ex-President Pierce, Senator Sill, Secretary Thompson, Senator Bright, Hon. Howell Cobb, and Senator Bayard.

The resignation of Chief Justice Shaw, of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, is announced to take place September next. Judge Shaw is nearly 80 years of age.
