Camp Meeting.

The Camp Meeting of the M. E. church for the Clearfield and Carverville charge will be held on the ground of Mr. Thos. Reed on the old pile to commence on Friday Aug 24 1860. Come to the Camp Meeting.

Wm L. Spalding,
Preacher in charge.

PRESIDENTS SPEECH.—We this week publish on our first page the great speech made by the President at the White House on the 9th of July last.

We hope it will be read by all. It is clear, plain and conclusive—gives the fact and nothing less. The principles there laid down, must and will sooner or later be adopted by a majority of the people of the United States, or revolution and anarchy will reign triumphant throughout our land and nation.

DEAD.—Mrs Holt wife of the Post Master General died at Washington on the 14th inst, surrounded by a large circle of relatives and friends. Her remains were conveyed to her late home in Kentucky.

She was a daughter of ex-Post Master Gen Wickliffe.

About to leave temporarily on a professional tour.—P. C. Purviance, Ambrotypist of Clearfield, takes this method to announce to the public, that he will close his Gallery on the 27th Aug. (inst) for the purpose of making a professional tour, of probably several months. Those wishing Ambrotypes can secure his services during the mean time. In addition to his stock of cheap cases always on hand, in a few days he will be supplied with an apartment of fancy cases, at lower prices than ever before sold in Clearfield county.

Sold Again?

The Editor of the State Sentinel seems to be very unfortunate, as regards his correspondents from this county, of whom he has had several.

If he was aware of the political standing of his Black-guard correspondent of 16th inst., we know very well that he would not stoop to notice such a scoundler, as he is known to be in this community. The Editor publishes his letter as a matter of news; it may be elsewhere, but here it is, the article he deals out every day in the street—the whole letter was known to the boys in the street two days before it appeared in the Sentinel. The whole letter is a tissue of falsehood from beginning to end—got up in the regular Hyena, or Jackall style—devouring everything but himself.

X, is as visible to our readers in his half column of slanders as the vestibule upon our Court House,—to dispise him is just to see him.

Cresson.

The following sentiment, we copy from the Baldwin Gazette, heretofore one of the most uncompromising Douglas papers in the State, and no doubt it reflects the sentiments of Mr. Cresson. We might fill half of our paper this week with similar extracts from Douglas papers in this State; however, the two Lincoln papers—the Press and Sentinel, howl tremendously at the Cresson arrangement, as do all the other Black Republican papers.

This result is a great victory for the Douglas men—not that it gives them any undue advantage over the friends of Breckinridge, but because in compliance with their request, the former proposition of fusion has been abandoned, and a much fairer and more equitable plan of union offered by the Committee. We are, therefore, not without hope that the differences in the party may yet be so reconciled as to enable the entire Democracy of the State to vote for one set of Electors and thus defeat and discomfit the Black Republican horde."

LUTHERSBURG CLUB.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Luthersburg democratic club met, on Saturday evening last. President, D. Goodlander Esq. in the chair.

On leave, Dr. George Wilson rose to make a personal explanation, which soon turned out to be a Douglas speech, in which he characterized the Breckinridge men as seceders, and disloyal to the regular democratic organization, proved to his own satisfaction that the intemperate Stephen was the only candidate worthy of the support of the Democracy of Brady township; and expressed himself as opposed to any union at this time, regarding it as premature. He was followed in reply by Dr. Boyer, who answered all his objections, defended the action of the executive committee, and closed his speech with a strong appeal for a union on the Reading electoral ticket. After which, the constitution was again read and offered for signatures.

Whereupon an effort was made by Dr. Wilson to engraft a series of resolutions on the club previous to his signing the constitution. The constitution was then signed by ten new members—those opposed to union refusing to sign it.

The chairman of the committee on resolutions appointed at a previous meeting, then offered the following, which were adopted.

Whereas.—The present being an important era in the history of the Democratic party, and our country, which good men and patriots may contemplate with mingled emotions of fear and hope, as they glance at the past and present, beholding the dark cloud which in in days past threatened the dissolution of our happy union, again brewing in the political heaven, which we had sincerely hoped was dispelled for ever, and that the bright star of hope and promise should alone span our political horizon, and

Whereas, In this cheering hope we have been disappointed, and instead of peace and harmony reigning in our party and the union, we find agitation, discord, strife, and we fear preparations for civil war, this being the order of the day, therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we sincerely hope that the great cause of division, discord and dissension, which now exists among us, and not only divides us as a party, but distracts our national energies and prosperity, may speedily be removed, and that the public mind may again become settled in the contemplation of subjects more consistent with the dignity, and more essential to the prosperity and happiness, of a great and growing nation.

2d.—That we the democracy of Brady township, regard the preservation of the unity of the democratic state organization, which was so happily inaugurated by the Reading Convention, as of the greatest importance to the present and future welfare of the national Democratic party, and that we approve and ratify the basis of union recommended by the State Executive Committee, whereby the electoral ticket placed in nomination by that Convention, may fairly and honestly receive the support of every Democratic voter in Pennsylvania, who truly desires the defeat of the Black Republican candidate.

3d.—That the government of a Territory, organized by an act of Congress, is provisional and temporary, and during its existence all citizens of the United States have an equal right to settle with their property in the Territory, without their rights, either of person or property, being destroyed or injured by Congressional or Territorial legislation.

4th.—That it is the duty of the federal government, in all its departments, to protect the rights of persons and property in the Territories, and wherever else its constitutional authority extends.

5th.—That we attest our hearty approbation of the nomination of the Hon. H. D. Foster of Westmoreland county, as our candidate for Governor—that his public career has conclusively proved his eminent abilities, and his unflinching devotion to the true interest of our glories State and the Union—that the honesty and purity of his private character, as attested by those who know him best, stand high above suspicion, and that we pledge to him our hearty and undivided support at the October election.

After the adoption of the report of the Committee a conversational debate was indulged in for a short time, when the following resolution was offered by Dr. T. J. Kerr, and unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we heartily approve and ratify the nomination made by the late Convention at Brookville for Congress—Hon. James K. Kerr, a gentleman in whom the Democracy recognize an able champion and a sound democrat, and our vote in October will attest the sincerity of our declarations.

On motion, the club adjourned, to meet again on Saturday next.

LEVER FLEGAL, Secretary.

Republican Relics of the Campaign.

The New York Herald publishes the following list of relics, discovered by a political antiquarian, which he proposes to sell cheap to those who may desire to adorn some campaign wigwam. The list will be read with interest:

1. Hand of the maul with which Lincoln split his first rail.

2. Chew of tobacco masticated during the operation.

3. Waistband of breeches split during the operation.

4. Patch of seat ditto.

5. Portrait of the man who stood against a tree looking at Old Abe splitting the rail. (Old Abe told him if he took no account there he'd never go into Congress, and he didn't.)

6. Horns of the oxen which hauled the rails.

7. Half pint of whisky (rifle warranted to kill at a hundred yards) distilled in the hollow, by Old Abe.

8. Original tin pot out of which Old Abe took his drinks.

9. View of that grocery, (by "our own artist on the spot.")

10. String of one of the original bungs worn by the prophet in his hegira from Kentucky to Illinois.

11. Half a pound of best Young Hyson sold by Old Abe as a grocer, to the size of the first white child born in Sangamon county.

12. Pine knot from the original hat built by Uncle Abe from lumber got out by his own hands.

13. Hair from the mane of the horse which won a race of which Uncle Abe was judge.

14. Ditto from tail of losing horse in the same race.

15. Tooth knocked out of a man's head who fought another man, and chose Old Abe for reference.

16. Portrait of Old Abe when he tried to look pretty and frightened a child of one of the first families in the country into convulsions.

17. The last thing in the way of political advertising is a letter envelope surrounded with a rail fence. On one end of the envelope is a portrait of Old Abe, and beneath it the identical flat-bot which is said that individual used to run. The engraver failed to produce the bar at which he used to sell tangle-foot whisky. No doubt "Old Abe," to use the Republican sobriquet, has split rails, and it is equally true that these rails will split him.

18.—A good Sewing Machine in a family is a treasure. Have you seen the Machine called the "Erie"? If not, we advise some of our readers who may not have all the work they can attend to, to write to Mr. J. N. Boylan, at Milan, Ohio, and get the company's confidential terms to agents.

19.—The Luzerne Union, published at the home of Col. H. B. Wright, the President of the 26th of July Convention, accedes to the Cresson compromise. The papers that hold out against it are few indeed.—The straight-out movement has been whittled down to almost nothing. Democrats are not so easily transferred to the Republicans as certain persons imagined.

20.—The Lady who was struck with etiquette

21.—The Cherry for sale at the store of Wm. F. Irwin, Clarfield Pa.
