Clearfield

Republican.

BY G. B. GOODLANDER & CO.

PRINCIPLES, not MEN.

CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1860.

TERMS-$1 25 per Annum, if paid in advance.

NEW SERIES-VOL. L-NO. 7.

Che Republican.

VOL. XXXI.—NO. 1.

f paid in advance, or within three months, $1 25 paid any time within the year. If paid after the expiration of the year,

Terms of Advertising.

Advertisements ore inserted in the Republican at the following rates : 1 Insertion. 2 do. Cus square, (14)iner,) $ 50 $ 75 Two squares, (28)ines,) 1 00 1 50 1 50 2 00 Three squares, (42 lines,) 1 50 3 months. 6 mo's. 12 mo Une Square, Two squares, : : : $2 50 $4 00 : : 4 00 6 00 Three squares, : Four squares, : Half a column, 14 00 : 14 00 20 00

Business notices not exceeding 8 lines are inserted for $2 a year.
Advertisements not marked with the number of insertions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged according to these terms. G. B. GOODLANDER of CO.

Select Poetry.

A FAULT CONFESSED.

"A fault confess"d is helf redress'a:"
A simple saying, brief and wise;
The ready truth is ever best,
If truth without disguise. If, in a weak and angry hour, We utter bitter words and strong, Oh! let us strive with all our power To rectify the wrong.

If we attempt to mar and stain A feilow-being's peace and name : What does our selfish spirit gain But fretfulness and shame? Remember that we but distress Another's quiet and our own ; Then let us linsten to confess,

But there are deeds done in the dark More baneful still than careless speech ; Tix when we single out a mark That secret spite may reach;

An arrow from an unseen hand Is wing'd to wound some guiltless breast And who can such a foe withstand, Hidden and unconfess'd?

God judgeth justly, and will bring Grief for the mischief that we do; We cannot work an evil thing But we shall suffer too. Then let us lay the bosom bare Before the injured one and Heaven,

And, in a gush of heart-felt prayer, Confess and be forgiven! J. C. PRINCE.

Miscellancous. Maxims for Married Women change, who can read this without indignation, ought to be married: Let every wife be persuaded that there first is by the expression of that will which belongs to force: the second to the power of mildness, to which every strength will yield. One is the power of the husband; a wife should never employ any other means than those of gentleness. When a woman accustoms herself to say "I will,"

she deserves to lose her empire. Avoid contradicting your husband. When we smell a rose it is to imbue the sweets of odor; we look for everything amiable in woman. Whoever is often contradicted feels insensibly an aversion for the person who contradicts, which gains strength by time, and whatever be her good qualities, is not easily destroyed. Occupy yourself only with household affairs; wait till your husband confides to you those of higher importance, and do not read lectures to him. Let your preaching be a good example, and practice virtue yourself to make him love it.

Command his attention by being always kind to him; never exact anything, and you will attain much; appear always flattered by the little he does for you, which will excite him to do more.

All men are vain : never wound his vanity, not even in the most trifling instances, A wife may have more sense than her husband, but she should never seem to know it.

When a man gives wrong counsel, never feel that he has done so, but lead him by degrees to what is rational, with mildness and gentleness; when he is convinced, leave him to the merit of having found out what is just and reasonable.

When a husband is out of temper, behave obligingly to him; if he is abusive, never retort, and never prevail over him to humble him.

Choose well your friends, have but few,

Cherish neatness without luxury, and particularly with modesty; vary in the product of their extra labor. fashion of your dress, especially as regards | George A, Wilson, Esq., or colors. It gives a change to the ideas, and recalls pleasing recollections. Such things may appear trifling, but they have more importance than is imagined.

Never be curions to pry into your hushouse pleasanter than any other.

Seem always to obtain information similar cases. from him, especially before company, though you may pass yourself for a sim-ot partake of it with him.

Mr. Horace Greely.

The intrigues of this notorious individual to defeat the nomination of Mr. Seward at Chicago, seemed to have surprised a portion of the Republican party, who had not previously been fully acquainted image of God, come to insult Nature and Victoria and the royal family, which difwith the leading traits in his character .well, need not be told that he scruples at to be the first of three fashionable murs Majesty. The picture was taken at the no means to accomplish an end; that he ders on this duelling ground.
is an unsafe friend, and an unforgiving In 1819, A. T. Mason, a United States drawing it until after he was off of British relentles enemy.

It seems that Mr. Seward did not go into a fit of hysterics some years ago, when $7 00 Greeley received "a reward of merit" in there was no necessity for it; but Mason see the Queen and her husband and chil. ing for his venemous personality. Mr. Seward was of the opinion that if an edi-Over three weeks and less than three months 25 cents per square for each insertion. was Mr. Soward's first offence. The next pelled to make a most humble apology for the wrong he had done. This was grievance number two. The third and last but by no means the least, was the of New York, nor use his influence in his favor afterwards; but on the contrary, preferred a rival editor, Mr. Raymond, upon whom to bestow marks of his confidence and respect. This was the cap of the climax. From that day to this, Greeley has been laboring day and night to undermine Mr. Seward, and to destroy his political prospects. He has succeeded and by such means as no honorable man can fail to reprobate and condemn. We look upon Mr. Greeley as intrinsically a bad man. The bitter disappointment in the great pet scheme of his life, the Fourierite millenium, seems to have turned every generous emotion of his This was in accordance with a declaration soul into malignity and gall. It has had made to Mr. Benton, who spoke to Ran- Understand, I was within from twenty to similar influence upon others atached to dolph of a call, the evening before, on every edition of that unscrupulous sheet. of her child and the repose of the mother. Thousand take that pestilential journal under the false impression that it is a semi-religious and reformatory paper; the senior editor professes to be a sort of nondescript Universalist, and sends the Tribune to ministers of that denomination at half the usual subscription price. this means in conjunction with the Christian Ambassador, he has succeeded in abolitionizing a large majority of the clergy-men of that persuasion in the State of New York, who take whole sermons from the columns of his paper. The two journals means means a work who at the columns of his paper. The two journals means means means a means means means a means means means means means a means mean The unmarried woman, says an ex- nals mentioned have succeeded in destroying the cause of Temperance, by their advocacy of the odious Maine Law, and injuring, beyond all human calculaare two ways of governing a family. The tion, the cause of religion, by their fanatieism with regard to southern slavery .-Churches have been broken up, religious societies divided, families estranged, and all for the gratification of a love of mis-

> only evil and that continually. The New York Tribune has for years been conspicuous as a propagator of mischevious fallacies and a malignant assailant of private character. It advocated spiritualism in a cowardly round-about way, until public opinion decided against it, when the editor took the back track. Free-love abomination found an echo in its columns until a torrent of popular inwithout an equal, narrow-minded, bigot | the corpse of Cilley. ted, arrogant, intolerant, and unscrupulously vindictive, to the last degree; ut with and killed a Dr. Johnson. terly wanting in conscientiousness, refinement and true nobleness of soul; in principle he is an Ishmaelite, and in manners he is a clown. This accounts for his utter want of sympathy with true greatness, and his instinctive antipathy to a true which terminated in coffee. gentleman. Hence his studied misrepre sentations and injustice, his ferocious invectives, coarse vituperation, and unseru- fire without returning the shot. pulous calumnies. It is only because he is not universally known, that he is not universally execrated .- Democratic Exposit-

THE "POOR SLAVE."-John Sanderson, Esq., of Norfolk county, Va., has paid his negroes this season $550, for corn raised and be careful of following their advice in for their own benefit, on his farm. He paid one of the men alone $156. They are allowed time to work for themselves, pleasure without excess; dress with taste, and are liberally and cheerfully paid the > George A, Wilson, Esq., of the same cumstances similar to the above, has re- ing from the mouth of Licking, and landcently settled with his men for the year paying them $600.

We take pleasure in stating further, band's concerns, but obtain his confidence, that W. W. Warden, Esq., also of this which she seemed to be much obliged .-Always preserve economy, avoid being county, has recently paid his hands $300 Cincinnatti Commercial. out of temper, and be careful never to for corn raised on his land; he, like the scold; by this means he will find his others, having allowed them time to work for themselves; and there are many other since, workmen were making excavations in the Southern States, are not only plen-erican soldiers who fell in the war of 1812. tifully provided for in every way, but Several buttons, bayonets and epaulettes Never forget that a wife owes all her they are saving money to use as they may were also found. One button had the inaportance to that of her husband, - find best in the coming years and with itials of the Pennsylvania Rangers on it; Leave him entirely master of his own actal they seem as happy as lords. They another is maked "U.S." and another the tions, to go or come whenever he thinks work well and cheerfully in the day, and "8th British Grenadies." A few American at night and during the holidays they can coins were also found. From the powife ought to make her company ami- sing, dance and smoke, eat sweet pota- sision of the bodies, it was evident that able to her husband, that he will not be toes, drink hard cider, sit around the big they were buried near a trench where able to exist without it, then he will not kitchen fires, "laugh and grow fat," re- they fell. General Pike and two hundred able to exist without it, then he will gardless of the "tom-foolery" and non- Americans and a number of British were t seek for pleasure abroad if she does sense about the "poor oppressed slaves." killed near the spot in 1813, by the ex-Norfolk (Va.) Herald.

Pluck and the Pistol-The Bladensburg A Picture of Queen Victoria and the PROPHECY AND ITS FULFILL-Duelling Ground defy Heaven. In 1841, Edward Hopkins fers materially from the rose-colored por-We believe that those who know him was killed here in a duel. This seemed traits that are generally presented of her Senator from Virginia, fought with his sisted. He says: ter's husband, John McCarty, here. Mc- "Having been Carty was averse to fighting and thought train in reaching the place in season to this city, in the shape of a sound thrash- would fight. McCarty named muskets, dren enter, I determined to get as near and thirdly, that I will not be ashamed to and a scythe in the right. A figure of a loaded with grape shot, and so near to her Majesty as possible, and succeeded in tell my age. gether that they would hit heads if they getting into a small enclosure just in front tor dipped his pen in gall, he ought to fell on their faces. This was changed by of her stand, which enclosure, I have reahave back-bone enough to "face the music"—so, he allowed the affair to pass without sympathizing with this victim of his own ungovernable passions. This with Mason's sister in Georgetown. His favorable opportunity of looking at and personal grievance on the part of Mr. Horace Greeley, was the decision of Mr. Seward against him, as umpire, or referee, in the libel case of Graham vs. Greeley, in which Mr. Greeley was very justly combined Mr. Greeley was very justly combined to make a most hamble and or the liber of the

In 1820 Commodore Decatur was killed bility, in a duel here by Commodore Barron.—
At the first fire both fell forward, with fact that Mr. Seward did not appoint their heads within ten feet of each sup-Greeley to an office when he was Governor posed himself himself mortally wounded, their heads within ten feet of each sup- and fit for a husband to a queen, which each fully and freely forgave the other, bout 18, of light complexion and rather still lying on the ground.

ron eventually recovered.

Sega, appeared here, fought, and Sega was are not especially noticeable for beauty instantly killed. The neighbors only indeed, I should not have looked at them learned this much of their names from a single minute were they not daughters the marks on their gloves left on the of the throne. As to the other personaground. Lega was not hurt.

Potomac, as Randolph preferred to die, ces equally sensible. I suppose it does if at all, on Virginia soil. He received Clay's shot, and then fired into the air .the Tribune office, as is demonstrated in Mrs. Clay, and alluded to the quiet sleep ing with my own natural eyes, and with Bandolph quickly replied:
"I shall do nothing to disturb the sleep of the child or the repose of the moth-General Jessup, whose funeral I attended last week, was Clay's second.

When Randolph fired be remark-

Clay replied: "Thank God the debt is no greater!" They were friends ever after. In 1832, Martin was killed by Carr .-Their first names are not remembered .-

owe me a coat.

They were from the South. and brother to Barton Key, of Sickles no- especially watched her manners in her chief for its own sake. No earthly good toriety, met Mr. Sherborn, and exchanged conversation and her movements, among has resulted from these insane efforts, but a shot, when Sherborn said :

"Mr. Key, I have no desire to kill

"Very well, tnon," said Sherborn, "I will kill you." And he did. this place for Cilley's murder; but the noticed the same expression. dignation was raised, when be unsaid all parties learning that Webb, with two sneaked into a corner to dodge the res- and in pursuit, for the purpose of assassin-prone to errors of judgement; an egotist they were soon followed by Graves and conventional Queen, and not the real. In 1845, a lawyer named Jones, fought In 1851, R. A. Hoole and A. J. Dallas was shot in the shoulder, but recover-In 1852, Daniel and Johnson, two Rich-

AN ELEPHANT SWIMMING THE OHIO .- Fully five thousand people gathered on the bank of the river yesterday morning, to Rookh swimming from the Kentucky to the Ohio shore. On the first attempt several skiffs laden with people accompanied the elephant but when a hundred and fifty feet from the shore, Miss Lalla evinced an ugly disposition, and chased them all out of the water. Unattended save by her keeper, another trial was made, when section for the corn purchased under cir- she performed her task like a lady, starting at the foot of Race street. As she walked out of the water the crowd greeted her with several prolonged cheers, for Mar At Toronro, Canada, a few days near the old fort, they discovered the re-The negroes alluded to, like millions mains of fifteen bodies of British and Amplosion of a powder magazine.

Royal Family.

Rev. H. Baylies, who is writing a series Ascot Races. It is well the artist delayed

"Having been disappointed by a slow eleven carriage loads of royalty and no

Prince Albert is a good, wide awake sensible looking man, familiar and casy, he is, and only is. Prince of Wales is aspare : looks like a fair, sensible senior in Decatur expired immediately, but Bar- college, and will graduate at Oxford sometime in June. The Princesses resemble In 1821, two strangers named Lega and very strongly the Prince of Wales, and not require much sense to patronize horse racing, does it? Well, what of the Queen ? am not in England, and so I may speak. then as I think.

Before I express my thinkings, howevis not good looking even, according to my taste. That kissable little mouth you ly friends; or, if these be wanting, have seen in her portraits was borrowed, for it is not in her face. Her mouth is rather drawn at the corners, and arched in the middle. Her complexion is that 1 have named for her children, but her In 1833, Mr. Key, son of Frank Key, skin looks blotched and unbealthy. 1 the family and visiting Royality, and I must say she was entirely wanting in what is termed grace, and was certainly very "No matter," said Key, "I came to kill far from appearing queenly according to the conventional meaning of that word. When she bowed in response to the hearty cheers of her loval subjects, there was In 1838, W. J. Graves, of Kentucky, as- a look of the disclainful attached to a stiff he has been consistent is his unrelenting nearer the city. Their pursuers moved wife, and that is about all." More than hatred of the people of the South. He is toward the river, but missed the parties, once I heard this sentiment expressed .a man of some talent, but constitutionally and then returned to the city, to which The portraits you see are portraits of the STIMULENTS. -The Louisville Journal with moonlight, music, love and flowers? runs down sooner, and the unnatural stimulation only leaves the house it fills with wildest revelry, more silent, more sad, more deserted, more dead. There is only one stimulant that never fails, and yet never intoxicates-duty. Duty puts a blue sky over every man-up in his neart may be-into which the skylark Happiness always goes, singing."

Beautiful extract-helping a young lady out of a mud hole.

five and twenty years ago.

"Ah! M——," replied a facetious old uncle, in a tone of mock pathos, "if you thought you should not be married, you would not sleep a wink to-night."

"I do not expect to be married," persiswill not become soured toward the world; secondly, that I will not talk scandal;

The girl read her destiny with a prophbeen better kept than resolutions generally are. But then the temptation to vimooth surfaces as could reasonably have and then, the prevailing and almost con- do his duty when called upon by the mastant sentiment has been: "The world chinery. As soon as the old man has is full of beauty and love." Of course, struck twelve another set of machinery is when one's on good terms with society, there is but little inducement to spend where there is a high cross with the image one's breath in circulating ill reports.

heroism for a women, especially an un-turns facing the cross, bows, and walks married one, acknowledge her age. render a sufficient reason for this may be until the twelve Apostles, large as life, difficult; let it be set down to the account of vanity. But when one has succeeded appears, an enormous game cock, perchfairly in weathering this stormy cape, the ed on the pinacle of the clock, slowly navigation is plain once more. "It is flaps his wings, stretches forth his neck more blessed to be approaching age than and crows three times, so loud as to be to be receding from youth," some one heard outside of the church to some disground. Lega was not hurt.

In 1826, Henry Clay fought (his second duel) with John Randolph just across the field better looking, and to all appearant methods there were a thousand on the property of the field better looking, and to all appearant methods there were a comes to the field better looking. hear the once dreaded term "old maid" applied to herself with perfect equanimity The words strike the ear, but carry no thrill to the heart. The true woman feels that she can stand on her own respectibilsixty feet of her more than an hour, look- ty, though she stand alone. If ad she inan American artist, because she said her ing in the unity in which God created her, time is fully employed. That is not the she can wrap the mantle of her own selfreason, as you will guess. Queen Victo- respect about her, and while she acknow-Many and sacred may be her ties to earth-

"Gales from heaven, if so he will, Sweeter melody may wake On the lonely mountain-rill, Than the meeting waters make, Who hath the Father and the son, May be left, but not alone." THE PROPER MANNER FOR WOMEN TO following : ... "As you look from your win dows in Paris, observe the first fifty women who pass; forty have noses depressed in the middle, a small quantity of for the season, but the age and complexsuming the quarrel of Jas. Watson Webb and cheerless motion of the head. I was ion of the wearer. How neat the feet and thousands of spectators below, in consewith Jonathan Cilley, of Maine, selected for a moment within ten feet of her, and hands! How well the clothes are put on, quence of the constant emission of sparks, Speaking with an Englishman in Paris each other! Before English women can he had ever uttered in relation to it, and friends, Jackson and Merrell, were arrued about her, the other day, he remarked dress perfectly, they must have the taste 'O, she does very well for a Queen to fill of the French, especially in color. One ponsibility. The only subject upon which ating Cilley, moved toward the river, and the throne; she makes a good mother and reason why we see colors ill-arranged in England is, that different articles are purchased each for its own imagined virtues, and without any thought of what is to be worn with it. Women, while shopping buy what pleases the eye on the counter, forgetting what they have got at beautifully says: "There are times when home. That parasol is pretty, and it will the pulse "lies low" in the bosom, and kill, by its color, one dress in the buyer's beats slow in the veins; when the spirit wardrobe, and be unsuitable for the othsleeps the sleep, apparently that knows ers: To be magnificently dressed costs no waking, in its house of clay, and the money; but, to be dressed with taste mond editors, held a harmless set to here, window-shuttets are closed, and the door knowledge and refinement. Never buy is hung with the invisible crape of mel- an article unless it is suitable to your age In 1853, Davis and Ridgeway fought ancholly; when we turn the golden sun- habits, style, and to the rest of your wardhere; Bidgeway allowed his antagonist to shine into pitchy blackness, and are very robe. Nothing is more vulgar than to willing to "tancy clouds where no wear costly dresses with a common delain clouds be." This is a state of sickness or cheap laces with expensive brocades. "tancy clouds where no wear costly dresses with a common delaine when physic may be thrown to the dogs, what colors, we may be asked go best to for we will have none of it What shall gether? Green with violet; cold with raise the aleeping Lazarus? What shall dark crimson or lilac; pale blue with scarwitness the feat of the Elephant Lalla make the heart beat music again, and the let or pink. A cold color generally repulses dance to it through all the myriad quire a warm tint to give life to it. Gray thronged halls in our house of life ?- and pale blue, for instance do not com-What shall make the sun kiss the East- bine well, both being cold colors. White ern hills again for us with all his old a and black are safe to wear, but the latter waking gladness, and the night overflow is not favorable to dark complexions .-Pink is, for some skins, the most becom-Love itself is the greatest stimulant-the ing ; not however, if there is much color most intoxicating of all-and performs all in the cheeks or lips, and if there be even these miracles; but it is a miracle itself, a suspicion of red in either hair or comand is not at the drug store, whatever plexions. Peach color is perhaps, one of they say. The counterfeit is in the mar- the most elegant colors worn. Maize is ting the overthrow of the government. It ket, but the winged god is not a money very pecoming, particularly to persons is false. changer, we assure you. Men have tried with dark hair and eyes. But whereever many things-but still they ask for stimu- the colors or materials of the entire dress ulants we use, but require the use of more. the details are all in all; the lace round Men try to drown the floating dead of the bosoms and sleeves, the flowers-in he is not a slaveholder !-- that he is comtheir own souls in the wine-cup, but the fact, all that furnishes the dress. The pelled to employ white servant girls !corpses will rise. We see their faces in ornaments in the head must harmonize the bubles. The intoxication of drink with the dress. If trimmed with black sets the world whirling again, and the lace, some of the same should be worn in Mr. Breckinridge is not, we believe, a pulses playing wildest music, and the the head, and flowers that are worn in the thoughts galloping—but the fast clock head should decorate the dress wealthy man. Is that a valid objection, freeman of Kentucky?—Lowiscille Cour-The following new Bell and Everett ie.

ournars are just started in this State: Constitution, Laneaster, Pa. The Union Bell, Newville, Cumberland co., Pa. Blair County American, Altoona, Pa. Tyrone Star, Tyrone City, Pa. Montgomery Press, (German) Norris town, Pa.

known.

A Wonderful clock

The clock in the tower of the Cathedras "I do not ever expect to be married," of Strausburg, is not only a monster in aid a young lady of twenty-three, some size, but is the most wonderful piece of mechanism in the world. It is one huns dred feet high, thirty feet wide, and fifteen deep. About twenty feet from the bottom is the dial, on each side of which is a cherub, holding a small mallet in his hand, while over the dial is a small bell; ted the maiden, 'and I have formed three the cherub on the left strikes the first resolutions on the subject': First, that I quarter, and that on the right the second quarter. Fifty feet above the dial is a colossal of Time, with a bell in his left hand young man in front strikes the third quarter on the bell in Time's left hand, and ctic eye, and pernaps her resolutions have then turns and glides with a slow step a round behind Time, when out comes an old man with a matlet and places himself plate the first two has been small. The in front of the great reaper. As the hour world has proved a very good one, pre- of twelve comes the old man deliberately enting as few sharp corners and as many strikes, with much power, twelve times on the bell. He then glides slowly beseen expected; and if the words, "It's hind Time, and the young man again hard work living," have been cchoed now comes out and takes his position, ready to set in motion some twelve feet higher, of Christ upon it, The instant twelve is As to the last resolution there are tran- struck a figure of one of the Apostles sition years, when it requires some little walks out from behind, comes in front, To on around to his place. This is repeated walk out, bow, and pass on. As the last tance and with lifelike unnaturalness;-Then all is still as death,

Live for Good.

Thousands of men breathe, moove and ive-pass off the stage of life, and are heard of no more. Why? they did not a particle of it in the world; and none were ty, though she stand alone. If ad she in- pleased by them, none could point to flicted a wound on the holy estate of them as the instruments of their redempthe same eyes assisted by powerful race- matrimony," that relation, more frequentation; not a word they spoke could be recall glasses, which I borrowed. Let me say ly abused, perhaps, than any other of ed, and so they perished; their light went ly abused, perhaps, than any other of ed, and so they perished; their light went God's blessed gifts-had she done this, by out in darkness, and they were not regiving her hand without the pure offering membered more than the insects of yesor, let me remind you that very recently of the heart, she might well feel that she terday. Will you thus live and die? O, the Queen refused to sit for a likeness to had taken astep downward. But stand- man immortal! Do good, and leave be hind you a monument of virtue that the storm of time can never destroy. Write your name in kindness, love and mercy. brow of the evening. Good deeds will shine as brightly on the earth as the stars of heaven.

> BLONDIN ON FIRE-NARROW ESCAPE .-Blondin, the tight-rope performer, met with a serious accident a few nights ago during his exhibition at Chilicothe, Ohio. The Cincinnati Gazette says: dusk he gave a performance of trundling a wheelbarrow across a rope, and to make Dress,-"All the Year Round" has the the feat more terrific, he encircled himself in a blaze of fireworks, which were ignited simultaneously with his starting .-Before he had accomplished half his task. dark hair, and a swarthy complexion, but one of the pieces prematurely exploded then, what a toilet? Not only suitable and set fire to his clothing. The peril of his situation could not be seen by the and, more than all, how well they suit and the adventurous Blondin had nothing to de but walk the rope and suffer the torture of being slowly roasted. Having accomplished the distance, he, by hisown efforts succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not before his back was yes ry badly burned."

SCANDAL IN OHIO. - at Hamilton, Ohio, a few days ago, "a prominent citizen" wrote to a popular clergyman that he wanted to join the church, but could not think of associating with Mrs. , the wife of a "well-known lawyer." The letter got handed around, and finally reached the attention of "well-known lawyer," who immediately went gunning with a Colt after "prominent citizen," and got within shooting distance of the "citizen." "Well-known lawyer" blazed away, the citizen dodged and ran; "well known lawer" followed, popping a shot in after his flying game at every chance, until at last he hit him in the shoulder. The doctor was called in, explanations cusued, and the affair was "hushed up."

NEW OBJECTION TO MR. BRECKINGIDUE .-Mr. Breckingidge is charged by the conspirators with having opposed Mr. Cass's lection in 1848. The charge is false; and has been refuted.

He is charged with having favored Know Nothingism in 1855. It is false.-He denounced the whole thing.

He is charged with being a disunionist. The charge is made by those who are plot-

He is now charged with being a poor

It is said he never owned a slave !-that that he necessarily employs white laborers on his farm! This may all be true.-

BED. The N. Y. Times says : - We desire to congratulate Rev. Mr. Sheehan, who is the reported bridegroom to whose fortunes are now allied the fame name and reputation of Mrs. Emma Cunningham Burdell. Mr Sheehan is a Universallst preacner of more than ordinary talent .-Let us hope he is happily located and may And a paper at Reading, name not he live an enviably life for many long and blissfu; years.