

Home Affairs.

Clearfield, Pa., Sept. 19, 1860.

On our first page will be found the address of the Democratic Executive Committee. It is full of patriotic truths...

Some Snakes.—We learn that on Monday, the 18th inst., Mr. Abbott of Huston tp. in this county while gathering blackberries...

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—Our fair grounds are rapidly hastening toward completion. The Race course is now about completed...

THE CENSUS.—Mr. J. G. Hall finished up the Census of this borough on last Saturday. The return shows a population of 763 against 503 inhabitants in 1850...

TRAVELING.—This prosperous business still continues notwithstanding the "terrors of the law." Whether men are getting worse in these latter days, or whether they engage in this business because it requires less capital than almost any other...

ROBBERY AND MURDER.—On Sunday the 2nd inst., the house of Thomas Stewart, of Toby township, Clarion county, was entered and robbed of about $80. The same night Jared Lewis and Eli McCall, entered the persons suspected, one of whom drew a revolver and fired instantly killing Lewis and wounding McCall...

One of the outlaws goes by the name of Charley Logue, is about six feet high, a mole on the temple, florid complexion, brown hair, and Roman nose. The other is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, sandy complexion with bright red moustache, and had on a light brown coat.

JOHN BROWNISM.—We respectfully ask the attention of our readers to the columns published in another column, of the efforts of Abolition incendiaries to stir up a servile insurrection in various parts of the South. We copy from the New York Tribune, in which paper, it will be pretended by our Republican friends, these extracts are published "for political effect."

Like the John Brown foray at Harper's Ferry, these demonstrations are the legitimate consequences of the principles and teachings of the present Abolitionized Republican party, and we submit the facts to the sober reflection of the conservative citizens of the loyal, union-loving Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The "irrepressible conflict" is at hand with the Abolitionists. The extermination of slavery, whether by the torch, the sword, or the poisoned cup, is a righteous cause with them. "Let the slave-master atone for his death in his cup" is the command recently given by a leading abolitionist. "Let slavery be abolished everywhere" said the Blake Revolution, which received the votes of SIXTY Black Republicans of the present Congress; and in these extracts we see an attempt to obey such teachings. Conservative men of Pennsylvania, should such things be?

DIED.—On Saturday Sept., 8th VIRGINIA, daughter of Z. C. and Elizabeth McCullough aged 2 years.

On Saturday, Sept., 8th FRANK SON of George and ——— Shultz, aged about 8 years.
